The Washington Merry-Go-Round

THE WASHINGTON POST

Friday, March 7, 1975 C27

Nixon Depressed Over Finances

. By Jack Anderson and Les Whitten

lonely splendor in his Califor- effort to raise $500,000 from the nia seacoast estate, isn't exactly public to purchase the two baya poverty case.

thousands of dollars from the would leave Nixon a comfortataxpayers to help ease the shock ble profit, since he purchased of being reduced to civilian sta- the homes in late 1968 for only tus. He collects a $60,000 annual $125,527 and $127,800 respecpresidential pension. He is at- tively. tended by aides, at an additional cost to the taxpayers of poor man. But he lacks the in-$96,000 a year.

leeply depressed over his fi- to increase his cash flow. He nances. Close friends say he hopes to make a substantial sn't taking in enough cash to sum, for example, for his memmeet his obligations. They oirs. But a $145,000 advance payclaim his personal bank account ment has already gone for reis down to $500, and he has only search and salaries, said a rabbi described the financial $2,800 left to operate the San friend. Clemente estate until July 1.

such as an eastern trip his wife core supporters to bail him out "Oh, does he worry. It saddens is planning to take next month, now cause a family budget prob- dress cards have been prepared He is a very troubled man." lem, a friend told us.

Nixon paid off his back taxes with a $284,740 check, which him. cleaned out his cash reserves. intimates say. He can't afford to over to the Nixon Historical Aspay an additional $148,000 tax sociation, which Rebozo formed debt, which is no longer collectible but which he had promised and to the President Nixon Justo pay, they report.

health insurance before he left penses. Direct-mail appeals the White House. He was stuck, have been going out to the 300,therefore, with a $23,000 hospi- 000 names. tal bill for his phlebitis treatment. He recently paid off part of the bill with an $11,000 check, which left only $500 in his personal bank account.

He had to rejuggle his San Clemente mortgage to reduce the payment schedule. He is left earmarked for Nixon's transwith little more than an acre in ition, interestingly enough, he his own name, according to a spent an astonishing $59,721 for friend. Nixon became so des- stationery. He purchased a huge wate that he asked his Florida supply of paper, according to Biscayne houses just to pay off the mortgages.

Richard M. Nixon, living in Instead, Rebozo is leading an side homes as a nonprofit cen-He has drawn hundreds of ter for international study. This

On paper, of course, he is not a come to sustain his lifestyle. He Yet the former President is is desperately looking for ways.

> Increasingly, the former Presof his financial difficulties. Ad- me terribly just to listen to him. on 300,000 people who have written sympathetic. letters to firmed that Nixon is haunted by

These cards have been turned to buy the Key Biscayne homes. tice Fund, which Rabbi Baruch He neglected to take out Korff formed to raise legal ex-

> The mail that continues to pour into San Clemente, meanwhile, is processed by some 70 volunteers working in shifts of about a dozen at a time.

Of the $100,000 that Congress

crony, Bebe Rebozo, to sell Key one insider, for the mass fund poverty. When he was a boy, his appeals.

> denied using stationery sup- nursing home with an ill son. plied by the taxpayers. All exing the envelopes and postage, is paid by the U.S. Citizens Congress, he said. This is another nonprofit, patriotic group which he heads.

The rabbi said he has promised to raise $1 million for Nixon. Of this, $400,000 has been committed to pay his legal expenses, and the remaining $600,000 will be turned over to Nixon to supplement his government allocation.

In touching language, the plight of the former President. "He broods about finances all Even minor expenditures, ident is counting upon his hard- the time," said Rabbi Korff.

Another close friend conthe memory of his childhood

Rabbi Korff acknowledged to dawn to bake pies for sale. She us that he sends out 5,000 direct- scrubbed, cooked and tended mail appeals each month but furnace so she could stay at a Young Richard used to take penses for the mailings, includ- his turn preparing meals of canned chili, spaghetti, pork and beans and other relatively cheap foods. "There were many mornings," he has said, "when I ate nothing for breakfast but a candy bar."

> This experience has driven Nixon harder than most men to seek an affluent life for his familv, the friend says.

Medal of Freedom-The Academy of American Poets has proposed Katherine Garrison Chapin, widow of the late Attorney General Francis Biddle, for the presidential medal of freedom. She would be the first woman poet to receive this recognition.

Her nomination has been endorsed by many distinguished poets, including Robert Lowell, Archibald MacLeish, William Jay Smith and Allen Tate.

#1975, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.