A real
 and interesting story. But hardly new.

Of course,
 it gives
 support
 to your
 Second Oswald
 concept.

The A.I.B.
 has done
 real stuff
 but the Zaphod
 film showing
 are great.

The same position -
 taken recently
 of avoiding
 usual allegation
 is logical.

Perhaps,

Two Oswalds?

Photographs released by the New York Review of Books magazine which claims they were made by the Central Intelligence Agency tend to back up the theory that a man who looked like Oswald spent some time prior to the Kennedy assassination appearing in various areas and identifying himself as Lee Harvey Oswald. The top shows a man taken outside the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City in 1963 who identified himself as Lee Harvey Oswald. Below the real Oswald is seen after his arrest in Dallas, also in 1963.
