October 12, 1967

Dear Mr. Johnson,

In the recent Xeroxing, the following items seems to have been overlooked:

The Oswald "Fair Play" literature with the return address 544 Camp St.

Under Belin, of a 41-page memo on whether Marines could testify, dated 3/11/64, the first two pages.

Billens memo to Barrar, 2/22/64, on file classification

Redlich memo to Liebler,, 7/22/64, relating to General Walker and Cubans

A second Redlich memo of the same date, in the same file

Redlich memo to Rankin, 3/26/64, on Report outline.

Ely memo to Belin, 4/21/64, on the Fritz and Curry appearances.

Pollok memo to Griffin, 7/17/67, on further investigation.

Ely memo to Polak, 9/16/64, relating to the conspiracy chapter.

From Box 4, Griggin, Hubert memo 4/1/64. There are two not quite identical versions, the other dated 3/20. Both, please.

The photographs were excellent. However, you forgot to indicate the exhibit number of each on the photograph of all. If you could indicate them for me, from left to right, I'd appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
