Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is in reply to your letter of October 12, 1967, concerning records of the Warren Commission.

The copy of a portion of Commission Exhibit 3120 and the photographs which you ordered have been sent to you. The exhibits in the group photograph consist of the following, from left to right: CE 399, CE 853, CE 857 and 858 (two bullet fragments shown in both these exhibits), and CE 856. You can identify these exhibits in the photograph in any way satisfactory to you. If you will bring the photograph with you when you come to the National Archives, we will identify the exhibits for you as you may indicate you want them identified.

We are mailing you copies of all the memoranda or letters listed in your letter except three. The memoranda and outgoing letters of the Commission do not include any memoranda from Norman Redlich to Wesley J. Liebeler dated July 22, 1964, but they do include a letter of that date from Mr. Redlich to Mr. Liebeler. We are sending you a copy of this letter. The Griffin-Hubert memoranda of March 20 and April 1, 1964, are withheld from research under Guideline 3(B).

Sincerely yours,
