NYTimes

APR 1 1974

Documents Omitted From

THE NEW YORK TIMES, MONDAY, APRIL 1, 1974

By EILEEN SHANAHAN Special to The New York Times

culled to eliminate "sensitive" The inventory, which covers the Associated Press reported on Friday that the staff of the Nixon turned the papers over archives and those retained by joint committee, which has to the National Archives with Mr. Nixon, shows that the do-been examining every aspect of the specification that no un-nated items included thousands Mr. Nixon's tax returns for the support of newspaper clippings and 1060 through 1072 had to be White House.

to the Congressional Committee on Internal Rev-enue Taxation, the items that "turndowns"; and thousands of also valued the papers of many were removed from the 1,176 items of correspondence, some other public figures. boxes of donated papers in-cluded "sensitive files respect-such items as letters from chil-staff actually did find that the ing J. Edgar Hoover, Jacqueline dren. Kennedy and the Vietnam war." A Presidential papers located in as the briefing materials that a $576,000 tax deduction were tained by The New York Times. Union.

authorized person could see of newspaper clippings and 1969 through 1972, had found them until after he left the some unclipped newspapers; that the donated papers were 229 boxes of invitations to Mr. overvalued at $576,000.

President Nixon's vault at the were prepared for Mr. Nixon WASHINGTON, March 31-The pre-Presidential papers for which President Nixon claimed which President Nixon claimed turned over to the joint com-mittee and a copy has been ob-tring Britain and the Soviet

The According to testimony given Nixon to attend social events appraisal was made by Ralph or to give speeches, along with G. Newman of Chicago, a pro-> donated Nixon papers had been A few items of clear histori- overvalued could not be inde-

An inventory of the "pre- cal interest were included, such pendently confirmed that Mr. Newman staff's findings. however, valued all of Mr. Nixon's pregress in 1946-at $2,012,000.

Papers Nixon Donated to

about the methods he used in committee on Wednesday. valuing the papers.

Another document in the pers were overvalued may be though it was understood that

It has reportedly concluded this be done. Presidential papers—going back that the entire $576,000 deduc-to his first campaign for Con-tion, which would save Mr. first asked the joint commit-Nixon nearly $300,000 in taxes, tee to look at his two returns The portion listed in the should be disallowed because and decide whether he owed over-all inventory as included the staff found that the gift imore tax, most of the commit-in the gifts to the archives in was not actually made before tee's 10 members, including the 1969 does not appear, on its July 25, 1969, the date after four Republican members, indi-face, ton constitute more than which deductions for such cated that they would support a quarter of the total—the fraca quarter of the total—the frac-gifts were prohibited by law. whatever findings tion that the valuation would All of the various issues sur-made. All of the various issues sur- made possession of the joint commit- moot, according to the avail- the chairman of the joint com-tee and of The Times shows, able information about the mittee, Senator Russell B. Long of Louisiana, would move that > the staff

Whether the

suggest—in terms of either numbers or of interest. All of the various issues sale. At that time, however, none are expected to move closer to of the members foresaw how Mr. Newman, over a period a conclusion this week after many controversial items might of months, has repeatedly re- the joint committee's staff be involved in the tax returns, fused to talk to The Times presents its findings to the nor the possibility that there could be a charge of fraud committee against the President in con-

The question of whether the would vote to make the staff's nection with an alleged backstaff on the joint committee conclusions public at that time dating of the deed for the gift believes that the donated pa- was not immediately clear, al- of the pre-Presidential papers.