Pat Nixon Appointment To Council Was Illegal

(AP)-President Nixon's ap- Service Act, passed last Octopointment of his wife to serve ber. Its purpose is to advise on a national advisory council the director of Action, the umwas illegal, the Western White brella agency for federal so-House said today.

A presidential spokesman said the law prohibits the reviewing the effectiveness of President from appointing a the Peace Corps and domestic relative to a government posi- voluntary service programs, tion, and therefore Mrs. Nixon including Vista. cannot serve on the new 25member National Voluntary Service Advisory Council.

ment Sunday, the White House chairman until the council said the First Lady had been meets to elect a permanent designated by Mr. Nixon as chairman. Stella was one of temporary chairwoman of the the members announced Suncouncil. She was to have been day. eligible for a regular govern- To fill the vacancy created ment consultant fee of $138.48 by the error, Mr. Nixon for each day worked at council apointed Henry J. Osinski of duties.

released today did not explain Balzano, who originally recomhow the mistake was made or mended Mrs. Nixon, will ask how it was discovered.

The council was established ary chairman.

SAN CLEMENTE, Jan. 1, under the Domestic Volunteer cial service organizations.

The council's job includes

With Mrs. Nixon now ineligible, the President designated Frank D. Stella of De-In announcing the appoint- troit to serve as temporary Buffalo, N.Y., to the council.

The White House statement | Action director Michael P. the council to elect her honor-