

9/8/92

Dear Mary,

I've broadened the permission you requested. Also, while I do not know what you'll be doing in your class, Dr. Gerald McKnight, history, local Hood College and a dear friend, has had the bookstore there xerox a selection he made of documents I've given him for the use of his class. I've not seen it. I know he was having it punched for a three-ring notebook. Perhaps he would lend you a copy, if he can. I'm sure the cost will not be great and some of those documents are mindblowers and may well turn your students on.

The court reporter's ~~ex~~ records in Whitewash IV reveal that he was there and was paid a miserly $25. for taking that all down and then not transcribing it - after the end of the normal working day. Re 1/22/64 session.

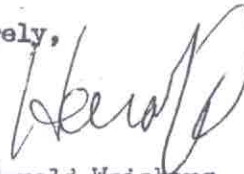

McKnight has copies of all the disclosed executive session transcript. He isn't. Hood College, Frederick, MD 21701 is all the address needed.

Whitewash IV costs considerably less than a xerox of that transcript. And has one helluva Ford story in it, too.

I'm not in a position to do any searching for them but if any of your students are ever near here they are welcome to copies of all I got under FOIA. Or any records.

Hope your class goes well and that you enjoy it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Harold:

Enclosed is a check for $51.45 for copies of WHITEWASH I through IV. I used the figures you gave me on the phone for the prices of these four volumes. (I've attached the adding machine tape.)

I will be recommending your books to my class, so I hope you will get a lot of orders. The class starts on October 1.

However, there is one document that I think my class ought to read early on and that is the minutes of the secret Warren Commission executive session of January 22, 1964 which appears in WHITEWASH IV. May I please xerox those 13 pages and give them out to my class? If it's okay, please sign the permission slip enclosed and return it with the books you are sending me.

I know this is a public document but I don't have any place to lay my hands on it quickly. Also, it has your notes on it so I assume they are copyrighted.

It might interest you to know that I am telling the class that the Executive Session of 1/27/64 is even more interesting but that they will have to buy WHITEWASH IV to get it.

From what I have seen so far of your work, we who are interested in this subject, all owe you a debt of gratitude for your indefatigable pursuit of these documents under FOIA.

Sincerely yours,

Certainly Jerry
