

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF RECORDS IN THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The restrictions stated below apply to the kinds or classes of accessioned records designated regardless of the record groups to which such records belong. Additional restrictions applicable to particular record groups are separately issued.

- I. Records: Records less than 75 years old of the investigation of persons or groups of persons by investigative authorities of the executive branch.

Restrictions: Information in these records will be made available only as authorized by an appropriate official of the originating agency or its successor agency.

Imposed by: The Archivist of the United States.

- II. Records: Records less than 50 years old of the following kinds that originated in the military services of the Department of Defense: inspector general reports of investigation or of inquiry, aircraft accident reports, and records of boards of investigation, courts-martial, courts of inquiry, military commissions, and provost courts.

Restrictions: Information in these records will be made available only as authorized by an appropriate official of the originating agency or its successor agency.

Imposed by: The Archivist of the United States in conformity with the guide lines set forth in Department of Defense Directive 5200.6.

- III. Records: All documents less than 75 years old among the records of any agency of the Government that are identifiable as having originated with the Federal Bureau of Investigation or its predecessor, the Bureau of Investigation (established July 26, 1908).

Restrictions: Information in these records will be made available only as authorized by an appropriate official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Imposed by: The Archivist of the United States in agreement with the Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation.

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF RECORDS IN THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The restrictions stated below apply to the kinds or classes of accessioned records designated regardless of the record groups to which such records belong. Additional restrictions applicable to particular record groups are separately issued.

- I. Records: Records less than 75 years old of the investigation of persons or groups of persons by investigative authorities of the executive branch.
Restrictions: Information in these records will be made available only as authorized by an appropriate official of the originating agency or its successor agency.
Imposed by: The Archivist of the United States.
- II. Records: Records less than 50 years old of the following kinds that originated in any of the components of the Department of Defense, inspector general reports of investigation or of inquiry, aircraft accident reports, and records of boards of investigation, courts-martial, courts of inquiry, military commissions, and provost courts.
Restrictions: Information in these records will be made available only as authorized by an appropriate official of the originating agency or its successor agency.
Imposed by: The Archivist of the United States in conformity with the guide lines set forth in Department of Defense Directive 5400.7, June 23, 1967.
- III. Records: All documents less than 75 years old among the records of any agency of the Government that are identifiable as having originated with the Federal Bureau of Investigation or its predecessor, the Bureau of Investigation (established July 26, 1908), that include quotations from or paraphrase statements in such documents, that identify by name personnel of the Bureau, or that reveal the Bureau's sources of information.
Restrictions: Information in these records will be made available only as authorized by an appropriate official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
Specified by: The Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation.