U.S. Plans to Spend $110,000 to Build Nixon Data Vault

By Richard L. Lyons 4-12 Washington Post Staff Writer

The government plans to of the money figures, but the spend $110,000 to install and total remains at $850,000. This San Clemente.

a Senate Appropriations subcommittee yesterday the sophisticated vault will provide better security for the records, including tapes of presidential conversations, than is available in Washington.

He said complete security is essential to prevent tampering, because tapes and other records may be subpoenaed for Watergate trials or other court actions involving Mr. Nixon.

asked: "Are you saying that if need for security, Sampson the former President can get said. at the records you have to have greater security?" The Nixon home was built at pubtapes of his Watergate conversations contributed to Mr. Nix- he was President. on's resignation last month.

Sampson did not respond directly, but said that if Mr. Nixon wants to listen to a tape a duplicate will be prepared for him. The original will remain in the vault.

by Mr. Nixon and Sampson last week, which was part of the White House payroll at an the arrangement under which annual rate of $340,000 a year. President Ford granted Mr. Nixon a full pardon for any be available to Mr. Nixon as crimes he may have commit- long as President Ford details ted as President, the tapes them for that purpose. Prewill remain in the vault for sumably, Mr. Nixon will take five years, available for use in over payment of staff from his court cases.

Sampson was testifying in $850,000 resupport of the quested for Mr. Nixon's use grumbled repeatedly that at a during the year ending next time when President Ford has June 30 for his transition to tried to delay a federal pay private life and for the permanent allowances given former much to give Mr. Nixon. He Presidents.

on storing records with Mr. in any one year as a former Nixon, Sampson changed some President.

guard a vault where former includes $450,000, the maxi-President Nixon's records will mum permitted under the law, be stored near his home at for transitional work, such as responding to 350,000 pieces of General Services Adminis- mail, and $400,000 for pension, trator Arthur F. Sampson told staff and other expenses under the Former Presidents Act.

What had first appeared as an unexplained $100,000 contingency fund shrank to $26.-000 and a $40,00 travel allowance dropped to $1,000. The $110,0 for the vault and five guards at about $1,000 a year was a new item.

After it was agreed that the records would be stored in a federal building 12 miles from Mr. Nixon's home and far from Washington, there was Sen. Mark Hatfield (R-Ore.) less need for travel and more

> Office space adjacent to the lic expense of $720,000 while > Secret Service protection provided Mr. Nixon and his family, as for all former Presidents under law, will cost more han $600,000 a year, Sampson said.

Mr. Nixon now has detailed to him a staff of 13, headed by Under the agreement signed his former press secretary, > Sampson said this staff will fund if Congress approves it.

Subcommttee Chairman Joseph M. Montoya (D-N.M.) raise, $850,000 seemed too said Lyndon B. Johnson never After signing the agreement got more than half that much