NOTE: Nichols made several telephonic requests for special handling in connection with the mailing of laboratory documents pertaining to the John F. Kennedy assassination case. He was furnished the charges ($42.60) and thereafter wired a check in the amount of $100 to the Office of the Deputy Attorney General with the request that the excess be applied to have the documents delivered to a TWA flight to Kansas City. He was advised we could not arrange for this type of handling. He thereafter provided for a private courier service to call for the documents at FBIHQ when they were ready for mailing. This was done and receipt from courier service representative is attached.
