

KPFA 3/12/74 on Doar's letter valuable, thanks. Filing here under the new 3/21/73 file established under GL's knowledge.
Did not know of GL's cassette. I was right in believing that the McCord ltr to Sirica written before credited date, on 3/19/73.

Could GL's cassette be the one referred to by Lardner and Claiborne in WXP 19 Jan 74? To save you looking it up, this is what we have on it in our chronology:

18 Jan 74 - Nixon recordings, new gaps. Ben Veniste brings out, in questioning Buzhardt at court hearing, that a gap exists in Nixon's dictated recollections of meeting with Dean 21 Mar 73, and in that of phone call with Mitchell 20 Jun 72.

Nixon-Dean, 21 Mar 73, cassette - 57-second blank space, followed by Nixon on another subject, beginning in mid-sentence.

Nixon-Mitchell, 20 Jun 72, dictabelt - 37-second gap, followed by Nixon in mid-sentence
on another subject.

Unsatisfactory explanation is given by Buzhardt.

WXP says these two new gaps were first reported to Sirica 12 Dec 73 at a secret conference with opposing lawyers.

Sirica suspends hearings and recommends a grand jury investigation "into the possibility of unlawful destruction of evidence and related offenses."

WXP 19 Jan 74, Lardner and Claiborne

The hearing 18 Jan ^{L&DS} with "a final round of testimony" on erasure in tape of 20 Jun 72 by expert panel, which will be assigned to check the cassette and dictabelt.

Having just re-read the story, to check something else,
I find the actual wording used by Lardner and Claiborne is that Nixon dictated his "remarks about a series of meetings" with Dean that day (at "9 the same night"). ~~None of the~~ Pacifica's report of 12 Mar 74 suggests the Judiciary Committee was interested in the Nixon-Dean conversation, but the cassette could include Nixon's version of his meeting with Haldeman and Dean later the same day. No way of knowing where the gap appears.

28 Mar 74 - 2

The story says the cassette was turned over to Jaworski for submission to the grand jury along with the WH tapes of the meetings themselves. No date. Possibly 8 Dec 73? Jaworski said 10 Dec that on the 8th WH delivered to him a "significant number of tape recordings" and a "substantial number of documents."

McCord's letter to Sirica. The only dates we have are these, and nothing earlier than the first one:

19 Mar 73 - McCord's letter to Judge Sirica is dated 19 Mar 73.

WXP 24 Mar 73 (from text of letter)

21 Mar 73 - McCord "delivers" letter to Judge Sirica, who refuses to accept it on the ground that he should have no direct dealings with a defendant.
NYT 24 Mar 73

23 Mar 73 - McCord's letter to Judge Sirica is read in court.
