'Fairness' Group Loses in Attempt To Halt Hearings

By Timothy S. Robinson 424

An attempt by the National with the fairness committee Citizens' Committee for Fair- head, Rabbi Baruch Korff, inness to the Presidency to stop troduced as an exhibit the letthe next round of Senate Wa- ter he said came from Colson. tergate hearings was thrown That letter said: out of court yesterday.

U.S. District Judge June J. Green dismissed the suit doing and I want to make a curtly, saying that the main problem with the complaint was the group's lack of standing to sue the Senate mem-

The group, which is based the Ervin committee. in Rhode Island, said it did not Judge Green's ruling.

clear that she felt the suit believe, correct position you should not be allowed to stand are taking." in District Court here for many reasons, the fairness $5 donation, Korff told Judge committee made just as many Green that Colson could be efforts to adjust it so it could considered a supporting memremain in court.

One of those attempts in-cluded making Charles W. Senate committee attorneys Colson, former special counsel argued in favor of the conplaintiffs in the suit although claim by the fairness group he was not present in the completely ignored the history courtroom and had asked in of the Congress' right to cona letter that his name not be duct investigations. used in connection with the organization.

Green indicated that the suit resent a "de facto impeachmight be dismissed because ment" of the President, and none of the plaintiffs would be that the Senate group is not harmed by the continuation of taking proper steps to pro-

S. Bottomly, after consultation it.

"Needless to say, I have a small interest in what you're token contribution.

"I would have to ask you not to use my name since I will soon be a witness before

"I don't think that fact, howknow whether it would appeal ever, should alter my feeling of admiration and support for Although the judge made it the courage, and I must say, I

> Since that letter included a ber of his organization and

Senate committee attorneys to the President, one of the tinued hearings, saying the

Bottomly argued for the fairness committee, however, That move came when Judge that the Senate hearings rep the Senate hearings Monday. | tect the constitutional rights At that point, attorney John of persons who testify before