

LOUIS NIZER

FAMED LAWYER TO SPEAK HERE

Attorneys Will Hear Louis Nizer

Famed trial attorney author Louis Nizer will speak Friday to attorneys at a noon luncheon at the Sheraton-Charles Hotel.

The luncheon will be under the co-sponsorship of the Louisiana State Bar Association, Louisiana State Law Institute and the New Orleans Bar Association. There will be no cost for the lecture except for the $5 luncheon fee.

A spokesman for the group sponsoring the luncheon said it will be open to all attorneys regardless of whether they are members of the sponsoring organizations.

Nizer's topic will be "The Art of Civil Jury Trials."

A number of Nizer's articles have been printed in the Columbia Law Review, Michigan Law Review and in other leading law periodicals. He has recently been appointed as general counsel to the Motion Picture Association of America.

Nizer is the author of many books, including "The Jury Returns," "My Life in Court," "Commentary and Analysis of Official Warren Commission Report," "What to do with Germany," "Thinking on your Feet," and "Between You and Me."
