Money Offered for Help, RFK 'Plot' Witness Says

-A fourth witness has said he Robert E. Lee of Garrison's ofwas offered money for helping fice and talked to Lee later at the investigation of New Or- the district attorney's office. leans District Attorney Jim Garrison into the Kennedy as-Shaw? And I said, well I knew sassination.

ran a Turkish bath in New Or-some of the time, yes," Leeleans, said Garrison's investi- mans told the NBC interviewgators told him he would be er, continuing: helped to get $2500 he needed "And he said, did he use the bath by someone named Lee.

Monday night TV special "The volved in anything like this. I Jim Garrison."

the Federal Communications money for it. Commission (FCC) charging that "NBC has gone far be-that if you help us that we can yond the pretense of merely help you, and you can get the gathering and disseminating place that you want. So then news in its attack on the State he asked me questions about, of Louisiana prior to the trial of Clay L. Shaw."

Harvey Oswald and others baths? conspired to kill President John F. Kennedy. Shaw has figured he wanted a yes, so I been indicted.

The three other witnesses who said they were offered concessions to help the investigation were Miguel Torres. John (the Baptist) Cancler and Alvin Beauboef. Torres and Cancler are convicted burglars now in jail. Beauboef said he was offered $3000 and a job.

Leemans in the interview

NEW YORK, June 19 (OPI) said he received a call from a

"He said, did I know Clay him. He said, he used to come Fred Leemans, who once to your place and I said, well, to lease a building for a night-name Clay Bertrand, and I club if he could remember told him that I couldn't swear that Clay L. Shaw used the that he used that name bename Clay Bertrand and was cause I didn't remember accompanied to the Turkish names too good, or dates. And he said it would be very help-Leemans made the remark ful to them if I could rememin a filmed interview with ber any of that, And I said, NBC-TV news as part of the well, I don't want to get in-JFK Conspiracy: The Case of said I'm trying to get a lease on a building in New Orleans Garrison wrote Sunday to now, if I could raise the

"And he said, well, I'm sure couldn't I remember that Clay Shaw used the name of Clay Garrison claims Shaw, Lee Bertrand when he came to the

"The way he asked that I told him yes. . . ."