SPECIAL SEDITION TRIAL EDITION Deal, Ave., M.Y.City. CHRIST CKIES a copy of your infamous book UMDER COVER and to pleator for the new deal government. It is a control in politico - economic facts of why we FROM OUT OF ARVEY H.SPRINGER . . P.O. BOX 90 We, The Mothers, Mobilize For America, Inc. CHICAGO 5, ILLINOIS CHICAGO, ILL., THURSDAY, MARCE WEBster 7126 The Passing Caranan "Bringing Gods and Ends From The Edges of The Marid Official Publication of the Non-Sectarian Anti-SMEAR INC to Champion Human Rights, Inc. VOL. IX-No. 3 JULY-AUGUST, 1944 WOMEN INVESTORS IN M-rrb, 1940 STATE A VENUE AVENUE AMERICA, Communist Impai INC the X-RA Price 5 Cents Labor Beacon for Taxpayers and Honest congre Money Trust Or the Money Trust Will Break Us About Moneyright DEVOTED TO THE CAUSE OF IRISH FREEDOM AND THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE 3066 ance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all Indiciment Against de Aryan ATASCADERO, CALIFORNIA,

ur Cover Design

On the cover of this issue of The Anti-Nazi Bulletin is a display of headlines from a few of the many subversive publications recently distributed in the United States, whose publishers have so far not been brought to trial. A few of them are under Federal indictment, but none have been punished, and most of them are still spreading their propaganda poisons today, in the midst of war. Their agitation constitutes an ever-present danger to the minds of unthinking, easily-aroused persons.

Court Asher's THE X-RAY, of Muncie, Indiana, still attacks freedom and liberty, and spreads anti-British, anti-Russian, and anti-Semitic propaganda in weekly editions, just as before the war. Leon D'Aryan's BROOM joins with William Kullgren's AMER-ICA SPEAKS, to preach religious dissension along the Pacific Coast, and these publications currently print articles or correspondence by sedition-trial figures like Elizabeth Dilling, Lawrence Dennis, Henry Klein, and Ellis O. Jones. The publishers of all three of these papers were indicted in 1942 for conspiracy to commit sedition, but they apparently feel that nothing can happen to them until the present case is disposed of. THE CROSS AND THE FLAG, Detroit monthly which claims a fabulous circulation; is published by Gerald L. K. Smith, former Ku Klux Klan organizer and Silver Shirt member. It continues to assail every American leader who has run afoul of the Nazi and Japanese war lords, and attacks England, Russia, Negroes, Jews, and democrats indiscriminately, earning for its publisher a citation by the Veterans of Foreign Wars as "Hitler's American Mouthpiece". MONEY is the New York front for a horde of "Money" clubs all over the country, devoted to proving that we are sure to go bankrupt instead of winning the war. MONEY lately got a new publisher after its founder, who was once chairman of the America First Committee's Speakers' Bureau at Brooklyn, N. Y., was sent to jail for draft evasion. THE GAEL-IC-AMERICAN, once a healthy, nostalgic paper devoted to the cause of Irish freedom, lately fell into near-bankruptcy, and came under control of interests which have made it a potent organ of Coughlinite propaganda and Christian-Frontism ready to cooperate with "Peace Now" and similar groups. WESTERN VOICE, published by Harvey H. Springer, of Colorado, is typical of many anti-democratic, racistic propaganda papers, published under the guise of religious fundamentalism. WESTERN VOICE and THE DEFENDER (Winrod's paper, for whose propaganda efforts he was indicted) regularly exchange editorial texts, and reprint material from THE CROSS AND THE FLAG.

WOMEN'S VOICE, Chicago organ of the ultra-isolationist "Mothers" organizations, is directed by Mrs. Lyrl Clark Van Hyning, head of We, The Mothers, Mobilize for America, Inc., whose letter-head appears beside the publication. Many times exposed by the Anti-Nazi League, "The Mother Racket", with groups all over the country, is the subject of an excellent article in the current WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION.

The Constitutional Educational League BULLETIN, described in two Federal indictments as one of the propaganda tools used to advance the interests of a sedition conspiracy, is one of many publications, all anti-democratic in character, published by Joseph P. Kamp, former supporter of the Friends of Germany (an antecedent of the Bund) and once editor, along with Lawrence Dennis, of THE AWAKENER.

THE PASSING CARAVAN, a weekly "newsletter", is issued by a former office manager of the America First Committee.

PROTEST! was part of the "Green Mountaineer" series issued PROTEST! was part of the "Green Mountaineer" series issued by Frank A. Parker in New York, and distributed in collaboration with Charles B. Hudson, Nebraska defendant now on trial for sedition. The AMERICAN VINDICATOR (which has just given way to a new publication-the AMERICAN NATIONALIST), is the voice of Senator Robert S. Reynolds, "the Tar Heel Fuehrer", who is now trying to merge the various American isolationist, Nationalist and KKK elements into a single "Nationalist Party". Although SCRIBNER'S COMMENTATOR is no longer with us, we include the series of the property of the prope it because its former editors, now with publications like the READ-ERS' DIGEST, continue to be active in inserting subtle and effective propaganda into other magazines.

WOMEN INVESTORS IN AMERICA, INC., is another of the many organizations playing on the "mother" theme in an at-tempt to steal, through political maneuvering, the fruits of our vic-tories in the field of battle.

The League believes that most of these publications and organizations, and many others like them, are no less dangerous a part of the Nazi underground strength in America than are the open leaders and propagandists who are already on trial. The task of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League is not lessened by the current sedition trial, but increased — because the propaganda of the men and women now under indictment has been taken over, and even enin scope, by such groups as these. Some of the so-called "small-fry" subversives such as those represented on this cover, are already big enough to help swing elections, or even to stage "putsches" at national conventions, and to enlist Senators, Congressmen, and Governors in their cause. It is the vitally urgent task of the Anti-Nazi League to expose these un-American forces before they are strong enough to steal from us the fruits of our victories in Normandy and on Saipan,

More Than Conviction of 29 Needed to Halt Fascist Flood of Propaganda by Subversives

Winning of Battle in Federal Court Should Prove Spur to Further Attack On Spreaders of Hate in U.S.

By Prof. James H. Sheldon

Just as we go to press startling news has come, concerning political over-turns in Germany and Japan.

We have had no such good news of great reverses affecting the plans of Hitler's political allies still hard at work among the people of our own country.

"Hitler Salutes His American Mouthpiece" is the title of a

"Hitler Salutes its characteristics of Foreign Wars (Mo.) | punishment is a routine matter of Veterans of Foreign Wars (Mo.) | punishment is a routine matter of the public un-

The Veterans are worried, just as is the Anti-Nazi League, about what they call "The Isolationism what they call "The Isolationism of 1945", the apostles of which were planted among our people by the Germans and their American fellow-travellers, long before Pearl Harbor. Along with "Hitler's Mouthpieces" are listed people like Wm. Dudley Pelley, Gerald L. K. Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, Gerald L. N. Cal Pabeth McCarniel.

ald P. Nye, Col. Robert McCormick.
It is altogether possible to win battles in Normandy and among the isles of the Pacific, and still the isles of the Pacific, and still lose the war — in the sense of fail-ing to make the world any safer for freedom than it was in 1933, when Hitler became dictator of Germany, or in 1941, on the eve Germany, or in 1941, on the eve of Pearl Harbor.

There are two separate tests of how near we are to winning the war.

One of them is the news from the battlefronts and from inside Germany and Japan.

Propaganda Peril

The second test is the news from The second test is the news from inside our own country, as to how successful or unsuccessful the enemy's Fifth Column of political reserve-troops has been. If these forces can keep their foothold, and gain control of American public opinion or of an effective bloc of votes they are in a position to votes, they are in a position to steal from us the fruits of our victories in battle.

victories in battle.

Re i c b Propaganda Minister Goebbels has repeatedly boasted of this fact, and declared that the Nazis would take advantage of our institutions of free speech to secure through the slow poison of political propaganda what could not be won on the battlefield.

"It will always remain the best joke made by the democratic sys-tem, that it provided its deadly enemies with the means of de-stroying it." — is the way Dr. Goebbels gleefully put his plan.

One of the most definite tests of the strength of these propagandist paratroopers in our midst is to be found in the public reaction to the sedition conspiracy trial which has been going forward in Washington since April 17.

Trial Tests Opinion

We do not believe that the 29 men and women on trial there could have, all by themselves, managed to set up a fascistic form of government in the United States or to ernment in the United States or to seriously impair the morale of our troops — the things which they conspired to help bring about, ac-cording to the indictment. The case of these 29 profession-al political manipulators and pro-pagandists is, nevertheless, one of the most impartant devalonments.

the most important developments of the year 1944 in connection with the final winning of the war, be-cause the evolution of this trial provides an almost perfect index of American public opinion toward the basic issues over which we are

The defendants are charged with being part of a vast conspiracy with our deadly German enemies. For several years they have displayed, all over the United States, perfect examples of the Nazi for our children. Freedom of speech this in concert with the Axis. Their punishment is a routine matter of law enforcement. The public un-derstanding of what this war is all about which ought to result from the dramatic evidence that the Gov-ernment is presenting is, however, a vital part of winning the war. For that reason, this entire issue of the Anti-Nazi Bulletin is devoted to a review of the sedition conspiracy case.

Unindicted Vocal

Frankly, we are a great deal dis-turbed. We are disturbed by the evident fact that large groups of Americans are not disturbed by the daily revelations in Judge Eicher's courtroom.

We are disturbed, too, by the vigorous and skillful efforts of "Hitler's Mouthpieces" to substitute false issues for the real issues

Thus, no sooner had the Grand

Senator Nye, outstanding "America First" politician, had already declared on the floor of the Senate: "Most of those involved in this

"Most of those involved in this alleged conspiracy...are no more guilty of conspiracy than I am."
The Cross and the Flag, organ of the ex-Silver-Shirter Gerald L. K. Smith cried —

"Political persecution."

And the New York Daily News, long a pillar of extreme isolationist and pro-appeasement sentiment, professed to see in the entire trial nothing but "fourth term propa-ganda!"

We would expect such sentiments from publications like those assem-bled on the front page of this Anti-Nazi Bulletin, and we might even, Nam Bulletin, and we might even, momentarily, dismiss them as "pro-paganda". But propaganda has a habit of seeping upward — and when it reaches the columns of a newspaper with 3,000,000 readers it is no longer a matter to be dis-missed.

We look with distrust upon croc-We look with distrust upon crocodile tears shed for civil liberties by the Chicago Tribune, because that paper has generally concerned itself deeply with this issue only when its friends could claim the benefit. We cannot take seriously a cry of "political persecution" from a man who, like Gerald tion" from a man who, like Gerald Smith, was an expert practitioner of that very art, as a Ku Klux Klan organizer and Silver-Shirter.

Nazi propagandists, whether paid agents or misled dupes conspiring with them, may be generally expected to try to operate under such false-fronts as free speech, religion, patriotism, and the like. Thoughtful Americans recognize freedom of speech as one of the essential mechanisms of democracy. They also realize that paid propaessential mechanisms of democracy.
They also realize that paid propagandists and persons conspiring with the enemy must be punished, if free speech is to be protected for our children. Freedom of speech use a distorted image of it as a shield for their misdeeds.

Fight Aids Nazis

Quite the contrary; we see in all Quite the contrary: we see in all of this public beating of editorial breasts a considered attempt on the part of the "isolationists of 1945" to get the American people to close their eyes to the fact that this war originated with the Nazis and has been ably fought for them, not only in the field of battle, but also in the political field.

only in the field of battle, but also in the political field.

