

NEW ADDRESS: Rt. 7, Frederick, Md. 21701; ; ; 301-473-8186

December 2, 1967

Mr. Julian Goodman, President
National Broadcasting Co.,
30 Rockefeller Plaza
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Goodman,

This is to inform you that my letter to you of August 16 has not really been responded to. My earlier letter to the "Today" Show, requesting the opportunity to make fair response to the false charges by Charles Roberts likewise has not been answered.

Under date of August 30 Mr. William R. McAndrews did write me. His letter was not responsive. On the chance that you are not aware of its contents, I give you a copy of my letter to him of September 2.

Since then I have heard nothing.

Since then also the book I referred to, OSWALD IN NEW ORLEANS, has appeared. I requested the publisher, Canyon Books, 131 East 51 St., New York, to send copies to NBC, and I presume this has been done.

There are a number of things about which I wrote NBC, including two separate invocations of the FCC's, if not your own "fairness doctrine".

I would appreciate hearing further from you. Although in your new post you are undoubtedly a very busy man, because of your responsibilities I do encourage you to become familiar with what NBC has done. I cannot believe that you are aware of what those in your employ have done or its potential. Nor do I believe that those who have done what I know they have are about to advertize it. To the degree that I can, I will help you if you look into this.

In your position, you may wonder if I have ulterior motive. I do not, as I believe will be obvious to you if you think about this. What I do seek is to diminish the inevitable consequences of the awful thing that has happened and to establish the truth to the degree that man now can. If you do undertake to learn what I know you can learn and do not now know, it will in no way benefit me personally. It may save you and NBC very great embarrassment and cost in the near future.

In any event, I would appreciate meaningful and pertinent response to my previous letters.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
