

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20226

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

November 13, 1970

Mr. James B. Rhoads
Archivist of the United States
National Archives and Records Service
Washington, D. C. 20408

Dear Mr. Rhoads:

In connection with the civil action Weisberg vs The National Archives, Civil Action 2569-70, Mr. Weisberg called at this office recently and displayed a copy of the proceedings in the case. He stated that since the Government's answer reflected that the Archives should not have been a party to some of the requests being made by Weisberg, he was notifying us that under the Freedom of Information Act he was requesting a copy of the Memorandum of Transfer to the Archives dated April 26, 1965, covering material then in the possession of the Secret Service, which memorandum reflected that Mrs. Evelyn Lincoln had receipted for the material set out in the Memorandum of Transfer.

There may be some validity in Mr. Weisberg's contention that since this paper is in the possession of the Secret Service, we are the proper people for him to sue or to subpoena to produce the item. However, since another Government agency has declined to furnish him a copy of the item, we are seeking advice as to what action we should take if a suit is brought seeking to force us to produce the document, or if a subpoena is received to produce the document for his examination.

The position of the Secret Service is that we have no grounds upon which to refuse making the item available to Mr. Weisberg if he should invoke the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

Very truly yours,

Thomas J. Kelley
