

Dear Bill,

7/7/95

Lil got the mail after a long conversation with marina and she ~~was~~ was no sooner back in the house than there was another long call. When I had time I read your 7/5 and your letters to Schulman ~~and~~ highlighted them. Close to our early supper and I want to mail this in the a.m. Before I forget, because I could not highlight what is not in what you wrote, you'll be able to lend Schulman Senator Russell Dissemits.

Popkin's son may have been crabby because of his unhappiness with his father's craziness. He should have been much embarrassed by that.

On you dog sleeping with Betsy and ESB, in the 1940s we had a ^{Russel} crossed fox terrier who would lie down next to Lil. If Lil had a headache and I moved near her that dog growled and told me to stay away. Somehow he knew when Lil was not feeling well. So I can't buy dog ESP.

And we both hope you can both come here this fall. I look forward to a visit from Perry and Dennis next month ~~in~~ when they deliver a paper in Washington.

I think Dan will help you in any way he can in Charlotte. Nice guy, Spoke to him today.

You talk about a lawyer shooting in court, that is an old KY tradition. There was Cleon K. Calvert in Harlan who was never in court without his weapon.

The part of the Virginia floods that was closer to use was west of here, no farther than DC. But it did not hit us.

I did not get the Lovelady picture from FOIA litigation. Got it from the Archives.

I never said that Oswald had an FBI connection. I quoted others who said it.

That "missile" receipt was probably for a fragment. A corpsman typed it up.

Schulman's name sounds familiar. Be nice if he goes for it. May tell a few more people about the known fact. And how they can learn more. I think more and more that it is the stupidity of omitting the subtitle from the cover that has so many stores not stocking the book. I learned only after the cover was made. I got them to use it on the inside title page but that is not on the computers from which the stores decide what to stock.

But
Harold
