Antiwar Rallies Around the

By William Chapman Washington Post Staff Writer

Antiwar rallies around the country drew generally small crowds yesterday as the Viet- relatively few people.

Pacific Coast Stock Exchange. showed up.

In cities and on campuses local demonstrations attracted They released black balloons today.

cities and on campuses In the Sheep Meadow in site of the federal courthouse. Santa Barbara because of the ewere leaflet campaigns Central Park an estimated In San Francisco, the tone hitch-hiking competition door-to-door canvasses. 3,000 persons staged a "lie- of the" day was a gradual Despite the influx—esti-

But with the major attention down and be counted demon-building toward a massive, of the antiwar groups concenstration, lying on the adgress eight-mile march through the trated on Washington, the ground to represent wandead, heart of the city scheduled for to symbolize Americans who Colleges in many states re- have died this year and white sands of people poured into onstration in Foley Square,

During the afternoon, thouwound up its two-day November protest.

Black balloons symbolizing students headed for today's the Vietnam war dead were loosed in the air over New ington and San Francisco. A York City's Central Park, and planned rally at Colleges in many states reported this year and white sands of people poured into ones to represent those who the city—the western counterwill will die in 1970. The demonstration part of the Washington mobility at the city—the western counterwill will die in 1970. The demonstration part of the Washington mobility at the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration part of the Washington mobility at the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration part of the Washington mobility at the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration part of the Washington mobility at the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration part of the Washington mobility at the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the western counterwilled in 1970. The demonstration is the city—the York City's Central Park, and planned rally at Columbia Meanwhile, about 600 per mune, walking barefoot to the a crowd of about 2,000 University was canceled when sons, mostly teen-agers, sang Stock Exchange rally, told marched on San Francisco's no one but the speakers and chanted at another dem-how he and a friend had been held up for five hours in

Nation Draw Sparse Turnouts

were evident at the Stock Ex-

They crowded onto the steps in front of the colonnaded Exchange building or watched from across the street as speakers, guerrilla theater performers and others sought to relate the war to the American profit motive.

A small number of curious mates of today's expected turn-out ranged from 50,000 (po-lice) to 250,000 (New Mobiliza-tion West)—only some 2,000 the window with the legend Northwest section of Chicago vice Pre sident "Shh!"

> At another point, a woman with a pin, puncturing his huge bouquet of 30 balloons group. one by one. The vendor only smiled.

The major Chicago demon-Grant Park for the 45 busloads of persons headed for businessmen, out for lunch, seemed unimpressed ("A lot of rabble to be roused," grum and a scheduled strike by high stration was a send-off rally in marched through an industrial park to protest defense work performed by companies with plants there, principally Lockheed and IBM.

In Cambridge, Mass., a drew only 200 persons. It was organized by the Latin American Defense Organization organized by the Latin Ameri-can Defense Organization, a matory" remarks about war

Among the signers were for-At Palo Alto, Calif., where Stanford University is Arthur Goldberg and former located, about 4,000 persons Under Secretary of State Eugene Rostow.

> In Tulsa, Okla., a large gong was sounded every five seconds in the Civic Center to stress the more than 39,000 Americans killed in Vietnam.

Supporters of the Vietnam Moratorium lie on the ground who died in Vietnam since the Nixon Administration took in the Sheep Meadow of New York's Central Park A spokesman said the black balloons represent Americans Americans who will die if war is not brought to an end.

United Press International

In San Francisco, demonstrators opposed to the war in Victnam line the pedestrian walkway of the Golden Gate. Bridge during commuter rush hour. Although the demon.

strators were conflicted to northbound side of the bridge away from the city-bound commuters, they caused traffic to back up for falles and slowed it by more than an hour.