The way in which James J.
Laughlin and other defense attor-neys have repeatedly made "mo-tions" which were clearly intended for the columns of the Chicago Tribune and its friends, rather than for the consideration of the Court, is an example of this effort. We are informed, indeed, that on more than one notable occasion the texts of these "defense motions" were ac-tually known to the Chicago Tribune before they were known to the Judge Credence is given to such re-ports by the fact that more than a year ago, certain members of coun-sel for the defendants were openly trying to raise large sums of mo-ney, not to hire more attorneys to look up law, but to secure nationwide publicity for the propaganda which their clients hoped to be able to spread throughout the country, from the platform of a witness-chair in a United States Court.

Hoffman Helps

Meanwhile, because they did not feel that it would be helpful to feel that it would be helpful to their cause to have the facts of this alleged conspiracy come out in public, politicians with a rec-ord of strong support for the iso-lationist, pro-appeasement position, made every effort to stop-the-trial. Thus, Congressman Clare E. Hoff-man (R., Mich.) actually filled a House Resolution to investigate House Resolution to investigate several organizations that had been helpful to the Department of Justice, for their temerity in digging into the doings of many of these very propagandists who are now on trial!

on trial!

The public response given to the progress of the sedition conspiracy cases will be an accurate index of the success or lack of success which Goebbels and the Germans have had Goebbels and the Germans have had in achieving their purposes here. The German High Command will not measure their headway in terms of news from the battlefront alone. Indeed, they must by now have become accustomed to bad news from that quarter. Their one remaining hope — and it is still a fairly bright hope — is that they may be able to blind the eyes of the free nations, and, through some last minute shift of military command, open the way for their mand, open the way for their ready-made political friends abroad ready-made political friends abroad to carry on a successful agitatior for that kind of a peace which would leave the spoils of the was still largely in anti-democratic hands and impose upon the peoples. of every free country a residual burden of hates, prejudices and fears which might for generations impair the forward march of man

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Because this Special Sedition Because this special Sention Trial Issue has involved so great an amount of investigation and research, we have omitted the preceding issue and combined its material with this one. Subscriptions have been extended accordingly accordingly.

We urge you to secure bundle orders of this Special Issue, for the widest possible distribution among your friends. Quantity rates on application to THE ANTI-NAZI BULLETIN, 165 West 46th Street, New York 19, N. Y.

U. S. Winds Noose of Evidence Around 26 In Trial Charging Conspiracy With Hitler

Bund Program Put in Evidence Despite Frantic Efforts of Defense to Prevent Baring of Clients' Part in Propaganda

By Dorothy Waring

The United States District Court in Washington was not designed for the trial of causes celebres. It was made small, intimate, dignified. It was made a place for the consideration, by a Justice, a jury, a defendant, or maybe two defendants, and two or perhaps four attorneys, of legal issues to be quietly discussed, ruled upon, and decided.

The little room was never designed for a spectacle. It was not made for the use of yelling, propagandist-minded procedure-empty lawyers, in droves of a score or more, apparently seeking to drown out the Court, the prosecution and even their colleagues by sheer force of lung and fist. Yet it is doubtful if the history of American jurisprudence ever witnessed so composite a picture of bad manners and bad feeling as jammed that small space to oursting on April 17, 1944.

On that date the people of the United States brought to trial, under an indictment secured on Jan-uary 3rd, thirty persons charged uary 3rd, thirty persons charged with conspiring to destroy the form of government whose protection they now sought by due process of law, and of seeking to subvert the morale of the armed forces of the

Death Claims One

Death Claims One
Within a few days their number was reduced, by the death of Elmer J. Garner of Wichita, Kansas, to twenty-nine. Those who, by the time the jury had been selected, actually came to triad were:
Lawrence Dennis, George Sylvester Viereck, August Klapprott, Herman Schwinn, Hans Diebel,
Elizabeth Dilling, George Deatherage, James B. True, Eigene Sanctuary, Charles B. Hudson, Edward James Smythe, Robert Noble, Ellis
O. Jones, Gerald B. Winrod, Garland L. Alderman, Prescott Freese, Dennett, Howard V. Broenstrupp, also known as Count Victor Che-Dennett, Howard V. Broenstrupp, also known as Count Victor Che-rep-Spiridovich, Gerhard W. Kunze, Frank K. Ferenz, Parker Sage, William R. Lyman, David J. Bax-ter, Robert Edward Edmondson, Ernest F. Elmhurst, Frank W. Clark, Joseph McWilliams, Lois de LaFayette Washburn, W. D. Pelley, and Peter Stabuenber.

and Peter Stahrenberg.

The personal record of each of these is to be found in other columns of this issue of The Anti-Nazi Bulletin.

Judge Is Burdened

Presiding at the trial is the Hon. Edward Clark Eicher. He is a former Congressman from Iowa, a Mennonite. For a time the unprecedented bedlam caused by the out-cries of the defendants and their attorneys, who often seemed to be talking more to the press than to the court, threatened to disorgan-ize the whole proceedings, but after the first outbursts the Judge found both his voice and his gavel, and from then on, with the aid of a few stiff fines and several con-tempt citations, he has managed to control the situation.

control the situation.

The Government's case is being presented by Special Prosecutor O. John Rogge, who won his spurs in the cleanup of the Louisiana political scandal trials, and his assistant, Joseph Burns.

If the Government had a clear cut view of its own case, so also had the defendants. Despite general disagreements on minor matters, there was general agreement among most of them that they would try to use the forum of the court room to try to propagandize the American people into believing that this vitally important trial was nothing but (a) a purely poli-tical maneuver by the administra-tion, (b) a step financed and motivated by Jews and other minorities and (c) an assault upon the right of free speech. These three charges took immediate and violent form from the throats of most of the twenty-nine defendants and their twenty-two lawyers-more or less

HE PRESIDES

EDWARD C. EICHER

Laughlin 'Hams' It

C'everest and most flamboyant C'everest and most flamboyant of the counsel for the accused was James J. Laughlin, pudgy, bald and nervous District of Columbia lawyer representing, by Court appointment, the unslakeable Edward James Smythe, West Coast hateler Robert Noble, and, in the manner of a prize-fight manager, "pieces" of other defendants. His first task was to explain the absence of his client Smythe, an expose of whose client Smythe, an expose of whose Protestant War Veterans hoax was a major activity of the Anti-Nazi League in April. With Smythe apprehended near the Canadian bor-der the next day, April 18, this pressure was relieved and Laughlin from then on issued a veritable from then on issued a veritable half-storm of subpoenas and applications to the Appellate and Supreme Courts for writs of mandamus certiorari, flooded the bench with motions for dismissal, severance and mistrial—wrote letters to the President and issued releases to the press — all in the interest of his and other people's clients. As a result he drew a citation for contempt, which, on his conviction before Justice Jennings Bailey, brought him a $150 fine, several censures from his colleagues, an attempt to fire him by Smythe, and constant criticism from the bench and press. Meanwhile he was himcontempt, which, on his conviction before Justice Jennings Bailey, brought him a $150 fine, several censures from his colleagues, an attempt to fire him by Smythe, and constant criticism from the bench and press. Meanwhile he was himself indicted in an altogether different court for attempting to tamper with a jury hearing a case involving a bank-holdup, which indictment he made the basis for still another motion for mistrial.

After running a rhetorical content of the case of the court for attempting to tamper with a jury hearing a case involving a bank-holdup, which indictment he made the basis for still another motion for mistrial.

(Continued on page 15)

gauntlet of questions-"Were vor gauntet of questions—"Were you opposed to Lend Lease?—would you be influenced by criticism of President Roosevelt or his policies—or by the allegation that Roosevelt is a Jew—by criticism of Jews—do you have Jewish ancestry are you related by marriage to any Jews—are any of your business partners Jews—what newspaper do you read-what columnists do you read—what does 'Jew' mean— what is 'Zionism'—what does 'in-ternational banker' mean—what is meant by 'Mongolian Jew'-have you read Mein Kampf"-the jury to hear the case was finally selected on May 16, after previous panels had been dismissed.

The jury, as selected, and whose decision must be unanimous for a verdict, has 6 Catholics, a Methodverdict, has 6 Catholics, a Methodist, a Swedenborgian, a Lutheran, a "former Lutheran" and two persons with no church affiliation, among its members. The jurors are: Walter Plant, salesman; Nyle B. Eakle, a foreman; Henry Aschenbach, store manager; Mrs. A. J. Billingsley, telephone operator; John H. Hahlman, bank teller; John H. Hahlman, bank teller; Thomas B. Bailey, jr., bank clerk; Julia T. Butt, housewife; Charles M. Leager, jr., metallurgist; Leo F. Diegelman, pharmacist; Fred A. Raulin, contractor, and Anthony Falcone, insurance salesman. Two alternate jurors are W. H. I. Fleming, architect, and P. E. John-son ir. a contractor. son jr., a contractor.

Some of the jurors are Masons and some are Knights of Columbus Immediately after their selection they were retired while the court passed on a seemingly endless series of technical motions by the

Elmhurst Jittery

Typical of the mental attitude of the frightened and hate-poison-ed crew was the action May 16 of Ernest F. Elmhurst who filed suit Ernest F. Elmhurst who filed suit for $100,000 and costs against his attorney, Ira C. Koehne, charging an "unholy alliance" between Koehne, Rogge and Burns to "betray him"; Rogge, so Ellmhurst charged, h a v i n g apparently "bribed" Koehne.

Dennis, who early in trial became his own attorney, asked a sanity test for three of his companion defendants, whereupon the ubiquitous Laughlin moved that the whole panel be excused. Judge Eicher overruled the motion. When Dennis charged in a widely ad-

Dennis charged in a widely advertised address to the Court, that the whole trial was "a political maneuver," it was Rogge's turn to object, and he managed to get the remark stricken from the record, but the Court allowed Dennis an

THESE WILL DECIDE

Here is the jury that will try the 29 accused of sedition. Shown just after they were sworn in are, front row: Mrs. Alice J. Billingsley and Mrs. Julia T. Butt, Second row, left to right: Paul E. Johnson Jr. (alternate), Frederick A. Raulin, Nyle B. Eake, Charles M. Saeger, Jr., Earle R. Alvey, Jr., Henry Aschenbach. Third row: John H. Bahlman, Thomas B. Bailey, Jr., Leo F. Diegelman, William H. Fleming (alternate), Walter I. Plant and Anthony Falcone

PROSECUTOR TO PROVE NAZI AGENTS BACKED DEFENDANTS

Opening Statement Declares Some Received Pay From Germans for Services in Helping Undermine Morale in United States

The Government of the United States, in the case of the twenty-nine defendants now on trial before Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher, of the U. S. District Court in the District of Columbia, is seeking to prove that they united in a criminal conspiracy to assist in the setting up of a fascist form of government in this country, and that they individually and jointly operated to disaffect the morale of the armed forces of this country.

It is curious that the govern-9-ment's layers thicking the Crivil I.

nent's largest trial since the Civil tions with the Nazl government was once a Congressman from Iowa, mounted the bench, adjusted his rimless spectacles, and, on May 18, at 10:09 a.m. nodded to Special Prosecutor O. John Rogge, and remarked:

O. JOHN ROGGE

"The Government will proceed with its opening statement."

This, despite raucous interruptions from all and sundry of the counsel for the defense, Mr. Rogge proceeded to do. He told the jury the Government was prepared to prove the charges in the indictment. He said the defendants had actively promoted a Nazi revolu-tion in the United States. He asserted they had direct connec-

> Bought That EXTRA War Bond Yet?

ment's largest trial since the Civil War should be conducted in one of its smallest court-rooms. But, after almost a month of spectacular legal rowing, the jurist who legal rowing, the jurist who will be specified by the section was not inadvertent but planned, and that they continued these activities right up to the day they were indicted, last January 3rd.

