Score Is Kept on Games Played Here

Jack Anderson

ing may help the public keep up Jeb Magruder. with the games that are played in Washington.

For two years, the American President Nixon has confessed publish the box score: that he lied even to his own aides about his role in the Watergate cover-up.

Loyal White House aides were timate manipulations exposed the tapes reveal the President.

It's no secret, of course, that we have been in the forefront of those who have accused President Nixon of condoning lawlessness while he preached law and order.

For our pains, we have been hounded by government gumshoes. The notorious "plumwall of their White House hang-Internal Security Division to against President Nixon. stake out my house and tail me wherever I went.

At least four people had their down and wept.

My associate Les Whitten was arrested and handcuffed by FBI agents on phony charges that were quickly rejected by a tigators that Rebozo had dis-started off to gun me down until [tary, Rose Mary Woods, and his escaped paying his fair share of Some occasional scorekeep- he was stopped by a horrified two brothers, Donald and Ed- taxes. Refuting his claim that on April 26, 1973, that "Presi- Watergate break-in. Their the- sional taxation committee and dent Nixon had no advance ory that the whole Watergate fi- the House Judiciary Committee. knowledge of the Watergate asco grew out of an attempt to stunned, say our sources, when break-in and bugging." But we conceal the Hughes-Nixon con- ex-Vice President Spiro Agnew they heard excerpts from the 64 repeatedly charged, beginning nection has been spelled out in 1971, according to his former suppressed tapes. One White as early as March 29, 1973, that now in a Senate Watergate com- press secretary Vic Gold, with House source told us grimly that he had approved the overall es- mittee staff report. no man should have his most in- pionage-sabotage operation and the later cover-up. All of 1972, while former Attorney in such excruciating detail as this is now confirmed in the General John Mitchell was still White House tapes.

1973, we revealed for the first wiretap reports. This was the time that E. Howard Hunt had first public charge that he was access to mysterious cash and linked to the Watergate operathat he had offered to buy the si- tion. The code name for the wirlence of fellow Watergate con- etap reports, we later disclosed. spirators. We later learned the was "Gemstone." Mitchell demoney had come from a $350,000 nied his involvement under cash fund which, we reported on oath. bers" posted my name on the April 19, 1973, had been stashed heard of Gemstone," he swore. in the apartment of White "was in Jack Anderson's colout as their chief target in the House aide Fred LaRue. This umn." But a grand jury has now spring of 1972. They arranged has now developed into one of indicted him for conspiracy and with the Justice Department's the most serious charges perjury.

had sent a $100,000 cash gift to dered the taxpayers' money on phones tapped because they President Nixon. The money were suspected of giving us in- was delivered to his friend Bebe cayne estates. A confidential formation. Others were interro- Rebozo who collected cash from Sept. 28, 1972, memo describes gated while strapped to lie de-tectors. One suspected source 23, 1973, including the founders was browbeaten until he broke of the Winn-Dixie supermarket facts from us. The details were chain. These facts have now spread on the record, combeen established beyond dispute.

• We tipped off Senate invesgrand jury. One of the "plum- tributed the Hughes cash, in umns, beginning Oct. 16, 1973, bers," G. Gordon Liddy, even part, to the President's secre-detailing how the President had

Throughout it all, the White firmation under oath from the the work of subordinates, we re-House assailed us with denials President's former attorney, and denunciations. In light of Herbert Kalmbach. To cover up had checked over the controverpeople have been bombarded the President's latest confes-this misuse of the Hughes with charges and denials. Now sion, now may be a good time to money, the investigators be- fore signing them. All of this has lieve, the White House took · We reported "categorically" steps which led to the original mony before the joint congres-

• We revealed on Sept. 23, riding high, that he had re-As early as Jan. 11 and 15, ceived copies of the Watergate

· Beginning on Oct. 3, 1972, we • We revealed on Aug. 6, 1971, told in a series of columns how that billionaire Howard Hughes President Nixon had squanhis San Clemente and Key Bishow the General Services Administration tried to hide the pletely confirming our reports. during the impeachment de-

· We also wrote a series of col-

ward. The investigators got con- the tax irregularities had been ported on March 8, 1974, that he sial returns "page by page" bebeen confirmed in sworn testi-

· We were the first to confront charges that Agnew had been taking bribes from Maryland contractors. Agnew categorically denied the charges, and our sources refused to step into the open. So the story went unpublished for two years until government prosecutors nailed the former Vice President.

· We reported on April 10, 1974, that former Treasury Secretary John Connally was under investigation for alleged brib-"The first time I ever ery, a "dramatic development," we wrote, "that could finish Connally as a presidential contender." Some newspapers, in picking up our story, quoted government investigators as saying the charges were "iffy." Now a grand jury has indicted Connally without any ifs.

> • During our expose of ITT in March, 1972, we accused both Attorney General Richard Kleindienst and California's Lieutenant Governor Ed Reinecke of lying about their testimony in the case. Kleindienst has now pleaded guilty to making a "false statement," and Reinecke has been convicted of perjury.

> We cite the cox scores not to boast but to encourage public officials to tell the truth.

c 1974, United Feature Syndicate