

Mitchell Requests White House Deal

By ARNOLD R. LUBASCH

Specials for Jan. 10, 1954

and a subpoena for

House tape

might be asked to

obstruction of justice

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

and a subpoena for

House tape

might be asked to

obstruction of justice

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

and a subpoena for

House tape

might be asked to

obstruction of justice

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case

proceed for tapes

which could furnish

along the following

General

the Government

to a case