MCC Officials Are Subpenaed 9.1+-67 Aaron M. Kohn, managing di-material for the article was rector, and 15 members of the supplied by the Crime Commis-

Mertopolitan Crime Commis-sion. sion of Greater New Orleans, Inc., have been subpenaed for questioning by the Orleans Parish Grand Jury, which will begin an investigation Thursday into the extent of organized crime in this area.

The investigation was ordered by District Attorney Jim Garrison following publication of an article in Life magazine charg-1 ing that racketeering is booming in the New Orleans area.

Garrison termed the Life S charges "utterly ridiculous," but V said the matter merited a full t grand jury probe because of the h national publicity generated by to the magazine article. Kohn has b stated publicly that much of the a