Dear Libby,   7/5/85

It was kind of you to check around about Eleanor Matson for me and I thank you for it and for the gratifying results. I like it much better that our Eleanor seems not to have been the person who worked for those terrible people doing such evil things in 1948.

Maybe I should have wondered whether our Eleanor ever worked.

Thanks also for telling me that preparations are being made for a 55th class reunion. I'm so sorry I missed the 50th! Gives me an idea I'll float possibly this Sunday. If and/or Jimmy remember Rev. Steen, who besides being a preacher taught commerical subjects to our and other classes, his granddaughter and grandson are dear friends of ours. They have relatives in and near Wilmington and I'll se if I can interest them in a trip that coincides with the reunion.

The grandson is just about now losing his job. If he continues in employment near here perhaps it will be possible.

I do hope so! I had no interest in the college reunion but I had wanted very much to get th the high school one.

Again thansk and best to you and Jim and any others you may speak to.

                                        Sincerely,

                                        Harold

Dear Harold,

I made some inquiries of some knowing Eleanor Matson and they knew nothing about her training as an investigative reporter, in fact they didn't think Eleanor had ever worked.
I know she was at Univ. of Del. Women's College for a year, and married Alden Holsinger who was a teacher at Goldey's Business School. I really think the person making inquiries about you but whom you never saw must have been another Eleanor Matson. Incidentally Eleanor died last August of heart failure.

The Wilmington High classes of 1931 are going to start planning in the fall for our 55th reunion next spring. You will receive notice of arrangements in due time and we hope you will be able to come. Since the reunion we have been able to locate addresses of a few more classmates, and heard of the death of 12.

Jim sends his best to you.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth
