Gift Data Lack

WASHINGTON, March 27 White House, however, has espons records were in tablished its own gift unit to but a number of gifts apparently received ber of gifts to Presidents. It is a number of gifts apparently received ber of gifts to Presidents. from foreign governments by President Nixon and his family were not officially recorded, while the gift records of President Johnson were found to be in order.

The report of the General Accounting Office to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee gave no details on the unreported Nixon gifts. The committee's chairman, John J. Sparkinan, Democrat of Alabama, said that in requesting an "overview" of operations under the 1966 Foreign gifts the condendation of gifts by the sides of gifts along the recorded by the gift unit."

542 Gifts Reported.

Noting that the reporting system depends almost entirely on voluntary compliance, the accounting office recommended a tightening of procedures and the imposing of a maximum $1,000 fine and a year in jail for noncompliance. The report explained that the procedures to be tightened included the processing of presidental gifts valued at over $50 were reported by members of Calabama, said that in requesting an "overview" of operations under the 1966 Foreign gifts. under the 1966 Foreign gifts the indexing of gifts by the and decorations law he had not asked for "a naming of names or a witch hunt." Mr. were given directly to members when the office mide its many contains the most of the first family and did not the contains the most of the first family and did not the contains the most of the first family and did not the contains the most of the first family and did not the contains the most of the first family and did not the contains the most of the first family and did not the contains the

Voluntary Compliance

and members of the first fa hed not been recorded by gift unit."

Sparkman said that he would of the first family and did not view. The G.A.O. said that it introduce legislation to strength come into the custody of the gift law.

The law forbids Federal employes to keep for their own use foreign gifts of more than minimal value, defined as $50. These gifts become Federal property.

We examined on a test basis him or his family including results.

"We examined on a test basis him or his family, including re-Gifts worth more than $50 the gift unit records main porting them periodically the gift unit records main porting them periodically are to be reported, and sent on tained for Presidents Johnson Chief of Protocol after processing by the White House gifts ment Office of Protocol. The We found that President John unit