Dear Mr. Brief,

Thanks for the old-fashioned courtesy of your letter of the 16th.

I, too, hope we meet someday. While it will be a pleasure to say hello to anyone who has been part of some of the fine work Newsday has done, I would like to try to interest you in other, completed work and its potential.

Meeting and working with Les Payne have been a joy. He is that kind of human being, that kind of reporter.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you very much for your speedy response to our request for several copies of your book. A check is on its way under separate cover.

I understand that you are talking to Les Payne and I do hope to meet you some day, if only to say hello.

Sincerely,

Kenneth H. Brief