Culprits Got Pay

Mr. Rogge declared that at least two of the defendants were paid for their propaganda in behalf of a Nazi revolution in this country by sources in Germany.

Heading off one phase of the charges made by the defense that the trial is partisanly political in character, Rogge said that while certain political sections of the American public had been ardently isolationist both before and since Pearl Harbor, this was not the res gestae of the Government's case, but that German Nazi propaganda "made in America" and created under orders and direction of the German Reich was the crux of the

He pointed out that these defendants actually joined a world-wide conspiracy hatched in Berlin, nursed in this country by Berin, nursed in this country by persons trained in the Nazi tech-nique who taught it to others and practiced it in a deliberate effort to overthrow the govern-ment of the United States.

Cites Nazi Origins

He made clear to the intently He made clear to the intentity listening jurors, who strove to concentrate on Rogge's charges through a bedlam of objections, hastily prepared motions, and the tattoo of Justice Eicher's gavel,

(Continued on page 13)

Defendants' Dossiers Reveal Vast Networ Of Racial, Religious and Political Subversion

Interlocking Interests Bare Unity Of Purpose to Destroy Democratic Processes and Weaken War Effort

Who are the men and women on trial in Washington charged with having conspired together to destroy the morale and loyalty of the armed forces of the United States, to aid the Nazi government of Germany?

Are they, as the isolationist Chicago Tribune implies, merely extravagant patriots-albeit possibly 'crackpots'-whose excesses' in rhetoric constitute nothing worse than 'rabble rous-

Or are they actually representatives of that desperate underworld of political propagandists who, as the Government charges, joined hands with the sworn enemies of American democracy, to aid Hitler in "the establishment of national socialist or fascist forms of government. . . in the United States of America"

Are they really spear-heads of the Nazi penetration into American life? Or are they but cats-paws the inact point in the but cats paws for greater and more dangerous forces hidden in the background?

harm have they already done, and how can, we be sure that their sample is stopped?

And Anti-Nazi League has given its answer to these questions again and again, and a Grand Jury of citizens in the District of Columbia, impanelled by the United States District Court, has thrice given its answer. As a result, these men and women are now on trial, charged with one of the most loathsome offenses in the American catalogue offenses in the American catalogue

Record Shows Crime

The best way to understand this case is to study the records these defendants, to see how they labored to bring to America a government acceptable to Hitler, and how they worked hand-in-glove with Duquesne, Auhagen, and Kuhn and the other agents of the German Paik to include the second of the German Reich, to influence our soldiers and sailors, and our workers and voters at home. It is the special purpose of this issue of the Anti-Nazi Bulletin to bring you these records in black-and-white, boiled down from thousands of docu-mented sources activities. mented sources available in our files. From these "Who's Who in Sedition" sketches the thoughtful citizen can decide for himself how well-founded is the case which At-torney General Biddle, through Special Prosecutor Rogge, has been painstakingly presenting in court ever since the 17th of April.

Plot Clearly Seen

Here is shown the connection between the official Nazi propaganda agencies of Hitler and Goebbels and their American representa-tives. Here is also the painful story with . . . the loyalty, morale and discipline of the military and naval forces of the United States."

for greater and more dangerous forces hidden in the background? Are they "sincere" Nazis, or merely commercial opportunists, hired to manufacture propaganda on a piece-work basis? Are they just misguided citizens, or have they actually allied themselves with a foreign government and become captains and brigaders in its hidden network of political Storm Troopers? Did they get money from Germany? Did they carry out orders from Goebbels and his minions? Above all, how much harm have they already done, and how can we be sure that their armine its stopped? machinery, and so on.

Fritz Duquesne — the Nazi spider in Hitler's web of espion-age and underground war on the United States—is now a federal prison for his crimes.

Friederich Auhagen — ring-leader of the first Hitlerian propaganda mill in the United States—is now in jail for his misdeeds.
Fritz Kuhn — creator and Fritz Kuhn — creator and promoter of the German-American Bund, the agency through which Duquesne and Auhagen drew recruits, exploited their expert talents, and managed their propaganda—is in jail.

In Newark, New Jersey, a few weeks ago — seven other agents of the Nazi government — members of the German.

-members of the German-American Bund, doing with hand and brain the bidding of the murderous Nazi regime to destroy America's freedom tencend to jail terms.

The 29 men and women on trial to-day in Washington (including three whose cases have been severed for separate trial later) are charged with conspiring to carry on the work which such agents as these undertook to do for our Cerman enemies.

To get a true picture of their perfidy it is necessary to go back far behind the beginning of the war, and before the particular events in connection with which they are on trial.

Many of the "Who's Who" items in this issue of the Bulletin and their Americans representatives. Here is also the painful story of some Americans who threw away their birthright to make common cause with these alien agents. And here also is an accasional glimpse of the complicated network of interchanges between the 29 defendants, every one of whom was in constant traffic with some or most of his codefendants, in an interchange of publications, ideas, mailing lists, and even money, which can be described as nothing less than what the Grand Jury has called "conspiracy... with intent to interfere poisoning the American spirit; in such instances Goebbels had but to try, through his Bund and Welt-Dienst, to organize already-willing workers on an efficient assemblyline plan, as parts of the world-wide German machine. In other cases, the connection with the Nazi cases, the connection with the Nazi master-conspirators was more or-ganic, and in some instances (like that of George Sylvester Viercek) no real attempt was ever made to conceal it.

By understanding the careers nd machinations of these 29 men and machinations of these 29 men and women, the thoughtful American citizen can come closer to understanding the basic nature of the war in which we are engaged. some of whose most active fronts are manned not by soldiers in Axis uniforms, but by scientists who have brought to the art of political manipulation refinments never be-fore attained in the history of manipulation refinments never before attained in the history of human perfidy.

One word of warning: These cases do not represent the entire Nazi conspiracy in America, here were the constitution of the more obvious aspects of that conspiracy, and their deeds in some case, and their deeds—in some cases affecting the lives of thousands of people, in other cases, confined to limited and relatively unimportant circles—are well-enough defined to be available for public appraisal. In this respect, these cases constitute an excellent cross-section of stitute an excellent cross-section of a yet larger whole, and are a first-step toward throwing the light of public opinion into some of the darker corners of the difficult political war which we must win before the evil of Nazism is banished from this careth. from this earth.

Gerhard W. Kunze

Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze was appointed successor to Fritz Kuhn as leader in the United States of the German-American Bund. He had been the Bund's public relations chief, and had a ong record of German - American activity in the numerous branches of the Bund and its af-filiates. He sat with Kuhn at the mammoth Bund rally at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 20, 1939, and spoke along with J. Wheeler-Hill, convicted Nazi spy. He spoke Hill, convicted Nazi spy. He spoke before the Crusaders for Americanism, where Joseph McWilliams, a co-defendant, also delivered an address on "A Jew-Free America," and Bund literature was sold. He was linked by the FBI to a spy plot in which Count Anastase Vonsiatsky was subsequently convicted, and was a prime mover in the attempt by August Klapprott and Edward James Smythe. prott and Edward James Smythe, now on trial with him, to unite the Bund and the Ku Klux Klan.

> Bought That EXTRA War Bond Yet?

August Klapprott

August Klapprott was deputy na-tional leader of the German-Amer-ican Bund and vice-president of the A. V. Publishing Co., which pub-lished the Deutscher Weckruf und lished the Deutsch Beobachter, offi-cial Bund organ for propaganda in America. On August 18, 1940 at a Klan-Bund at a Klan-Bund meeting, he said: "The object of the Bund a n d the Klan are t h e same." He distributed copies of speeches of Cong. Thorkelson for propaganda for propaganda purposes. At Manhattan Central Opera House, April 23, 1941, he was conspicuous at an America First meeting at which Lindbergh spoke.

meeting at which Lindbergh spoke. Immediately after Pearl Harbor he told John Roy Carlson: "What the America First Committee should be doing now is to work for a negotiated peace." He was instrumental with Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, a co-defendant, in the attempt through Edward James Smythe, also a co-defendant, to units the Bund and the Klan. He is now serving a prison term for is now serving a prison term for counselling draft evasion and is released in custody for the duration of this trial.

Lawrence Dennis

Lawrence Dannis is con-Lawrence Dennis is consistently referred to as the "brains" of the men and women on trial, by which is meant that he is the best educated of the defendants not that he was the "engineer" of the conspiracy alleged in the indict.

ed in the indictment. Dennis cloaks hatreds, brutalities and gangst ! movement in especially in his or the intelligence of the common words.

So strong was the totalitarian slant of his Dynamics of War and slant of his dynamics of War and the conding to Dr. Revolution that, according to Dr. Friedrich H. Auhagen's Forum Ob-Friedrich H. Aunagen's Forum Observer (organ of the top-flight German propaganda agency, the American Fellowship Forum, for July 25, 1940, "the original publisher of Mr. Dennis' book decided to withhold it, as a precautionary measure, just after it was printed in June: it has therefore been measure, just after it was printed in June; it has, therefore, been isued under the imprint of "The Weekly Foreign Letter"." Auha-gen, who was one of the first Ger-man agents to be convicted and thereupon undertook to distril the book, through the agency of "Fellowship Forum" organizat to whose members he boosted I nis' opus as "a priceless comp ion." Dennis, along with Auhag was a regular writer for To-Da Challenge, the "Forum's" slickper propaganda journal. At a sor what earlier date Dennis collat ated with Joseph P. Kamp, he of the so-called Constitutional Ecational League, in publishi The Awakener, of which bo Kamp and Dennis were listed editors, and to which John Eogh Kelly, subsequently imprisoned an unregistered Franco agent, w a frequent contributor. So Awakener commend itself the German high command that early as 1933 a World Servi-release recommended it on a p with the Bund's Deutscher Wecl ruf.

He was at first represented b He was at first represented t attorney Lloyd Lanham, with who: strategy he became dissatisfies and is now acting as his own at torney, and is viewed as the "be wether" of the defense. He com-plained that the seating of the defendants under custody "gave a: air of crimpality to be accuraair of criminality to the scene, and bitterly denounced the use o the word "treason" in connection with the case by a New York news paper. He was resentful of the bold fascism of some of the defense and declared on April 26, "I do not associate myself with any chal-lenger (of prospective jurors) as to the race or religion of the juror." In his books, however, he is anti-Semitic. He tried to have brought against James J. Laughlin. defense counsel, read in open court, but the motion was denied. In his opening statement on May 18 he said Hitler never planned to incite mutiny in the U. S. Army, and that mutiny in the U. S. Army, and that Hitler's only aim in his propa-ganda was to keep the U. S. out of the war, like "millions of Ameri-cans who opposed the war prior to Pearl Harbor." He declares the chief issue in the trial is free speech, and tries to make it appear that the trial itself is a political manouever "to aid the fourth term."

