

WILLIAM L. NEICHTER
ATTORNEY AT LAW
1313 LYNDON LANE
SUITE 115
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY 40222
(502) 429-0266

Augst 20, 1997

Dear Harold:

Please note that Gary Webb's zip code is 95608.

All I sent Gary was the 4-4-67 LBJ-CIA memo and some articles about you. He did not answer, but he may just be busy.

When you have the chance, send me a box of 10 or so of Whitewash II. Also, 3 of "Frame-Up"

Harold, I have some version of the first epilogue of Waketh. I just went home at lunch to find it, but could not. It is around, I just reread part of it! I'll find it and see if it is the one you are looking for.

I need to take notes on your letters!

I got some of the stuff from the National Archives. I sent them $80 for the rest. The part I got is involving the visit of Sen. Cooper and Russell to interview Marina Oswald.

I shall send all of it to you when I get it.

Between clients, entertaining Dick, Betsy's father, and other work, I have neglected my correspondence.

I achieved a lifelong dream recently. I made it to Victory Lane at Indy! With just a camera, but it was still cool. Tom Carnegie is about 78, and he is the PA announcer. No notes, just sits in Victory Lane and informs the crowd. Some of you older fellows are just amazing! I hope I know my name when I am your age.

Took Betsy's boss, the assistant warden of LaGrange State Ref., to Indy. Cat hospitality tent, the whole bit. "Big shot for a day". It is kind of weird to go around and introduce myself as with Wayne Supply, since they fired me! But I have to be polite to the Cat people. Since the big yellow tractors are the basis of the Neichter fortune such as it is, I can't bitch too much!

Anyway, if we end up in prison in Kentucky, we have a friend! Plus, a woman I know is head of the parole board!

Enjoyed your comments on Norris Lake. Haven't been there in 30 years. Saw the biggest smallmouth bass I have ever personally seen there once, 8 pounds. Not mine, however. We used to catch some weird red eyed bass, did not know what they were. Biologists now know they were Kentucky bass, also known as spotted bass. For years, we did not know what they were. Biologists were also confused. Look like a cross between small and large mouth.

I am going to send this letter, but I shall try to followup followup tomorrow. Infor on epilogue.

What are your thoughts on Marina's insistence that Oswald had a gun? I think she still insists to this day.

The guy who is the JFK collector is in last week's Enquirer. I will make you a copy. He befriended Mrs. Lincoln, who gave him a lot of stuff including a rocking chair, and got other members of JFK's staff to also give him items. Claims he will never sell them.

Things are going OK. Dad is regaining his strength, walked a mile last week. He really almost died in May. Has made for a long spring. We are sort of conspirators, best friends. When you work with your father, you either get real close or hate each other! They used to call me "Little Louie". I never had much resentment from the blue collar employe-s, but had some from managers. I guess working in the ware house for ten years made them realize I did know something about the business. To this day, I can tell a Cat from the grill. God knows how many of those I shipped out.

Hope you and Lil are doing well. Don't know when we can get up there. My main goal is to take Betsy and Dad to Key West to go fishing in late October. And live to tell the tale! I think my boat driving scares them. Well, they should do what I do, have a few drinks. My last local fishing trip was a dud but we still had fun. One guy I took to get his mind off his problems. His only child died last year at 15. Man, that was sad. My fishing trips are so weird it does free up the mind. But I am getting too old to sleep on a beer cooler. What I need is someone with a fishing camp. My uncle had one, and sold it as soon as we moved to Louisville in 1966. Still mad at him!

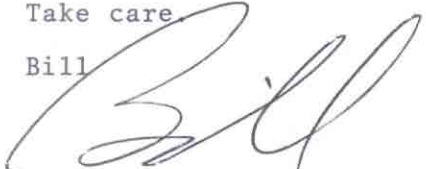

Sent Dave Wrone Bogus computer disk. Do you want me to send one to Gerry Ginocchio?

Never did hear from Dal McGuirk. Surely he would have received both computer disk and book of Waketh.

Enclose stamps including Wallengurg. Now there is a guy who proves the old saying, "No good deed goes unpunished". Never did understand why the Soviets killed him. Anybody who can get by Hitler on a loophole like he did to save Jews, has my admiration. A true hero.

Take care

Bill

8-25-97 PS - Mr. Broderson letter very interesting. Would like to get those pictures.