

A Spurious Ad Rings
White House Phones

NY 5/8/73

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)
—The White House switchboard lit up today with hundreds of incoming telephone calls responding to a classified ad in The Washington Post, apparently placed by a practical joker.

It said: "Administrative-staff positions avail. Call Dick," and listed the White House telephone number.

But President Nixon was in Florida.