Prescott F. Dennett

Prescott Freese Dennett was a one-time aide to George Sylvester Viereck, convicted Nazi propaganda agent, who is a co-defendant in this trial. In conjunction with Vieneck, just African campaign, he dis-tributed a postcard designed to card designed to discourage re-cruiting and to disrupt the morale of rela-tives of men dis-closed to be par-ticipants in that campaign. This post-card describ This ed the frightful ed the frightful circumstances under which American boys would have to live in "diseased Africa." He was a key organizer of the Make Europe Pay War Debts Committee, He was also associated with the War Debts. Posters Committee, which was the warm of the warm Debts Defense Committee with Rep. Martin Sweeney and the late Senator Ernest Lundeen. He was also active in the Islands for War Debts Committee, another Viereck creation. He was a director of the Columbia Press Service and the Washington representative of Flanders Hall publishing house, which is also mentioned in the sedition indictment. His propaganda was frequently mailed at the tax-

(Continued on page 5)

Defendants' Dossiers Reveal Nazi Network

payars' expense in the franked envelopes of Congressmen Clare E. Hoffman, Hamilton Fish, Jr., and Senators Gerald B. Nye, D. Worth Clark and Robert R. Reynolds. Reynolds frequently inserted Dennethous frequently inserted Den-nett's news releases into the Con-gressional Record. Dennett was indicted July 23, 1942, January 4, 1943 and January 3, 1944. On April 17th, through his attorney Frank J. Kelly, he pleaded not guilty. Since he is now in the armed forces, he was ordered out of uniform during his trial, a circumstance which his attorney endeavored to make appear as persecution.

W. D. Pelley

The day after Adolph Hitler came to power in Germany William Dudley Pelley announced the for-mation, along Nazi lines, of the Silver Shirt Legion of America. William Basically anti-Semitic and anti-Negro, Pelley soon absorbed the rest of Nazi philosophy and by 1936 called, at Asheville, N. C. (the home State of Senator Robert Reynolds, founder of the Klan-like "Vin-dicators") a large conference to inject anti-Semitism into the forthpet and-semitism into the forth-coming Presidential campaign. At this conference were James True, Maj. Cloyd Gill, Prof. E. W. Kem-merer (of the Republican Party's Liberty League) and others. It has frequently been reported that the late John H. Kirby, of the National late John H. Alfoy, or the National Association of Manufacturers, was also present, but he died before this conference was held. Gill, who was a constant writer for Joseph Kamp's Constitutional Educational Amp's Constitutional Educational League and the American Women Against Communism, has since died. Pelley's anti-Semitic forgery "from the private diary of Charles Pinckney" was exposed by Charles Dearly He historian in 1939. His publication The Galilican was declared unmailable by the Post Office, and he subsequently published Liberation. The Galilican incidentally, was the successor to Pelley's The Roll Call. He openly praised Hitler, accepted contributions from the Nazi Party, attacked United States war aims, lauded Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, and attacked China and aid to her. On Aug. 12, 1942 he was sentenced to fifteen years for sedition, League and the American Women tenced to fifteen years for sedition, and is now released in custody for the current trial. He has collaborated closely with the activities of most of the other defendants.

William R. Lyman

William R. Lyman, an officer of the vicious National Workers' League of Detroit, is a former pugilist, law student and Axis propagandist whose chief talent w a s running errands of a questionable nature for his superiors. He spent much of his time dis-tributing Gerald Winrod's repro-duction of Robert E d m o n dson's "Jewish ancestry chart" of Presi-dent Roosevelt, and handing out out filthy pictures for Otto Brennerman, a Chicago semi-professional artist who was indicted in 1943 and against whom the charges still stand. He was a

Herman Schwinn

One of the leading lights of the official arm of the Nazi Party in the United States, the Germanthe United States, the German-American Bund, Herman Max Schwinn received reports during

1941 from the Christian Ameriand tried, with Robert F. Pate, Hans Winterhalder, Hans Paul Themlitz and Andrae Norskog to sub-vert disabled veterans. He was the West Coast and of the Silver Shirts. An early investigation by the Anti-Nazi League uncovered receipts issued by DKV, a German committee organized to boycott all stores participating in boycotts of German conde which we have been successful to the store of the st man goods, which were signed by Nazi leaders and some of which were made out to Schwinn for ex-penses. He was indicted July 23, 1942 and January 4, 1943 and again January 3, 1944. He is now serving a prison term for seditious activities from which he is released in custody during this trial. He was frequently a speaker at Camp Siegfried, the Bund camp on Long Island.

Robert Noble

Robert Noble, founder of the Friends of Progress, notorious subversive group operating on the west coast, worked closely with his co-defendant in this trial, Ellis O.

Jones. He was arrested shortly after Pearl Harbert west his week to be the week of the pearl Harbert was a street of the pearl Harbert was a street of the week was a street of the pearl Harbert was a street of th bor, but was re-leased, later to be indicted and con-victed of sedition California in 1942 under a State indictment. He is serving a five-year term for this offense and has been released in custody for the in custody for the current trial. Noble was an ardent supporter of Japan's far-eastern policy, and is on record as declaring "We (the Friends of Progness) are for Germany and Hitler." He said: "I believe this war is going to destroy America," and distributed handbills declaring "Young Man, your lowest aim in life is to be a good soldier." He staged a mock impeachment of the President at the Embassy auditority. dent at the Embassy auditorium in Los Angeles, and testified, be-fore the Tenney Committee hearings in Los Angeles: "I would like to become the American Hitler."

Joseph McWilliams

"Adolph Hitler is the greatest leader in the history of the world."

So spoke Joe "McNazi" McWil-

so spoke Joe "McNazi" McWil-liams, who gained this nickname when the Anti-Nazi League so styled him in their exposé of his activities several years ago. He made this statement in an interview which was published in The New Yorker in August, 1940.

of

(Continued from page 4)

American Destiny Party, com-plete with Congressional aspirants, vituperative posters, foul whispering campaigns, and slush funds. Joe was its candidate for Congress. He was committed to Bellevue for observation after one particularly violent anti-Semitic speech. He was jailed after this, drawing 90 days. He tried to steal Coughlin's Christian Front, and shared a speakers platform with Fritz Kuhn and Edward James Smythe, another crack-pot among the ing campaigns, and slush funds another crack-pot among the defendants, "to keep America out of this Jewish war." Police rounded up 17 Christian Fronters, found them armed and in a state of revolt and out of 328 arrests which were subsequently made, 112 Magistrate's Court convictions re-sulted. He was indicted January 3, 1944, after a year of activity in Chicago, spent in promoting a racket organization appealing to friends and relatives of service men.

Hans Diebel

Hans Diebel was the proprietor Hans Diebel was the proprietor of the Aryan Bookstore, in Los Angeles, and was early interned as an enemy alien, being released in custody for the current trial in Washington.
He was among those indicted July 21 1942 and meeting of the Christian American Guards, who used the Swastika as their emblem and the Hitler ideas as their proand the Hitler ideas as their program. They were headed by W. H. Sahli, and their membership included Col. F. H. Palmer and Marvin Wilson, whose weal led him to pretend that he had been sent to the West Coast by the Willkie headquarters in New York during the 1940 presidential campaign when he tried to "seize" Wilkie's West Coast headquarters. Both he and Palmer reported to Diebel and and Palmer reported to Diebel and and Palmer reported to Diebel and also to Herman Schwinn, a co-defendant. He sent advice to Nazi headquarters in Germany to disconfinue carrying "Printed in Ger-many" on English language propa-ganda imported to this country.

George S. Viereck

George Sylvester Viereck now erving time in a federal prison for giving aid to the Nazis, is the oldest important propagandist in the United States in years of service. He promoted pan - Germanism long before World War I, and was the leader of paid subversives in this country throughout that struggle. Switch-ing easily to the perversions and brutalities of the Nazi regime, he wrote a member of the Anti-Nazi or the Anti-Nazi League in 1932 (before the League was founded) "It is quite possible that Hitler may be needed to save Germany." In 1934 he openly espoused the Nazi cause and un-dertook to propagandize in favor the charges still stand. He was a member of David Baxter's Social Republic Society, and was indicted July 23, 1942, January 4, 1943 and January 3, 1944. He sometimes operated under the alias of Robert Lanham, of Detroit.

Single Current section trial.

Joe has always thought he had "what it takes." He wanted "to that this country the Paradise that Hiller has made Germany." ally burned in Germany at Hitler's order. He imported into the United States. He was indicted July 23, 1942, January 3, 1944. He sometimes operated under the alias of Robert Lanham, of Detroit.

Smythe, Col. Eugene Sanctuary of its policies in the United States. Collaborating with a Jewish au. He was indicted July 23, 1942, January 3, 1944. He was indicted July 23, 1942, January 3, 1944. He sometimes of the Hiller has made Germany." His cryanization talents have produced The Christian Mobilizers, as foul and filthy a set of thugs man Nazi propaganda book, Com-as ever graced Hitler's hideaways; the "Little Brown Jug" social club, ilton Fish, Jr., Harry K. Jung, as anti-social as smallpox; and the John B. Trevor, head of the race. munism in Germany, and got Ham-ilton Fish, Jr., Harry K. Jung, John B. Trevor, head of the race-hating American Coalition, and others to endorse it. He took "kickbacks" from Amer-

He took "kickbacks" from American public relations counsels for them, and founded the Flanders Hall Press, Nazi propaganda mill. Flanders Hall Sued Congressman Stephen A. Day's propaganda book, We Must Save the Republic, as one of a series of "America First" books. He was indicted July 23, 1942 and was reindicted Jan. 4, 1943 and January 3, 1944. He registered with the State Department as a German agent, but was indicted under the McCormack Act because his registration failed to discoss his registration failed to disclose many of his most important secret

Elizabeth Dilling

Elizabeth Dilling, author of The Red Network, a smear of American progressive movements, established her Patriotic Research Bureau after her return to the United States from a trip to Nazi Ger-many in 1938. In it she made wide use of World Service, the Nazi propaganda news-service, and was placed on the Nazi list of was placed on the National State Nazi list of "American acceptables." Under the alias of "The Rev. Frank Woodruff Johnson" she wrote and disseminated the violently anti-Semitic book The Octopus. She was a co-founder of We The Mothers Mobilize, which organized treks to Washington to fight toeth and nail against the lend-lesse and other pro-United Nations legislation. She consistently used the McCormick (Chicago Tribune) formula "this is not a democracy—it is a republic." Closely connected with prominent and wealthy patrons, and more acceptable in the offices of Senators and Congressmen than most of the women in these subversive movements, Mrs. Dilling, next to Lawrence Dannie "The Control of the women in these subversive movements, Mrs. Dilling, next to movements, Mrs. Dilling, next to Lawrence Dennis and George Deatherage, had a wider influence through more publications and or-ganizations than did most of the other defendants in this trial.

David J. Baxter

David Baxter, intimate col-laborator with the Nazi propa-gandist Prince Kurt Bernhard von und zu Lippe, and liason between the majority of defendants in this the trial and the Los Angeles Bund, was also founder of the Social Republic Society. This organization sent out a study course from its secret headquarters at Col-ton, Calif. which included "T h e Corporate State -a Practical Plan for American Nationalists" and several "courses" in Nazi stormtroop techniques. Baxter warned his District Leaders not to neglect their arsenals. He was paid by Fritz Weidemann, German consul at San Francisco for his propaganda, and worked closely with W. D. Pelley, Edward James Smythe, Col. Eugene Sanctuary and other defendants in this trial. He was indicted July 23, 1942,

"We wonder what the German reaction must be to the loud mouthings of Allied leaders who spout victory while losing battles."

