

U.S. Reincarnation of Hitlerism Cited

By Drew Pearson
and Jack Anderson

The tabloid New York Daily News, the Nation's most widely circulated newspaper, has referred young people to the National Youth Alliance, which is an American reincarnation of the Hitler Youth movement.

In an editorial attack upon the Students for a Democratic Society, the Daily News declared: "To our younger customers, if you are looking for a patriotic organization which is the exact opposite of the down-with-everything SDS, get in touch with National Youth Alliance, 813 Dupont Circle Building, Washington, D.C. 20036, telephone 202 833-8450."

We have written several columns exposing the communist-anarchist ideology behind the SDS. We have also written several columns exposing how the Nazis have taken over the NYA, lock, stock and bank account. Both groups promote violence and seek the overthrow of the U.S. Government.

The NYA is the former Youth for Wallace organization, which changed its name after the election. The original leaders opposed the Nazi takeover but were driven out by the Nazis, who seized the membership list, contributors' list and bank assets.

In a sworn affidavit, John Acord, the former NYA chairman, has described how the Nazis converted the NYA into a Nazi front. Here is his account, for example, of a typical meeting:

"The meeting opened with the majority of the men standing in a group with uplifted arms singing the 'Horst Wessel Lied,' the anthem of Nazi Germany. A number of speakers were introduced who talked for length on such topics as 'Plato the Fascist,' 'Negrified and Judaized America,' and a review of recent books purported to rehabilitate Hitler.

Killing of Jews

"Special emphasis was given to a soon-to-be-published book, 'Myth of the Six Million,' (Louis T.) Byers said that the book was badly needed by those seeking to revive the Nazi movement, but was likely to disappoint the membership as it proved beyond any doubt that the SS had done away with considerably less than six million Jews, that in actual fact the book documented that only a few hundred thousand of the 'Sheenies' had been liquidated. Byers expressed the belief that next time the final solution to the Jewish problem will be more efficiently executed."

Dennis McMahon, a former NYA vice chairman, tells in his affidavit of being invited to Byers' home.

"I saw a case," McMahon swears, "in which I was told was $300 worth of ammunition, a World War I shotgun allegedly banned by the Geneva convention, and numerous other pieces of weaponry, including German Lugers."

We assumed that the Daily News must have missed our columns about the Nazi takeover of the NYA, so we located the editorial writer to offer him the evidence. He turned out to be Reuben Maury, who gruffly challenged us to print the story. "Go ahead and print the story and be sure to use my name," he said, "if you've got the guts."

[Editor's Note: As the result of our conversation with Maury, the New York Daily News asked its Washington Bureau to check into the NYA and concluded from the investigation that the endorsement of the NYA had been a mistake. In its Tuesday editions The New York Daily News fully withdrew its endorsement.]

Attorney General, a man with long legal experience, highly qualified to be Chief Justice.

Justice Potter Stewart, a moderate Republican who could be elevated to the Chief Justiceship.

Charles Rhyne, a close friend and classmate of Nixon at the Duke University school.

Justice Warren Burger, conservative Republican on the U.S. Court of Appeals in the District of Columbia.

To replace Fortas, Nixon will probably keep a Jewish in keeping with the tradition. Among prominent Jewish names are:

Bernard
Philadelphia, pre-American
moderate
Henry
Secor
Pea
P.