ons at Camp David

(AP)-President Nixon put in and conferring with his chief a half-day at the White House of staff, Alexander M. Haig and then flew by helicopter to Jr., and press secretary Ron-Camp David for Thanksgiving ald L. Ziegler. dinner with members of his family and his close friend, C. G. (Bebe) Rebozo.

The President arrived at his York Wednesday night. Maryland mountaintop retreat on a sunny fall day just in time to catch holiday afternoon football games on televiin the early evening.

The President is expected to stay at Camp David for the four-day holiday weekend. Deputy press secretary Gerald L. Warren said Mr. Nixon would be working on recommendations received from his Cabinet-level, Energy Emergency Action Group on ways to deal with the growing fuel shortages.

Mr. Nixon also will be kept advised of foreign policy developments over the weekend, Warren said.

While a heavy morning fog shrouded Camp David, the President remained in Washington in the morning, meeting in his Oval Office with Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger for a half hour, going over Middle East and

CAMP DAVID, Md., Nov. 22 other foreign policy matters,

Mr. Nixon's older daughter. Tricia, and her husband, Edward Cox, flew from New Absent from the family gathering here was the Nixons' younger daughter, Julie, and her husband, David Eisenhowever. They went to have Aides said the Nixons had Thanksgiving dinner and a their traditional turkey dinner family reunion at the home of David's parents, former Ambassador and Mrs. John Eisenhowever, in Phoenixville, Pa.