Edward J. Smythe

Edward James Smythe is the stentorian voiced leader of the Protestant War Veterans Association, a racket organization which Anti-Nazi League has the quently exposed as a political ally of Hitler's infamous Amer-ican agency, the German - American Bund. Smythe has also had close and intimate dealings with the Ku Klux Klan, and was the moving factor in an attempt to promote a shot-gun wedding of the Klan to the Bund in 1940 when a huge mass meeting of the two organizations was held at the Bund's Camp Nordland, New Jersey. In 1944 he attempted to use the Protestant Chaplains Association, an auxiliary of his Protestant War Veterans, as a means of throwing a cloak of "religious" camouflage over his previous propaganda and by this device he managed to dupe a num-ber of prominent Federal officials, State Governors and civic leaders into seeming support of his activities. This move was exposed by the Anti-Nazi League as an attempt to bolster his defense in this trial. Smythe's literature has consistently followed the Hitler propaganda line — attacking an alleged international "Roman Catholic conspiracy," along with "Jewish control" of the federal government. Violently anti-British, ro, and anti-Russian, publications used nearly anti - Negro, Smythe's publications used nearly every hate motif known to the totalitarians. He has been indicted more than once and more than once has attempted to evade trial by flight. Because of this his bail was light. Because of this his bail was fixed at a high figure when, in this trial, he failed to appear on April 17, and was intercepted by the F.B.I. at a point near the Canadian border on April 18 and returned to Washington. He published a "news letter" the burden of which followed clearly the pattern of "news letter" the burden of which followed closely the pattern of those of other defendants, in its violent and sometimes obscene attacks on the President, his family and appointees. He also founded the Republican Nationalist Party, the Christian Civil Liberties Com mittee and a score of other paper organizations, which he used to collect funds or to cover up his collect funds or to cover up his other activities. A figure of lesser importance in himself, he is con-spicuous at the trial as a link in the conspiracy because of his wide acquaintanceship with nearly all of the more extreme propagandists recently active in this field.

Parker Sage

Parker Sage, head of the in-famous National Workers' League, is a former Nazi agent, who was expelled from the United Auto-mobile Workers' Union as a labor spy. His League was organized from the remnants of Michigan's Nazistic Black Legion, some of whose members were convicted of murder, and others of equally repellant crimes. In its "news letter" for Sept. 28, 1939 he wrote:

"We heartily endorse Henry Ford's statement (made) during the last week ... Mr. Ford makes .clear that he realizes Jews primarily benefit from the war."

Sage was indicted in Detroit in 1940 for inciting to riot during the Sojourner Truth Housing Development disorders, and was accused of

(Continued on page 12)

The ANTI-NAZI BULLETIN

Official Publication of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights, Inc., 165 W. 46th St., New York 19, N. Y.

The Anti-Nazi Bullelia is published monthly September through April and bimonthly May-June and July-August by the Nan-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights, luc. at 165 West 46th Street, North League to Received as sevend class matter July 23, 1943 at the Post Office at New York
Received as sevend class matter July 23, 1943 at the Post Office at New York April 25 West 46th March 3, 1879, Address at Iccommunications to the Editor, ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE TO CHAMPION HUMAN ROUTED.

July-August 1944

League's Chart Is Key To Conspiracy

The chart on the opposite page is a map of the world conspiracy being unveiled in the sedition trial at Washington.

The individual defendants, specially cartooned for THE ANTI-NAZI BULLETIN by Lazlo Fodor, noted Hungarian artist and publisher, are here connected, by the straight black lines, with that particular Nazi activity, here or abroad, which the Government charges constituted the conspiracy.

In the middle circle, of course, is Adolf Hitler, the font and source of the whole plot. Beside him is the ever active Dr. Goebbels, expert director of the world-wide German propaganda machine.

Right arm of the Nazis in the United States was the Amerikadeutscher Volksbund, or German-American Bund, the official Nazi agency openly and directly responsible to the German government and the Nazi party. It in turn controlled any number of secondary propaganda agencies in the United States, and especially undertook to bring Americans of German descent back under the domination of the 'Fatherland'.

More subtle and effective weapon of Hitler and Goebbels was the famed World Service (Welt-Dienst), whose director, Lt. Col. Ulric Fleischhauer, sits behind his typewriter in the circle at Hitler's right. Headquartered at Erfurt, Germany, this world-wide propaganda news service, operating in many different languages, with an organization like a weirdly distorted version of the standard American press association, was subsidized by the Third Reich. From this propaganda mill came the material used by the defendants shown connected with it by the straight black lines on the chart. (And back to Erfurt, for translation into French, Dutch, Spanish, Flemish, Polish and even Japanese, often went the best efforts of some of these same defend-

All of the defendants, whether operating through the Bund, or at the instigation of one of Hitler's more direct agents like George Sylvester Viereck, were of course using each other's material, promoting each other's movements, and otherwise operating in concert with each other. Each face is therefore a link in the chain of conspiracy which surrounds the chart and emanates from the three great central sources - the German government itself, the Bund, and the World Service organization.

A glance at this chart should tell you just what deeds each particular defendant is charged with doing, to the benefit of the German Reich and against the peace and security of the United States.

Elsewhere in this ANTI-NAZI BULLETIN you will find two pages exhibiting some of the publications put out by these propagandists, through which, the Government charges, they scattered among our 48 States lies, prejudices and hates that originated directly from the mouths of our country's deadly enemies.

This chart is not copyrighted. Send for a cut (fullsize or half-size) to print in the publication of your own organization. Or send for a stiff-paper edition to place in your town library, to help newspaper readers understand the news.

Court Deprives Eight Nazis of U. S. Citizenship

Eight men, influential in the dis anded German-American Bund banded German-American Bund were deprived of their American citizenship by Judge Matthew T. Abruzo in a decision June I, in United States District Court, Brooklyn. Two of them are in Germany one as an official of the German

Action was brought on the ground that they had participated in subversive and un-American ac-

Four are still at large in this country, and two are serving pen-itentiary sentences for conspiracy to violate the Selective Service Act. As a result of Judge Abruzzo's rul-ing, the former Bundsmen still at large here will be brought before the Alien Enemy Hearing Board in Brooklyn for an advisory opinion to determine whether the Attorney General's office should order their internment as aliens who might endanger internal security.

Urged Revolt Here

Those whose citizenship was can celed are:

Rudolph Markmann, thirty-nine ears old, formerly of 35-06 Sevears old, formerly of 35-06 Seventy-third Street, Jackson Heights Queens. He was described as No. 2 man in the Bund in charge of the Eastern United States under Fritz Kuhn, Bund leader, now interned. Markmann is one of those at large.

Carl Nicolay, sixty-four, former-ly of 60 E. Thirty-second St., Brooklyn, was leader of the Bronx and Brooklyn Bund units. He is now in Germany, where he holds a high position in the Nazi government, according to United States Attor-ney Harold M. Kennedy, of the Eastern District of New York.

Willy Seckel, fifty, formerly of 39-63 Forty minth Street, Astoria, Queens, leader of the Astoria Bund and advocate of a Nazi revolution in the United States. He fled to Germany aboard the Europa in Hugo Weiss, thirty-four, former riugo weiss, thirty-four, former-ly of 44-01 Thirty-first Avenue, Long Island City, Queens, leader in the Brooklyu unit of the Bund. Weiss was convicted in 1942 of at-tempting to aid men to evade the

Carl Bregler, fifty-six, formerly of 178 South Fifteen Street, Lin-denhurst, L. I. Bregler was con-victed in 1942 of conspiring with other Bund leaders to violate the national draft law. Henry Hauck, fifty, formerly of 297 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, manager of the Bund's Camp Siegfried, ager of the Bund's Camp Siegfried, at Yaphank, L. I.

Frederick William Van Der Bergh, fiftystr, formerly of 27 Montgomery Place, Brooklyn, lead-er of the South Brooklyn Bund

Karl Flick, forty-three, formerly ank, L. I., leader of the storm troop division of the Brook-

Join the Anti-Nazi League

Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights, Inc.

165 West 46th Street

New York, N. Y.

Enclosed is my contribution of $
I wish to be enrolled as a member of the League
Name

MASK OF RELIGION HIDES 'SUPER-PATRIOT' VENO

Fascist Promoters Use 'America', 'Mother' and 'Christian' Titles to Whip Emotions of Blind Followers

One of the most outrageous aspects of much of the propagar which has been circulated in an attempt to weaken America's verifort is the way in which the cloak of "Religion" is used by me of the seditionists and near-seditionists.

This is true of several of the principal defendants in the se

tion conspiracy case, as well as of many other un-American propa-gandists who have so far succeeded gandists who have so Iar succeeues in escaping indictment.

The court-room procedure of a good many of the defendants and their attorneys has been along this result in the court of the second of the same line, as witnessed by t numerable efforts to make the innumerable efforts to make the indictment appear to be an invasion of "religious liberty", and by the heavily "religious" phraseology used by Winrod, Dilling, Hudson and others, in their comments prior to the trial. These propagandists tried to present themselves to the public as "Christian patriots" in the evident hope that they might thus escape the probable penalties of the law.

By means of this device, it is pos-

By means of this device, it is nos. sible to invoke the traditional American guarantees of religious freedom, in addition to the usual distorted "free speech" argument, whenever the propagandist gets whenever the propaganuse into trouble.

Of course, no real religious issue is involved, and the propagandists themselves are well aware of that fact. The false religious isthat fact. The false religious is sue, however, adds an unfortunate element of confusion to the Amer ican public mind, and has been sufficient to cause a good deal of real worry for responsible Church leadworty for responsible Church lead-ers, including the officers of such agencies as the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches, and—the Federal Council of Churches, as well as the Catholic Church.

Catholic Church.

The extreme example is that of Edward James Smythe, now on trial before Judge Eicher. Away back in 1939, Smythe, after organizing his Protestant War Veterans Association (the organization thru which he carried on much of his propaganda) also organized the "Protestant Chaplains Association." Both groups were incorporation." Both groups were incorporation." "Protestant Chapiains Associa-tion." Both groups were incorpora-ted in the District of Columbia, and in each case the notorious Doy in each case the notorious Donald Shea was listed as Smythe's col-league on the incorporation papers. Of course, the Protestant Chaplains Association was never really active until 1944—when it was suddenly unearthed, and built into a large enterprise as part of a less mixed. enterprise as part of a last-minute endeavor to throw a "religious" cover over all of Smythe's activities. When this effort — so carefully planned five whole years in advance—failed, Smythe attempted to flee, but was captured by the FBI just south of the Canadian border.

Winrod Is Example

Winrod Is Example
The most open use of a religious vehicle has been made by Gerald Winrod, extreme "Fundamentalist" Kansas preacher and publisher of The Defender, which, tho devoting some of its closing pages to sermons and to the routine text material issued for the International Sunday School Lessons (as in any accredited Protestant periodical), the its other macas with such articles. accredited Protestant periodical), fills its other pages with such articles as "Colonel Sanctuary — a cles as "Colonel Sanctuary — a Christian Patriot", "The Truth About the Protocols", and "Abra-About the Protocols", and "Abraham and the Ritual of Human Sacrifices". Typical of his Ku Klux Klan background, Winrod refers to the Catholic Church as "The Scarlet Woman" of the Bible.
In late months, however, the general tone of The Defender has become more subdued, and the cur-rent issue notes that the Editor rent issue notes that the Editor "is in Washington this month," "is in Washington this month," with no mention of the sedition

Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling wrote some of her most violent passages under the alias of "The Rev. Frank Woodruff Johnson." This was the name which appeared on the t page of The Octopus. (Her co-fendant, Charles B. Hudson, fendant, Charles B. Hudson, Omaha, seems to have shared use of "The Rev. Frank Woodr Johnson's" name

Wm. Dudley Pelley was one the most expert practitioners of t "religious" line, for he manag to get a maximum of propagar into his publications, with a mi into his publications, with a mi mum of space set apart for "re gious" coloration. This was par cularly true of his expens: monthly, The Galilean, which we excluded from the mails a she time after Pearl Harbor. Pell relied on the use of religious p tures (such as scenes from the Holy Land), plus a curious pseucomystical phraseology in which presented his propaganda, evider ly intending that the whole produ would pass for a "teligious" perious. would pass for a "religious" ical, while getting in its insidio ideas by a method very hard f the courts to attack.

