

President Nixon.
Now more than ever.

“Years ago when I was a young congressman, things got under my skin. Herblock the cartoonist got to me. . . But now when I walk into this office I am cool and calm.”

Herblock on Nixon

"Mirror, Mirror, On The Wall,
Who's The Fairest One Of All?"

HERBLOCK
OF THE WASHINGTON POST
January 2, 1960

"And How Is Our Little Patient Today?"

ON HERBLOCK
THE WASHINGTON POST

November 8, 1964

The Apt Pupil

September 11, 1968

November 7, 1968

"Call Mrs. Beard's Doctor — There's Been A Terrible Accident"

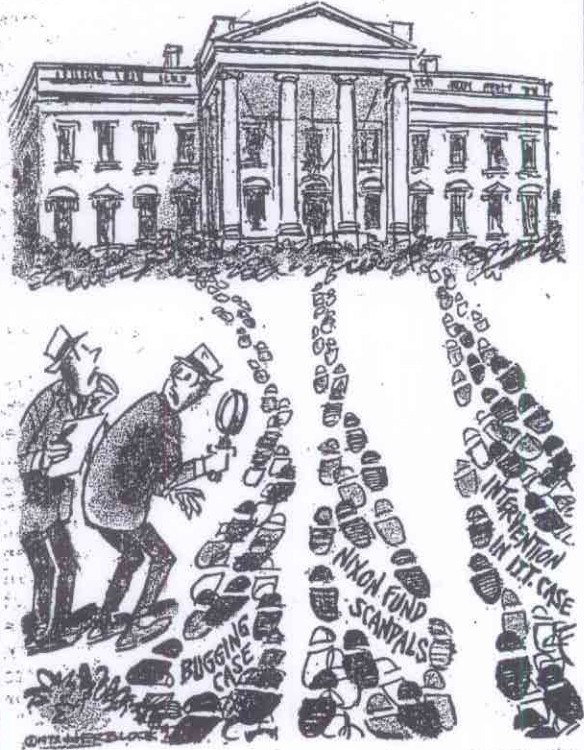

March 22, 1972

"Who Would Think Of Doing Such A Thing?"

June 30, 1972

"Strange — They All Seem To Have Some Connection With This Place"

©1972 HERBLOCK

June 23, 1972

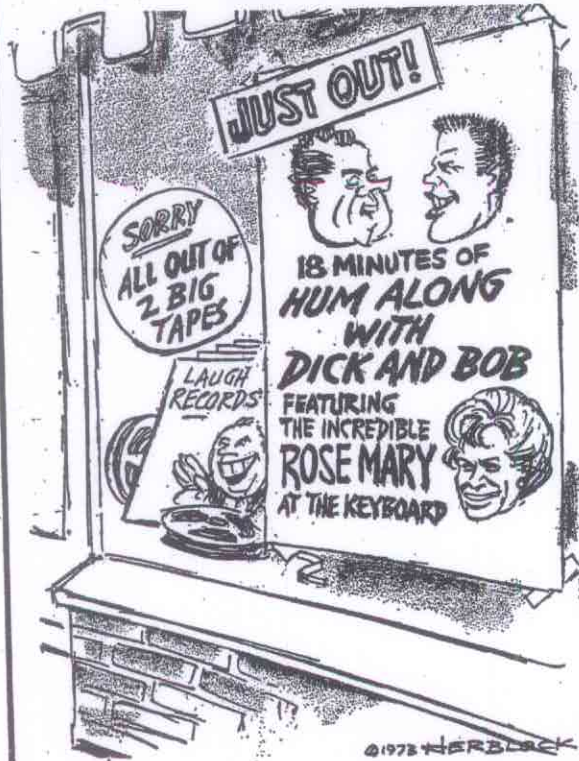

"Look—Nice Tapes—Okay, Boy?—Okay?—"

©1973 HERBLOCK

October 24, 1973

Record Shop

©1973 HERBLOCK

November 28, 1973

©1974 HERBLOCK

July 14, 1974