mond Veto on Co

By Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson 🖖

The position that Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.), the Sen- of the story. The rest of it will Miami Beach is probably the mond met Nixon privately in most important development

Sen. Thurmond has now denied to Richard Starnes of the Scripps-Howard newspapers that he made any deal with Nixon. But in so doing Thurmond actually confirms the fact that he did veto Gov. Nel- the convention if he selected son Rockefeller and Mayor a Northern liberal as his run-John Lindsay of New York, Sen. Mark Hatfield of Oregon and Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois for the vice presidential nomination.

"To me," Sen. Thurmond is quoted as saying, "Mr. Nixon's assurances on the kind of Vice President he intended to pick were ample. But there was some renewed alarm . . . and I had Dent (chairman of the South Carolina delegation) call John Mitchell (Nixon's consider this a deal. Neverthe- Chief Justice. Thurmond's ve- Thurmond's ate's No. 1 Dixiecrat, played in also be denied. However, here the backstage maneuvering at is what happened. Sen. Thurthe Riviera hotel in Atlanta on most important development June 1. This was when the so far in the election camdeal described above was consummated. As already reported, Nixon made Thurmond his private ambassador to corral Southern delegates, and Thurmond in turn persuaded Nixon that he could not expect to hold Southern delegates at

Supreme Court Veto

But their conversation went much further. Thurmond is ture Supreme Court Justices passionately interested in the Supreme Court. He feels that the worst blot on American Supreme Court's desegregation ruling of 1954, coupled with its other rulings the one-man, one-vote decision for campaign manager),"

the reapportionment of state
There followed the all-night legislatures and rulings pro-

and the market of the state of less, to paraphrase Shake-speare, a deal by any other name would smell as sweet.

Shake-to paraphrase Shake-paraphrase Shake-par handed down before Fortas was appointed to the Court prohibiting the police from holding suspected criminals history. without formally charging them.

appointment, so it was not surprising that he raised it as a main point in his private talk with Nixon in Atlanta at the Riviera hotel. Though unpublicized, this was the most important part of the Nixon-Thuragreement from Nixon that if elected, he would appoint fuagreeable to the South-in effeet giving Thurmond the right to pass on all Court aphistory in this century was the pointments just as he passed on vice presidential candidates in Miami Beach...

Thurmond's Record

There followed the all-night legislatures and rulings prosession at the Eden Roc hotel at which Northern candidates which Northern candidates were vetoed and it was finally agreed Gov. Spiro Agnew of Maryland was acceptable to the South.

Apparently the Senator Appearently the Senator from South Carolina didn't confirmation hearings to be has not been reminded of the Nixon-Thurmond deal is the fact that many editors the fa Most surprising aftermath from South Carolina didn't confirmation hearings to be has not been reminded of @ 1968, Bell-McClure Syndicate, Inc.

days of the late Sen. Joe Me-ern delegates from the Demo-Carthy.

He was referring to a ruling after Hubert Humphiey forced the adoption of a civil rights plank in the Democratic platform for the first time in Thurmond promptly proceeded to organize the States Sen. Thurmond had been Rights party and ran against nursing his critical view of the Harry S. Truman for Presi-Court long before the Fortas dent, thus trying indirectly to help Gov. Thomas E. Dewey get elected. He failed.

Since then Thurmond has become the unfailing spokesman for neo-fascists in the United States. Newspaper editors have good reason to know mond deal. Thurmond got an of his close ties with Gen. Edwin Walker, because Walker brought a series of mammoth libel suits against the Associated Press as well as the Louisville Courier-Journal, New Orleans Times-Picayune, Denver Post and other papers. The cost of defending the Associated Press suit alone ran around $800,000, even though the AP won.

It was Thurmond, a reserve