Even the soap-box anti-semi Joseph McWilliams ("Joe M Nazi") fell back on this old devic alternating between his two favo ite titles as "National Leader" ite titles as "National Leader the American Destiny Party" ar "N a t i o n a l Commander of the Christian Mobilizers." A though he always seemed most : home speaking to a Bund gro in the Turnhalle, or stirring up Yorkville mob at a Street-corn meeting, McWilliams could als pose as a defender of Christianit Trying to awaken the sleepin Christian people to the menace of the Anti-Christian Communis the Anti-Christian Communist Roosevelt-Jewish forces", was hi own phrase to describe his pro paganda operations.

Churches Exploited

Col. Eugene Nelson Sanctuary one of the senior members of th seditionists' company, was at time a director of several small Protest ant mission societies of extremis tendencies, and continually advertised himself as a "church speak er," on the basis of his fairly fre quent successes in persuading un wary ministers, in need of stop gap speakers for their women' societies, to avail themselves of hi willing talents. He liked to willing talents. He liked to writ-his letters on the stationery of th-his letters on the stationery of th-"Hak-Ka Mission, Inc.", a smal fundamentalist group of which h-was a director and treasurer. How-ever, he went a step too far when in 1939 and 1940, he started dis-triuting a leaflet The Holy See and the lewel which surported to he triuting a leaflet The Holy See and the Jews!, which purported to be a Roman Catholic attack on the Jews. Considering that Sanctuary had spent the better years of his life as a Ku Klux Klan leader, trying to stir up hatred against both Catholics and Jews, some of his followers were surprised to find him mailing out Klan literature and pseudo-Catholic literature from the same address! Sanctuary, by the way, was a frequent contributor to The Defender, "religious" publication of his co-defendant, Gerald B. Winrod, who agreed with Sanctuary, too, in being about Sanctuary, too, in being about equally anti-Catholic and anti-Jew-ish in his hates.

Approach Is Subtle

If space permitted, this record night be extended to show how other propagandists now under in-dictment for conspiracy to commit sedition, used this same device of cloaking their poisonous words in religious phraseology. Even "Count" Spiridovich (H. Victor

(Continued on page 16)

Here Are Some Samples of the Poisor

Hitler propaganda is marked by certain well-established doctrines. Anything which spreads those doctrines spreads Hitler propaganda. Anti-Semitism is one of these characteristics. There was anti-Semitic propaganda before Hitler. But Hitler made it part and parcel of his political program. To spread anti-Semitism is to help Hitler. It is to promote his cause. All of the publications pictured above were published and distributed by defendants in the current sedition trial in Washington. All spread anti-Semitism. Another mark of the Hitler propaganda is the assault on political democracy. All of these publications carried in every issue assaults upon political democracy — and especially upon the Democratic Party in the United States and against its leaders. The Anti-Nazi League does NOT hold that political criticism of the existing regime is Nazi Propaganda. It does hold that WHEN SUCH ATTACK IS MADE A PART OF A GENERAL PROPAGANDA AIMED AT THE DESTRUCTION OF DEMOCRACY ITSELF IT DOES CONSTITUTE HITLER PROPAGANDA. To this sort of attack every one of these publications has been committed. Another mark of Hitler propaganda is assault upon the integrity of the alliance between the United Nations. Every one of these publications has attacked lend-lease — our military alliance with Great Britain — with China — with Russia — and with the other nations now fighting Hitler. This constitutes the Nazi propaganda. Another mark of Nazi propaganda is the preachment that the people do not have the capacity to rule themselves. Each of these publications has promoted the idea that "Hitler is right" — that rule by an "elite" class is the only workable political program. It is by the common use of these Nazi propaganda themes and the constant interchange of material between these publications that the "network" was created which made the total of a number of otherwise insignificant "small-fry" a formidable political weapon against freedom. Lazlo Fodor's Chart on another page of the BULLETIN shows the details of this sinister conspiracy. ("The White Knight" was issued by Deatherage; "Publicity", by Garner. Other items are self identified.)

Spread By the Alleged Conspirators

World Service Was Hitler's Propaganda Source for U.S. Subversive Publications

h and pro-Communist policy? Us mpelled to believe he will. We as to because we are acquainted will e, which we reproduce below ished in 1936 by the Ar

at it is derived fro namefty the Carn

lruth, America is unalterably ng its man power and endang tomes for the benefit of fight against Communism.

rinnent are fact that systematic work and search after the truth, eanof small contribution as their means may permit. This will contributor may rest assured that every farthing, and every the world, who recognize the decide to send us some such tension of our work. Every c

1. Roosevelt Rules America.

What is Happening in Canada?

Attention! Read

bimonthly bulletin issued eight languages

World Service Vordens Tien

Welt-Dianst

Mundial

defendants Deatherage, True, Winrod and Edmondson in the underlined passage above; then turn to p. 7 of this issue, and see how World Service is connected with these men by the lines in Lazlo Fodor' chart of the world-wide Nazi conspiracy

Here appeared the original versions of articles later found in publications of Deatherage, True, Winrod, Edmondson, Pelley, Sanctuary, Elmhurst and many of the other defendants indicted in this sedition conspiracy case. Note several references to the

by the Above is part of one issue of the German formightly propaganda news service issued for the special use of Nazi collaborators all over the world. World Service releases were being written at this time in eight languages. Still others were later added.

Legal Issues Are Vital to 'The American Way

Freedom of Speech Gives No Right To Conspire Against Form of State That Alone Assures Such Liberty

Violent Utterances Not Necessarily Seditious; Pelley, Hartzel and Other Cases Discussed in Relation to Washington Trial

> By Julius L. Goldstein (General Counsel, Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League)

While the sedition trial in Washington is a "circus" to some, to most of us it is an important part of our fight against Hitler's psychological war on America. Reports from Washington indicate confusion, not only in the trial itself, but also in the minds of many people unversed in legal technicalities. Yes, we know these defendants are indicted as "bad men," but just !

what is the charge against them? We are reasonably sure the defen-dants were trying to create ill-will and hostility between races, classes and creeds and to excite hatred of the Government and its administra-tion of the laws. We know they carried on a war of words, intended that but we also know that from the beginning of our Republic, we have respected the right of our citizens to announce their views. We have martyred our strong fighters for civil liberty for their efforts to throw off the yoke of tyranny or to reform gross abuses of civil or political liberty. But even "the most stringent protection of free

Yet, there are legal differences among the three separate legal con-cepts, free speech, sedition and treason, which are difficult for the layman to understand.

Treason usually aims at the direct subversion of the Constitution through open words and overt attack. Sedition is the more in-sidious provocation of a mental attitude which will engender a course of action ultimately leading to the same result. A seditious conspiracy occurs if several people conspire to destroy the Govern-ment of the United States by in-viting attack upon its integrity, and an "overt act" is not an essential ingredient of sedition, as it is of treason. The 29 defendants in the sedition case are accused of conspiring not only among them-selves, but also with a foreign government, to bring about the destruction of the United States Government, by promoting feel-ings of hostility among races and creeds and hatred of the Government and its laws.

There are many State and federal laws dealing with sedition and insurrection, but the only laws which apply in the sedition case now being tried in Washington are found in the wartime Sedition Act, which says that:

"Whoever, when the United States is at war, shall wilfully make or convey false reports or false statements with intent to interfere with the operation or success of the military or naval forces of the United States, or to promote the success of its enemies and whoever, when the United States is at war shall wilfully cause or attempt to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny or refusal of duty in the military or naval forces of the United States or shall wilfully obstruct the recruiting or enlist-ment service of the United States to the injury to the service of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than 20 years or both (Section 3)."

Another section of the law provides that if two or more per-sons conspire to violate the law to which we have just referred, and one or more of such persons does anything to carry out the obto divide Americans by stirring up does anything to carry out the ob-trouble among them. We know all ject of the conspiracy, all may be punished to the same

Hartzel Case Cited

On June 12, 1944, while the sedition cases were actively being prosecuted, the United States Supreme Court decided, in the cas of Elmer Hartzel, who had been convicted of sedition, that "vicious most stringent protection of free and unreasoning attacks on one of speech would not protect a man in our military allies, frequent apfalsely shouting Fire' in a theatre peals to false and sinister racial and causing a panic." This was theories and gross libels of the how Mr. Justice Holmes resolved the same question when it arose during the last war, under the Sedition Law of 1917. enunciated by a citizen is not enough, by itself, to warrant a finding of criminal intent. The majority held that unless there is sufficient evidence on which a jury could find beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused intended to bring about the specific conse-quences prohibited by the Act, an American citizen has the right to discuss these matters either by temperate reasoning or by im-moderate and vicious invective without running afoul of the Espionage Act.

From this and other decisions we may say that the real test of what is seditious appears to be whether the acts which are being weighed can be reasonably said to produce results which are a clear and present danger to our security and present danger to our security in time of war.

The most effective weapon in Hitler's armory has not been the product of military technology, but his use of psychology in creating total war; total in the sense that it has succeeded in invading and ethnicis the wird hard. and stunning the mind by an over-whelming cascade of false words designed to make us doubt our friends, our neighbors, our leaders, and the efficiency of our political system.

Propaganda Peril

This offensive psychology was really a war of words to break down our morale and soften us up for the military invasion, which was to follow. This was recognized by the four dissenting judges in Hartzel's case for they underwords their dissent by saving wrote their dissent by saying that: "papers or speeches may contain incitements for the military to insubordination or to mutiny without a specific call on the Armed Forces so to act. If circulated for the purpose of undermining mili-tary discipline, scurrilous articles, attacking an ally, a minority of our citizens and the President,

Bought That EXTRA War Bond Yet?

may contain without words of solicitation, indications of purpose sufficient, if accepted as true, from which to draw an intent to accomplish the unlawful results."

But the defendants in the sedicase at this writing have immediately decided to make political capital of Hartzel's victory. They offer the argument that they have done no more than Elmer Hartzel and if Elmer Hartzel had not done enough to warrant even submitting his case to the jury, then the Court also should dismiss their case One may reasonably prophesy this event will not come to pass.

Study Pelley Ruling

For a better understanding of the decision in the Hartzel case as was Hartzel. The gist of their indictments was that they had made "false statements with intent to interfere with the operation or success of the military or naval forces of the United States or to promote the success of its enemies and obstruct the efficient functions of the military services by seeking to disaffect its mem-

The Government showed that The Galilean, first issued in the fall of 1941, had a subscription list of from 1,200 to 1,500, and that from 3,500 to 5,000 copies were issued and distributed throughout the United States. Another document, We Fight for This Republic Only was a reprint of an article which had appeared in The Galilean, and circulated to the extent of about 5,000 to 6,000 copies to many places in the United States. The Government proved the statements in these documents were false, but that it was not easy to refute all of them. Most statements were gen-eralities carrying insidious con-notations such as "You can travel in these Mobilizing Moments, and scarcely hear a word of condemn-ation of the Nipponese, Germans or Italians," and "No realist in his senses would contend there is unity in this country for the war's prosecution," and "We are bank-

To prove the existence of evil intent, the Government showed Pelley had been the organizer of a nation-wide Silver Shirt organization of definite pro-Axis inclination. The Government proved by analysis of Pelley's works that they were almost identical with the fourteen major themes of German propaganda

Propaganda Canon

It is valuable for every informed American to memorize the fourteen recognizable marks of Nazi propaganda as they were determined and defined by the Government's expert witness, Dr. Lasswell, and admitted as a canon in the Pelley case. These fourteen major theme of Nazi propaganda are

- 1. Statements that the United - States is internally corrupt.

