The Federal Diary

Tax Collectors' Union Boss Blasts Nixon

By Mike Causey

The head of the federal taxcollectors' union says the White House is continuing and intensifying a policy of "beating civil servants and deceiving the public in an attempt to over up badly botched remscale war in Asia without mak- within the civil service. ing any provision to pay for it step," Connery charged, "was retirements" of federal work- reaction.

The he government's few money-til recently." making operations.

and poor whites would do the bans so that agencies could appears to be a model for fighting . . ."

The bipartisan attack, sure to stir up controversy within the union and the government, bombs, borrow and spend untold billions of dollars, and to the stone age, while seeking 'peace with honor.'"

Connery, who isn't likely to make any future White House dies for skyrocketing infla- guests lists, said "Congress and the housewives of the country unusual blast comes were appeased for awhile in that the shortfall of $100 billower-graded federal workers president of the 40,000 mem- lion of printing press money ber National Association of used to pay for the war found internal Revenue Employees its way to foreign central AIRE represents six of every banks and did not create ex-tack the establishment, and even 0 workers of the IRS, one of cessive pressure on prices un-

Connery says President Nix-"coming home to roost," Con- the Vietnam war, on has continued unfair and nery says, the President is try-by increased taxes. The next union chief says, by "forced al blast, and now await reader to set it up so that blacks ers, layoffs and promotion claim Washington was fighting inflation.

"Since that time," Connery "President Nixon en- says, "the President has been dorsed this grand strategy in engaged in a determined ef-1969 by continuing to plow up fort to deny federal employevery acre of Indo-China with ees the pay raises and promotions to which they are entitled, as well as to decrease blow every Asian peasant back the size of the work force through reductions-in-force, freezes, and forced retirements.

> "Similar to its grand strategy for executing the war in Indochina, the Nixon adthe scapegoat."

Federal unions frequently atthe White House, but rarely in such hard-hitting terms and on Now that the war costs are such touchy political issues as Most NAIRE members have unwise antibureaucrat policies ing to convince the country yet to see Connery's comments, of the Johnson Administra- he is fighting inflation by fed- which are part of a front-page tion, which "kicked it off in eral pay freezes, and edicts to editorial in the union newspa-1965 by opting to run a full-cut back promotions and staff per mailed out this week. But top officers of the organization This was followed up, the got a sneak preview of the verb-

Veterans Administration: 14 up-with-women according to a new report to the White House and Civil Service Commission.

VA, with 180,000 employees, says that although women make up less than half its work force, they hold 15 per cent of the jobs paying $15,000 or more. VA's personnel director, Irene Parsons, is the only woman to head a major federal agency hiring and promotion program.