Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is in reply to your letter of December 24, 1970.

We shall be pleased to show you the Warren Commission material which has been made available for research when you come to the National Archives on January 6.

We do not know of any Secret Service material concerning any of the names listed in our letter of December 21 that is among the material that has been made available, nor do we know of any Secret Service material concerning those names that is withheld from research. The Secret Service review has been completed, but the 1970 review as a whole is not quite completed.

Please add Secret Service Control No. 453 in Commission Document 87 to your copy of the list of parts of documents that have been made available for research.

Sincerely,

JAMES B. RHOADS
Archivist of the United States