 2. The foreign policy of the United States is morally unjustifiable.
- 3. The President is repre-hensible.
 4. The British Government is internally corrupt. The foreign policy of Great - Britain is morally un-justifiable.
- Winston Churchill is re-prehensible.

NAZI LOVE LETTER

Above is the letter which the Nazi agents representing 22 countries signed at Erfurt during the World Service "press" and sent to their dear American "freund" Robert Edmo as now, all messed up with the law. Note signature of one of Edmondson's co-defendants. Ernest Elmhurst.

- 7. The Nazi Government is
- 7. The Nazi Government is just and virtuous, 8. The foreign policy of Japan is morally justifiable. 9. Nazi Germany is powerful and has the support of
- Europe.
- 10. Japan is powerful.

 11. The United States is weak. 12. Great Britain is weak-the
- Empire is falling apart.

 13. The United Nations are disunited.

 14. The United States is menac-
- ed by Communists, Jews and plutocrats.

Just as Hartzel claimed that he as an American citizen, had the right to do what he did, Pelley also claimed that the Government did not prove any criminal intent on his part, but the United States Circuit Court of Appeals said:

"It is hardly conceivable that a writer or speaker would have written such propaganda at a time when his country was at war, save as he entertained the hope of weakening the patriotic resolve of his fellow citizens in resolve of his fellow citizens in their assistance to their coun-try's cause. No loyal citizen in time of war forecasts and assumes doom and defeat and futility of his country's fight when his fellow citizens are battling in a war for their coun-try's existence, except with an intent to retard their patriotic ardor in a cause approved by the Congress and the citizenry of the nation. So the jury evident-ly believed, and so spoke through their verdict."

Like Hartzel, Pelley claimed here was no allegation in the indictment of proof of actual harm to the war effort, and the mere proof that some members of the military forces were in possession of copies of the literature dis-tributed was not sufficient, but the Court pointed out that the law contains no such requirement. The mere i n t e n t to interfere is enough. It is enough to sustain a conviction even when the attempt was not successful, and even though it is almost impossible, under many conditions, to prove whether such acts are or are not successful.

'Danger' Is Measure

Hartzel had claimed in the Cir-cuit Court that the proof failed to present a jury question, but that Court said the location of a boundary line between that which is privileged and that which is forbidden "is very difficult to determine." Generally, it must be found from the character of the utterance in connection with the time, place and manner of its making. As was said in the Schenck case (249 U. S. 52), "The question in every case is whether the words used are used in such circumstances and are of such a nature as to create a clear and present danger that they will bring about the sub-stantive evils that Congress has a right to prevent. When a nation is at war many things that might be hindrance to its effort that their utterance will not be endured so long as men fight and that no Court could regard them as protected by any Constitutional right." The same court went on to

"It is inconceivable that his (Hartzel's) defamatory state-ments concerning the President, (Hartzers) deramatory state-ments concerning the President, the British or the Jews, could have created any sentiment against war or have been any aid in uniting the white against the yellow races. It is equally inconceivable that any purpose was sought to be achieved consistent with the welfare of the country. On the other hand, it is entirely reasonable to believe

(Continued on page 15)

Would Nazify U

(Continued from page 5)

violating the civil rights of Negroes and of a seditious conspiracy to hinder the execution of a federal

His seditious activities extended this sentious activities extended to collaboration with many of the other defendants in this trial—furnishing them with his own material for rs-distribution by them, and receiving their own them, and receiving their own prepaganda for dissemination through his own subversive groups. Following Pelley's first indictment for sedition, Sage established and undertook to raise a Wm. Dudley Pelley Defense Fund. In organizing the National Workers League he worked with Garland L. Alderman, another co-defendant and Axis propagandist. His League was allied with the Mantle Club of Detroit and the Industrial Legion of America. As early as 1938 Sage's activities had come to the favorable attention of the editors of the Bund's Deutscher Weckruf, which reported his address to Detroit's Nazi-dominated German American Day celebration in August of that year.

James B. True

James B. True of Arlington, Va. is the publisher of "Industrial Con-trol Reports," which he distributes from Washington. He was the in-

Kike Killer," re-ceiving Pat. No. Indu strial Control Reports were listed by the Nazis as among American publications m o s t helpful to the Nazi cause. He constantly exchanged information with W. D. Pelley, Gerald Winrod, constantly exchanged intormation with W. D. Pelley, Gerald Winrod, George Deatherage and various other co-defendants in the present trial. He wrote in one of his "Reports": "All honest and informed Americans are with the German-American Bund heart and soul in their education program." He was the first to use the phrase "America First" as a disguise for isolationist or outright pro-Nazi propaganda, and he incorporated a society under that name in 1984, "for the protection of the Constitution, American industry and individual enterprise." He was indicted for sedition July 23, 1942, January 4, 1943 and January 3, 1944. He is represented by Attorney J. Austin Latimer. On April 17th, he entered a plea of not guilty and promptly tried to secure subpeenas he entered a plea of not guilty and promptly tried to secure subpoenas for Attorney General Biddle, J. Ed-gar Hoover, Cordell Hull, Sec'y of the Treasury Morgenthau, Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, former Attorney General Robert H. Jackson and Martin Dies, appar-antly in the love of confusing the H. Jackson and Martin Dies, apparently in the hope of confusing the public by trying to inject a political aspect into the trial. He was a constant user of the material sent to the United States by the Nazi propaganda agency, "World Service" which in return commended his valiant endeavors here. On April 26th, he challenged a prospective juror, Sol Kadson, on the ground that since he was Jewish, he could not fairly act as a the ground that since he was 3ewish, he could not fairly act as a juror in this trial. On the 27th of April, he became fil and due to his advanced age, variously reported as between 66 and 79, it was feared the eilmess might delay the entire proceedings. He recovered however, and was in court when ed however and was in court when the trial opened on May 18th. In 1936, following the return of Gerald Winrod from a trip to Germany, he consulted with him in Washington. He was a close collaborator with Joseph McWilliams, also a co-defendant in this trial.

> Rought That EXTRA War Bond Yet?

timers"-that is. t h o s e of the defendants in this trial who were indicted July 23, 1942, January 4, 1943 and again January 3, 1944. He has worked closely with Wil-liam Dudley Pel-ley, whom he once represented as an attorney, and with Robert Edward Edmond son, Henry Curtiss and Col. Eugene Sanctuary. He took the titled pseudonym in 1926 when the original holder of the name died, claiming he had become the real Count's adopted son. The original was hardly less fascist than his successor, being the author of a successor, being the author of a violent anti-Semitic document. The Secret World Government. Broenstrupp's other aliases include "Duke of St. Saba," "Col. Bennett" and "J. G. Francis." He drew $87.50 a month from the WPA which he characterized as a "Mongol Jawish worlder." He said he was a "wish characterized as a "Mongol Jewish project." He said he was a "sol-dier fighting under Maj. Gen. George Van Horne Moseley." Broenstrupp deserted his wife, Grace, in 1941. Through his at-torney, Ira C. Koehne, he challenged prospective juror Sol Kadson on the ground that since Kadson was Jewish he could not fairly try this case.

Frank K. Ferenz

Now serving a sentence after conviction of violating the Cali-fornia anti-sedition laws, Franz K. Ferenz has been released to stand his trial in Washington under his indictment of January 3, 1944. He was also under Federal indictment January 4, 1943, his state indictment having been made October 5, 1948. He was the manager of a German bookstore at 1110 West 24th Street, Los An-street, Los Angeles, and wrote letters to Nazi officials in Germany telling of his propaganda wofk for Hitler in this country and asking for financial help, which the Government alleges he received. With Ellis O. Jones and Robert Noble, his co-dependent in this trial his co-defendants in this trial, he made some attempts to discourage recruiting in 1942.

George Deatherage

George Deatherage might well be called the "dean" of the defendants. He is one of the "elders" of the congregation, having been an active hate disseminator as carly as 1936. A resident of St. Albans, W. Va., he was the organizer of the Kniehts of the Knights of the White Camelia which spent a which spent a large part of 1939 in a bitter attack on Rep. Martin Dies. Called be-fore that Congressman's

Special Commitanything about his society, on the ground that he was bound not to do so "by a secret oath." The "Knights" published The White Knight which exchanged material with the Nazi propaganda "World Service". At the official Nazi pro-paganda conference at Erfurt, Ger-many, in 1938, Deatherage, not

Howard V. Broenstrupp
Count Cherep-Spiridovich
Howard Victor Broenstrupp, former Indiana patent lawyer who has for years posed as "tt.-Gen.
Count Victor Cherep-Spiridovich," is prominent among the "threetimers"—that is. plan, and wrote: "We are delaying further reorganization in the hope that we can get Gen. Geo. Van Horn Moseley, of Atlanta, recently retired, to head up a National Christian organization that we can all back." In 1940 he got a job in federal construction at Hampton Roads, and later as an engineer in an Army ordnance plant in W. an Army ordnance plant in W. Va., but public clamor ousted him from both. He was Joe McWilliams' "Destiny Party" candidate for Congress in W. Va. He was indicted Jan. 4, 1943 and January 3, 1944. Since the trial began he has issued a 70 page booklet "Jews and Gentiles in Court," inspiring several other defendants to cry "Vishinsk" at Special Prosecutor 'Vishinsky" at Special Prosecutor O. John Rogge from time to time, a reference made in his booklet to the "Moscow trial" tactics in this case In this booklet Deatherage. with greater courage than some of his co-defendants, reaffirms his belief that America should adopt a Fascist type of government. It is interesting to note that in the same leaflet, when he attempts to ex-plain how he and his colleagues come to be indicted, Deatherage "blames" the Anti-Nazi League for starting his troubles.

Deatherage wrote in his News Bulletin of the American Nationalist Confederation April 16, 1938:

It is gratifying to note that immediate steps are being taken to form a union of fascists within the continent of North and South America. It is a step need-eded and we, the American Na-tionalist Confederation pledge it our whole hearted support. Fas-cism has been long delayed in the United States, and we can learn much from our brothers in neighboring nations

Gerald B. Winrod

Gerald B. Winrod, a right-wins "Fundamentalist" Kansas pseacher, for years used the mask of religion to hide his subversive dissemination Of Hitler propaganda. Strictly anti-Catholic before 1933, he changed to the Axis line after Hitler came to power, becoming rabidly anti-Semitic after his visit to many in 1935. In making public the list of his con-tributors, Dec. 24, 1936, he W. J. Can listed

W. J. Cameron, Henry Ford's "front," as "a large donator." He published The Revealer, which devoted one issue to tracing Roose-velt's fictitious "Jewish ancestry," wert's neutrous Jewis allesstry, a propaganda device originated by Winrod's co-defendant Edmundson, for which both men received credit in the German "World Service." (See documentary illustration else-where in this issue of the Anti-Nazi Bulletin). He ran the Capital News and Feature Service in 1935, and, as Prosecutor Rogge pointed out in his opening address, studied Nazi techniques in Germany. His wife divorced him in 1940 testifying wife divorced him in 1940 testifying that he taught his children: "Hit-ler is right." He told his wife he was to be the "nominal" head of th ecountry when the Nazi revolu-tion came. His father was a saloonkeeper who became a preacher after Carrie Nation smashed his saloon in her famous Kansas crusade. Senator Robert R. Reynolds, head of the new "Nationalist Party," inserted Winrod's "Keep "Keep America Out Of War" in the Con-

Do Your Friends Get 'The Bulletin'

HITLER'S (JAMES) TRUE LOVE

Industrial Control Reports

THE JAMES TRUE ASSOCIATES
325 MILLS BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Number 261

Suppressing War Alarms

Monday, Adolph Hitler's speech was a shocking disappointment to all now here and their masters. Propaganda lines had been laid to trick the Fushers thrafe of angry retoris and threaty, and their support harmican war hysteric threaty of the support harmican war hysteric threaty and the support harmican war hysteric threaty and for hysteric threaty and for hysteric threaty and for hysteric translation direct from Germany. As it was, the reaction and for hysteric translation direct from Germany. As it was, the reaction in the support of the su

Domes Dome

The above excerpt from one of James True's INDUSTRIAL COI TROL REPORTS shows how this man devoted his best efforts to r cruiting friends for Nazism in America, long before Pearl Harbor. his "Report" No. 210, April 23, 1938, under the heading "Our 'Mus Reading List", True urged his readers to buy and read Hitler's Me Kampf. From it, he said, "You will gain an impression of the geni of Hitler that gives the lie to the libelous propaganda published I our press". "The principal ideas expressed by Hitler", True continue "are concerned with honesty, justice, patriotism and devotion to ti interests of his people". A year later, in "Report" 271 (June 24, 1938) True declared: "Japan is fighting directly for law and order. . . as indirectly for Christian civilization." In 1938 he supported Gerald Wi rod, now his co-defendant, in the sedition conspiracy case, in an isol tionist, anti-semitic and anti-Catholic campaign as a candidate for the Republican Senatorial nomination in Kansas.

gressional Record, July 6, 1939. The Post Office in 1935 began a probe of his magazine The Defender in connection with lottery regulations, in a "quiz" contest in which one of the questions asked was, "Why is. Winrod not a Nazi?". He wrote:

"Nazism and fascism are patriotic and nationalistic."

