A Glasse

Nixon's Paris Politicking

Paris

French officials are resentful that President Nixon went politicking in Paris while President Georges Pompidou was still fresh in lis grave.

There has been no official comment or protest.

"But this does not mean that we were necessarily pleased with Nixon's behavior here." one official source said.

The state-owned television system and pro-government newspapers noted critically that Mr. Nixon met with six world leaders here while France had only an interim president in office.

Mr. Nixon attended a 55-minute memorial service for Pompidou here last Saturday and met with acting President Alain Poher for another 45 minutes. Then he spent a total of seven hours conferring with the leaders of the Soviet Union, Japan, West Germany, Britain, Denmark and Italy.

中国 计计 铅细

"The spectacle of Mr. Nixon holding court in Paris and receiving .... the homage of certain of his European vassals is just a big show . . ." Le Figaro said yesterday.

Officials French

"This show was judged in that a British newspaper

sion after Mr. Nixon re-shaking hands with a crowd hurnes to Washington on just a few hundred yards Sunday said: "Political cir-cles are perhaps relieved. Monde noted. that Nixon has left after of world politics."

political circles to be a su-preme lack of tact," it add "this is a great day for ed. France" shortly after the memorial service. Mr. Nixon A poinmentary on televi- had been enthusiastically

Had line forgotten the turning Paris into a capital grave classimatances of his visit to Patis, or had he -Le Monde noted scathingly wittingly or unwittingly - betraved his real thoughts?" Le Monde commented.

"Did he want to publicize his hope that France, after the death of President Pompidou, would docilely reenter the Atlantic fold? Or did he want to thank Pompidou for allowing him - in these circumstances - to meet so many political partners in such a short time?" Le Monde added.

Associated Press