Dear Harold and Lil:

Sorry to hear about health problems. I have had the same battle here with my father. He is better now, though.

Things have been hectic. Betsy just started on her PHD. I have been trying to catch up on work. I sent Clay Ogilvie a copy of Waketh, with disks to follow.

I have not heard from Joe Arnold, with the midnight show. These radio guys run hot and cold, I think they are busy all the time.

Glad you all liked the fruit basket. I hope it is something you can use. It is about 90 degrees here. Summer is in full swing.

As is usual, it was cloudy during the Perseid meteor shower a few days ago. However, I did get to see three meteors. I think you all on the east coast get more blue skies, we get an awful lot of gray skies.

Thank yoku for the enclosures. As you can see, my typing is out of practice.

I enclose one interesting thing that I had never heard of before, on a bullet. From JFK. Interesting.

I don't communicate with Gary Webb on a regular basis. I just called him one time and wrote him a couple letters, so I don't know who his agent is. I was amazed the Post reviewed his book.

The Clinton situation is amazing. What a bonehead. The Republicans are going to give him as hard of a time as humanly possible. He has managed to alienate almost everyone. That takes true talent.

Hope you both are feeling better. I'll write sooner.

Bill

DS aksi also enclosed is a guilty pleas now known as a "Boykin". Used in all serious misdemeanor and felony cases. Don't think James Earl Ray had one.
