on Seen Aiming at Antitrust Laws 7-27-14

By Carroll Kilpatrick Washington Post Staff Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, July 26-President Nixon is considering major changes in the regula- will be made soon, he said. tion of business and in the antitrust law to promote freer and greater competition, Roy L. Ash, director of the office tionary pressures, Ash said. of Management and Budget, said here today.

The aim in changing the ancompetition rather than antihead of Litton Industries.

to break up companies beimum amount of competition, the OMB director said.

"Do 100 weak competitors to 21/2 points in three years. provide as much competition as 10 strong ones?" he asked. ing the cost of new environ-He said there should be a na- mental laws at 20 per cent of tional debate on the subject.

de-regulate the natural gas in- how much is enough?" dustry is "not getting very Legislation will be required latory processes.

New regulatory proposals

Industry spending on environmental protection may be unduly contributing to infla-

In the Los Angeles speech, the President, in a reference to environmental protection, titrust laws should be "pro- said Americans often "push particular social goals so fast trust," said Ash, the former or so far that other important ead of Litton Industries. economic goals are unduly the aim should no longer be sacrificed."

The costs of environmental cause they are too big but to protection account for about make sure that there is a max- one half of 1 percentage point of the cost of living rise, Ash said, but that figure could rise

Some industries are estimat-Ash said there was over-reg-said. "We have to re-state the ulation of some industries, as proper balance between envi-Mr. Nixon suggested in his ronment and the rate of eco-Los Angeles speech Thursday. nomic growth," he said. "I The President's proposal to don't say it is too much, But far," Ash said in arguing for a to keep the pendulum from fected by a number of minor new approach to federal regu- swinging too far in the direc- legislative acts, he said. changes necessary will be ef- being done.

tion of environmental con- Ash maintained that the adtrols, Ash said, but he pre-ministration "is not paradicted no comprehensive bill lyzed" by the impeachment dewould be introduced. The bate and that much work is