insfield Hits

By Spencer Rich Washington Post Staff Writer

Majority Leader gress has dragged its feet on energy legislation.

Lashing out at the President toing the energy bill. in a Senate floor speech, Mansfield said Congress has already taken substantial action on 12 of the 17 White House energy proposals, is starting work on three others, and has been held upon another only by a dispute within the Nixon administration itself.

energy legislation is concerned. was there long before the President sent up his first proposal," Mansfield said.

House Speaker Carl Albert (D-Okla.) and Majority Leader Thoma P. O'Neill (D-Mass.) and Senate Majority Whip Robert C. Byrd (D-W. Va.) responded angrily on Wednesday to the President's accusations.

listing of the status of each of the 17 pieces of legislation on which the President at his Tuesday press conference in Houston accused them of delay:

· Mansfield said the President had asked for curbs on in the House." oil firm windfall profits and Congress promptly put one into the energy emergency bill last year, only to have the White House and oil industry kill it by filibuster because it deepwater port facilities. was too tough. Then Congress

bill

Mike Mansfield (-Mont.) join- unemployment insurance aid ed the Democratic counter- to those losing fobs because of attack on President Nixon the energy crisis, but when over energy policy yesterday, Congress passed the provision strongly disputing the Presi- as part of the energy emerdent's contention that Con- gency bill, the President called it too broad and gave the House Ways and Means that as another reason for ve-

> Authority for imposition of mandatory conservation plans, also in the energy bill, also died with the veto. Mansfield said final White House requests for this provision weren't received until this month, if anyone wanted to assess blame for foot-dragging.

· Mansfield conceded there had been no action yet on the very beginning." "The initiative, insofar as request for deregulation of natural gas, but others said ing nuclear power licensing has been in the Senate, and delay on this proposal wasn't a procedures is being considquestion of lassitude or inac-ered by the Joint Atomic Entivity, but of serious doubts ergy Committee "and proper that all limits should be rethat all limits should be re-moved from natural gas ommended by that committee prices.

 Mandatory reporting energy information by firms was also included in the sitings and licensing procedbill vetoed by Mr. Nixon, Mansfield said.

Mansfield gave a detailed tion of oil from the Elk Hills said, and is to be considered field said. in the Hosue.

> bill also has passed the Senate years, has passed the Senate, "and is reaching final stages Mansfield said.

but the President found that viewpoint in the Congress to long-range research program.

too tough also and vetoed the | do away with the present bonus system on leases which fa-• The President proposed vor only the large companies."

> The President's 10th, 11th and 12th requests-the drilling investment tax credit, foreign depletion allowance revision and foreign tax credit revision-are being voted on by Committee, which must originate tax legislation under the Constitution, Mansfield said.

> He said a bill requiring labels on motor vehicles and appliances to show amounts of energy use has passed the Senate, adding that it was curious the President was listing this since "the measure has been fought and opposed by the administration from the

Mansfield said a bill reviswhich will accelerate the proof cess and not ignore the enoil vironmental impact of these ures,

The bill to create a Federal The bill allowing produc- Energy Administration has already passed both chambers Naval Petroleum Reserve has "and is reaching final enactpassed the Senate, Mansfield ment in conference," Mans-

The energy research bill, • He said the strip-mining providing $20 billion over 10

Finally, he said, a bill cre-· Mansfield said the Com- ating a department of energy merce, Public Works and Inte- and natural resources is being rior committees are planning held up "by a total disagreeto start voting soon on legislament between Mr. (William tion to foster development of E.) Simon and (budget director) Roy Ash" over where to • Hearings are to start soon locate a proposed energy rewrote a domestic oil price roll- on revision of the Mineral search and development adback provision as a substitute, Leasing (Act, with "a strong ministration to carry out a