Dear Bill, 1/25/98

You said that the UK has one of the biggest black libraries.

As I indicated in what I then wrote, if it is interested, subject to Hood agreement it is welcome to copies or all I have on "ing and what relates to King. Of course I do not know that it has such an interest.

What relates includes, among other things, the FBI's headquarters and "emphis fileson the strike that led to King's being there to be killed there and on the groups of young kast blacks who took the unfortunate and iappropriate name of The 'nvaders. (They were much kess radical than this Counds.)

If UK is interested ti making copies and having them, then I would suggest, again subject to Hood's agreement, that I now transfer all my King materials (which are not duplicated at the Archives of elsewhere that know of) to Hood, where the copying could be done much more easily. And where, if a microfilming comany were interested, it would be so much easier than in our basement.

I have not discussed this with anyone. I'll give Jerry two copies when I see him, one for himself and one for Charles Kuhn, the food librarian.

Those files would not, I believe, require any accessioning because they are government disclosures under court compulsion (C.A.75-1776 as I now recall, in federal district court in Washingt A.)

This might also be true of the litigation records.

and Jerry, at my urging, went ahead with what is now printed, a fine job on The Last Crusade. He got unpublished FBI records for it under FOIA, with my FOIA lawyer acting as his. Jerry got FBI Poor Peoples Campaigh records as I now recall of FBIHQ and of Washington field.

The records thave are of HQ and of seven field offices, including Memphis, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Los angelos, Birmingham and I think another. Wash in gion by belief, as best a nonlawyer can have the belief, is that those records would be useful for those in the law school as well as other students.

Best.

Haroly
