Mr. Nixon still be let Mr. Nixon still be let Harreman listen to only one sape, that of a meeting with fram last Sept. It. Hangman on the other hand has restifted that the President let alm listen as well to tapes of the March of meeting with Dess The President and the base of the March of the tapes o

March 21. "Basically "Mr. Wissing said, "what Mr. Dean concerned shout on Mart 21 was not as much the ine of the morey for the feedants, but the chain money for the determine for the purp of the them sufficient other so-called 'hush money. He said he told the "while we could the mart of the propagation in the second of the mart of the reaction of the second of the mart of the solution of the solution of the mart of the solution of the solution of the mart of the solution of the solution of the mart of the solution of the solution of the mart of the solution of the solution of the mart of the solution of the mart of the solution of the solution of the mart of the solution of the sol in.

P.

2

Democratic geacquarters and then conspiring to cover tip the ensuing soundal. President Nixon said yesterday that apparently (MacGregor's) investigation was very effective excepfor Mr. Magnuder, who stayed on" at the committee until after the 1972 election. "Mr. MacGregor does nothave to assume responsibiliits for "Magnudes"

States of the May Great mattione our Basis Altheman and the hadral field to replace the bread of the first the letter south and na da esta da e The first the state of the s nen nomensen de service Nel plante avec de ser We also we shall the state of the PERMITTED CONTRACTOR Constraint to the state of the second To A MATTER CALLS SERVICE i generalia della Narperio de si

Counsel, i.e. bear in arch 22 with Haldwork Fran, Thelighman fran, Thelighman frank Thelighman frank the light and the Mitchell bear and the Mitchell bear and the second and the shore where sale berg any and the second account of a bear of some second and the truth of whether sould be to effort by a prime and the integral of sould be to effort by a prime of end effort by a prime the the light of the Minifield of the sould be to effort by a prime of end effort by a prime the ber light have be light of the prime formation these bears for the surgers and the priman of by the Miniformation these shore the the surgers and the formation these shore the the surgers and the formation second by the Miniformation these shore the for evenue of the surgers and the formation second the shore had messed to message had messed to message had messed to message had messed to message had messed the shore had messed the shore had messed to message had messed the shore had messed the shore had messed the shore had messed the shore had messed to message had messed to message had messed the shore had messed to message had messed to message seven defendants were making "money demands" that he said could reach $1 million. He also said the subject of executive clemency was mentioned briefly.

Haldeman told the Senate committee that this conversation between Dean and the President occurred on March 21, and that he has listened to a tape recording of the meeting.

The President yesterday described the conversation as having taken place on March 21.

"Basically," Mr. Nixon said, "what Mr. Dean wasconcerned about on March 21 was not so much the raising of the money for the defendants, but the raising of money for the defendants for the purpose of keeping them still—in other words, so-called 'hush money'."

He said he told Dean that "while we could raise the money," the proposal could never work without executive clemency as well, and clemency would not be granted.

Dean did mention the mil lion dollar figure, Mr. Nixon said.