Article Calls States Rights Movement Race-Oriented

MADISON, Wis., May 30— The National States Rights party based in Birmingham, Ala., is depicted as promoting "a home-grown version to Nazi racism" in the June issue of Progressive magazine.

The national monthly journal published here, said it was pre-senting what it believed to be the first full-length, documented report on the party to appear in a magazine.

The article, "Hucksters of Hate-Nazi Style," faid that the party claimed to be the third largest in the country and that largest in the country and that it had units in 38 states, many of them in large cities, including Chicago, New York, Los Angeles, Atlanta, Washington and Jacksonville, Fla.

The article, written by Edward Harris and Joseph Wilson, Alabamians who are freelance writers, said that in addition to the party's national newspaper, The Thunderbolt, which is published in Birmingham, the party had newspapers in New York, Florida, California, Ohio Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri. souri.

Coalition Formed in '58

The article said the party emerged from a coalition of the States Rights party and the United White party in 1958. The party, the article said has also absorbed the Conserva

The article also said that in 1960 the party, after nominating Gov. Orvil E. Faubus of Arkansas for the Presidency and Adm. John G. Crommelin, retired, for the Vice Presidency, managed to get the ticket on the ballot in Arkansas, Louisiana, Kentucky, Delaware, Tennessee and Florida. It said Mr. Faubus neither campaigned for the ticket nor repudiated it.

Justices Are Condemned

The Thunderbolt has said that members of the United States Supreme Court were guilty of treason and should be executed, the article said. It also said that the article said. It also said that the party newspapers reprinted in June, 1963 the May, 1934, issue of Julius Streicher's anti-semitic Nazi publication, Der Sturmer. The party hopes to become a mass movement but its immediate danger "lies in its proven ability to infiltrate other groups and use to its advantage the fears of a community in racial crisis," the article stated.

"Crackpots, maybe, but not harmless crackpots as long as they can escalate hate into ylence," the article said.
