Nixon Papers Figures Enter Innocent Pleas

appraiser for former Presi-$10,000. dent Nixon yesterday pleaded innocent to charges of conspir- charged Feb. 19 that Newman ing to backdate a $576,000 gift and DeMarco knew in advance of Nixon personal papers to that when the papers were doget an income tax break for nated to the National Archives him.

Los Angeles lawyer Frank tax deductions for the gifts. DeMarco Jr., a former White House adviser, and Chicago pers made to the National Ardocument appraiser Ralph G. Newman were indicted last month by a federal grand jury come taxes. on charges involving the 1970 gift to the government.

hearing for March 21, when defense attorneys will seek April 2, it added, they met and government documents in discussed the plan to backdate preparation for trials to be the gift. scheduled later.

DeMarco's attorney gained year, disallowing the deducpermission from Gasch for De-tion for the gift of papers. business trip to Mexico City back taxes, plus a penalty, and possibly a trip to London which he has paid. before the pretrial hearing.

mee on their own recogni- back-dating of the gift. zance, and Gasch allowed them to remain without bond. tax fraud charges in connec-DeMarco was indicted on tion with the same case in Nothree counts carrying a total vember and was sentenced to maximum penalty of 15 years four years in prison. in jail and a $30,000 fine. Newman faces two counts with a the indictment.

An attorney and a document maximum of six years and

A federal the law no longer permitted

Congress said gifts of pachives after July 25, 1969, could not be deducted from in-

On March 27, 970, the indictment said, DeMarco and U.S. District Court Judge Newman discussed over the Oliver Gasch set a pretrial telephone that the documents

The Internal Revenue Serv-During a brief court session ice audited Nixon's taxes last Marco to make a scheduled Nixon was assessed $271,000 in

The indictment said Edward Both defendants have been L. Morgan, a Nixon lawyer, Both defendants have been was a co-conspirator in the

Morgan pleaded guilty to

Nixon was not mentioned in