Britain Ups Loan Rate to Record 11.5%

Special to The Washington Post

per cent, the highest level the Britain's very large balance of country has ever known. today lifted Bank of England week, the British government ing sharply to the sudden run on the pound earlier this minimum lending rates to 11.5

was 2.5 per cent, equal to to- import so many raw materials, day's rise.

is under-valued. major European currenciesworth the pound. Heath con-indicate it is undervalued. tends that with the pound now Thus speculators turned their year ago compared to other week was wrong to discount the money market earlier this ward Heath is convinced that British Prime Minister Ed- been at record levels.

duce a flood of money back in will come when the lending more acceptable figure. dence in the pound and enable to the country, restore confi-rate comes down again. ain's new interest rate, the look stronger at the start of highest in Europe, will pro- next week, but the real test minimum lending rates to a causing money to ebb and the lifting of lending rates is currency reforms. to buy pounds. It is this that and multinational companies, One is that British interest Barber designed to correct.

War II, the total interest rate because the country needs to return to economic stop-go." and commodity prices have ernments determination to Party comfortably won two ne decline of the pound.

He is gambling that Brit don again and the pound may level. Indeed, recent statistics money rolling back into Lonattention to the weaker pound. dollar has probably found its Heath's move London experts feel that the rates have not been tempting about this as he flew off to enough to attract foreigners, Washington today for a meet-Financiers in London see sev-competing for money by hoist-eral reasons for the pound's ing rates. British Chancellor feebleness earlier this week of the Exchequer Anthony the government to reduce ger, a world interest rate war tary Fund to discuss long-term ing of the International Moneflow with each major country There is a secondary danexpressed weeks. First signs were en-the day in discussion with top lived, lasting days rather than nomic problem. Heath spent pect the high rate to be short- episode of the country's eco-British financial circles ex-ting a brave face on the latest Heath's government is put couraging. Tonight the pound union leaders about the pay maintain the present high seats that had been Conserva-had recovered all it had lost and prices policy. growth rate at all costs and to tive strongholds.

LONDON, July 27—React during the plunge of the last | Heath said cheerfully after cut inflation.

Barber reaffirmed the gov- today. The minority Liberal $25 a person more because of Immediately after World payments deficit, made worse ernment we could not have a servatives were trounced in ports by couriers and the dollar stood at 2.5125.

"one of the best" the govern-recording overall falls over the beaches of Spain, Portuga, ment has had with the unions, the week. Perhaps more signif- and the Mediterranean About ness of the pound has been while Victor Feather, head of icant "as a housewives' verdict one in three who had paid in the Trades Union Congress, on the government's failure to advance for their vacations on few days, and its rate against wards that the meeting was vinced, with the stock market damp and stormy summer for said: "We agreed with the gov- tackle rising prices: the Con- package tours were met at air-Britons appeared uncon- vacationers leaving London's Least convinced of all were

7/28/73