said Friday. even though a tax deduction for nated to the National Archives General Service Administration pre-presidential papers he doident Nixon cannot reclaim the them has been disallowed, the WASHINGTON (AP) - Pres-been made. A Dallas group said it had been informed the to buy his vice presidential pa-The White House promptly said it always has been Nixon's contention that a valid gift had pers. President had refused its offer agency of the National Ar-chives, said his agency considered the gift legally binding would be free to sell or other-The spokesman said, however, that the President probably A spokesman for GSA, parent the President probably > wise dispose of other Nixon pa-pers and memorabilia being the government. stored at the National Archives but not included in the deeds donating some of his papers to income tax deductions for xei Issue revolved such donations. Therefore, said July 1969 cutoff for taking fedvant to the question of whether considers the tax ruling irrelegovernment. the GSA spokesman, the GSA Nixon made the gift before a around the question whether the papers now belong to the The

As for the other Nixon papers stored in the Archives, Nixon will be free to reclaim them barring any other legal imped > said. ment,

tary Gerald L. Warren said he ing some of his papers. Asked about this Deputy Press Secrerecent days have offered to help Nixon meet his $467,000 bill for back taxes by purchas-At least two private groups in ecent days have offered to the GSA spokesman | knew nothing about the offers. said the President has not yet addressed the question of how he will raise the money for overdue 1969-72 taxes. Another White House official documents collected between The remainder consist of 1948 and 1962, including some by its decision. quest after questions had been raised. He promised to abide Taxation looked into mittee on Internal Revenue newspaper clippings. federal tax returns at his re-The congressional Joint Com-Nixon's