Dear Mr. Newcomb:

In my husband's absence, I am taking the liberty of replying to your letter.

Under separate cover I am sending you a copy of PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH. It is not available in your area except on direct order from us because the wholesaler there ordered 1,000 copies and returned 996 of them without filling any orders. We have had complaints from bookstores throughout the area he services that their orders have not been filled.

Please accept this letter as a bill. The price is $5.00 postpaid.

The Willis slides may be obtained from Phil Willis Enterprises, P O Box 17266, Dallas, Texas 75217. This information is on page 183 of FW. If you will send him $5.00, he'll send you a set.

Sincerely,

Lillian Weisberg

I have just returned home from an extended trip which ended in Los Angeles. Both my wife and I appreciate very much your kind words.

On the photographs, I have turned over to Richard Sprague, at the University Club, New York City, my leads, which he has been following up diligently. Possibly he may be able to put you in contact with people with photos to sell.

Sorry I can't be of more help, but time won't stretch any more and some things I cannot personally carry on.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely,