Winred has worked in the very Winrod has worked in the very closest relationship to many of the other defendants, in ways which give clear proof of the conspira-torial nature of this entire propa-ganda effort. Thus, when he sought the Republican nomination for the United States Senate in Kansas in 1938, James True at once responded with aid; while years later, Winrod with aid; while years later, Winrod was one of the first to congratulate the notorious Edward James Smythe upon the latter's release from prison. Winrod frequently offered publications of Elizabeth Dilling (especially, The Octopus) and Col. Sanctuary (e.g., The Talmud Unmasked) as premiums to contributors or subscribers to The Defender, which once is supposed to have had a circulation of year 125.000. From some source, he over 125,000. From some source, he even secured funds for a Spanish even secured runus for a Spanish edition, El Defensor Hispano, and announced himself as editor of The Greek Defender and The Liberian Defender. For all these activities he was well recognized in Germany, and "World Service" on wore than one occasion made on more than one occasion made favorable note of his propaganda endeavors. The dangerous effec-tiveness of his work is indicated tiveness of ins work is campaign for the Senate he actually secured 54,000 votes, a very large number in a four-way Kansas primary. (See more details elsewhere in this issue, in article "Religion Used to Camouflage Sedition").

NEGRO PRESS ASKS BETTER FOREIGN AFFAIRS SERVICE

A keener interest in foreign affairs by American Negroes and the expansion of news facilities to Catholicism to his program of ar make this possible were advocated racism. He was once arrested his anti-semitic publications, at the fifth annual convention of the Negro Newspaper Publishers Association held recently in Har

Robert E. Edmondson

Robert Edmondson, head of t Economic Research Service, while used World Service material, al served other Nazi agencies as a American correspondent. For years before Pearl Harbor Edice to the Nazis was so well recognized by the Reich that a World Service conference at Er-furt sent him a letter (elsewhere reproduced in this issue of the Bul-letin) signed by Nazi leaders in 22 countries. Edmundson was unal to attend the Erfurt conference he was then a defendant in the fi of many attempts to stop his t American activities. He was close tied in with the subversive Amican Cavalcade; was a writer i Gerald Winrod's Revealer and T Defender; published an Americ edition of Martin Luther and t Jews by Martin Sasse of Eisenach the Nazi conformist persecutor Pastor Niemoeller. He was also t Pastor Niemoeller. He was also t publisher of American Vigilar Bulletins which used World See ice releses. In 1939 he moved fr. New York to Stoddardsville, Pa. shipped his propaganda to Gmany of German ships and receiv material the same way. He beg his propaganda with James Trand W. D. Pelley the year Hit come to power. He prepared t Roosevelt Jewish Ancestry Chfor dissemination among perse already inflamed against the Je already inflamed against the Je and made a similar attempt provide Frances Perkins with Jewish ancestry, for the same p pose. This material was then us by the Germans in more than dozen languages, which propagar was exposed in the Bulletin ab a year ago. When President Roo vent sent Myron Taylor as personal representative to Vatican Edmondson added at "in the interest of free speech" charges were dismissed

(Continued on page 14)

Joe "McNazi" Plotting Coughlin 'Come-Back'

Glamour Boy of Sedition Trial Still Dreams of Day When 'Streets Will Run With Blood' of His Machine-Gun Victims

Joe "McNazi" McWilliams is now on trial for sedition in Washington. You will find his history — and his part in the trial — in other columns of this issue of the BULLETIN. But that the League's efforts will be needed long after the Court disposes of the Deague's errors will be necessary and the Court disposes of the few subversives represented in the trial is evident from the information that Joe "McNazi" is plan-

With the Reverend Charles E. Coughlin the Anti-Nazi League has no concern whatever. With Charlie Coughlin the anti-semite, the disseminator of race hatred and political war on democracy the League has had and must have much to do. It is Charlie Coughlin who is reported to have told McWilliams in a recent secret conference that "the cards are stacked against the government in the sedition 'trial" and the "defendants will all come out all right."

Waits "His Day"

The alleged secret conference, McWilliams is said to have told a reporter, was held while he was reporter, was held while he was permitted a week-end liberty during a court recess. Loosening his tongue—a favorite exercise with the Yorkville pal of Bundesfushrer Fritz Kuhn—"McNazi" is said to have declared that his alliance with Charlie Coughlin will really start exceeds of immoves. a crusade of immense proportions. "Our day," he said, "will come."

The League has for years exposed the recurrent activities of the Christian Front and the archive promoters — Coughlin—Goodwin—McNazi" McWilliams—Fritz Kuhn and other Bundists—Edward James Smythe and his friends — many of those now on trial for sedition and some not yet on trial for sedition and some not yet on trial for sedition. and some not yet on trial. It was and some not yet on that. It was the first to expose the infiltration of the New York Police Department by the Christian Front—and only this year to point out that certain members known to have affiliated themselves with this sub-marking and javalitingary move-tion that Joe "McNazi" is plan-ning to kiss and make up with the Royal Oak Hateler — Char-lie Coughlin AS SOON AS THE WAR IS OVER. With the Reverend Charles E. lican. Nothing is more natural then, than to find Joe "McNazi" Mc Williams, blaring into the willing ears of a reporter the fact that Chicago—the home of the Tribune and of the notorious American Vigilante Association headed by the vigiante Association neaded by the anti-Semite Harry Jung, whose offices are of course in the Tribune Tower—is to be the scene of this proporsed revival of hate, lying and subversion.

New Campaign Needed

Joe "McNazi" is not the only one of the defendants who hopes for, plans for and works for a revival of the Nazi program for this coun-try. At least five of the current defendants are laying plans for the continuance of their organizations and their publications by other persons, under other titles, in other places, even in the event of their certain conviction.

There are dozens of "editors" and propagandists now at large some under indictment-others not some under indictment—others not even indicted—who are part and parcel of the conspiracy alleged in the present trial against the twenty-8ix remaining of the thirty original defendants. It is with the present and future activities of these fascists, native and alien, that the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League proposes to de-vote an increasingly active cam-paign.

Fascism Is Target

Whether these fascists happen to be professional clergymen, pub-lishers, industrialists or just plain affiliated themselves with this subversive and revolutionary movement still occupy trusted positions in the City's police force.

The League has pointed out the paign is NOT against professional alargumen in their true capacity as ministers. It is not against freedom of critical or even impassioned and distorted speech or publication that the campaign is directed. It is not mere industrial higness against mere industrial bigness that the fight must be waged. It is against fascism—and fascist individuals — NO MATTER WHO THEY ARE OF WHERE THEY MAY FUNCTION. Freedom and fascism are not mere "incompatibles." They are enemies fatal to each other. to each other.

To the extent that Royal Oak takes on the character of Berlinand to the extent that the Tribune Tower apes Berchtesgaden the battle against them must continue speech "Is America the Jews Waterloo?" which George Deather-Waterloo?" which George Deather-age wrote and sent, by Ernest Elmhurst, to the World Service conference in Erfurt. He cited Franz Ferenz's aid to Nazi propa-ganda here, and he told how the Franz Ferenz's aid to Nazi propa-ganda here, and he told how the Nazis, in Germany, used Edmond-son's and Winrod's "Jewish Ances-try of Roosevelt" chart to prove that America is ripe for Nazism. Joe McWilliams, whom the League has for years characterized as Joe "McNazi," worked hand-in-hand with Bund leaders, Mr. Rogge said, sharing platforms with Fyige said, sharing platforms with Fritz Kuhn, and Gerhard W. Kunze, Kuhn's successor, and frankly and publicly proclaimed his allegiance to Hitler.

Lawrence Dennis, top-flight poli-tical "philosopher," was flattered by Rogge who compared him to Hitler's Alfred Rosenberg, and the Prosecutor declared Dennis had constant contacts with the highest Nazi officials both in Germany and the United States.

Use 'Patriotic' Titles

Anticipating that defense counsel Anticipating that defense counsel would make every possible use of the "patriot" motif in behalf of their clients, Rogge pointed out that the most nefarious and dangerous of these Nazi front organizations in the United States organizations in the United States bore the most flamboyantly patriotic titles, or sentimental names—"Christian Patriots"—"We the Mothers"—"American Patriots" are a few of the sort of titles to which Rogge referred—and the Prosecutor hammered home that "the object which they were to accomplish was to destroy our form of government with the aid of the armed forces and set up a fascist form of government here."

Admitting that many points of conflict and jealousy existed be-tween various of the defendants, Rogge showed that this in no wise prevented the net-work of in-terlacing co-operation which com-prised the alleged conspiracy, and declared that a major reason for the failure of these defendants to set up a single unified organiza-tion was their fear that it would be unwise until they had a greater public support.

It is interesting to note that Hitler, Goebbels, and other Nazi Hitler, Gosbbels, and other Nazi officials are named as co-conspirators with the twenty-nine defendants now on trial. As a result, Henry Klein, who is the attorney representing Col. Eugene Sanctuary, moved in the early stages of the trial, before Rogge's comming address, that the proceedstages of the trial, before Rogge's opening address, that the proceedings be put over until after the war, when these other "co-conspirators" could be hailed into court along with the accused. Mr. Klein did not make clear how he expected this could then be accomplished, and, if he had any plan in mind, it would have been merely wishful-thinking, for Justice Eicher, with a patience which when the trial is over, will merit special commendation, over-ruled the motion. This aspect of the case. YAP FROM THE JAP!

Frank Sullivan, PM's poet laureate, comes up with the most amusing parody of the "war years!" Altogether now, folks, to the tune of On the Road to Mandalay.

In the old, Sun-sired Mikado, as

In the old, Sun-sired Mikado, as he squints up at the sky, There's a queer, uneasy feeling, like a jumping butterfly; For a hum is in the heavens and the warning sirens wail:

Get you back, you Super-Bombers! Get you back to whence you haii!"

O'er the road to To-ky-o. Where the iron foundries glow, There's a bunch of Arnold's airmen up there, rarin' to let go; Oh, we war lords better blow-ow Off the road to To-ky-o, As the Twenty-niners thunder out of China cross the Eau! Honshu, ship me anywheres

but here,
For that last blockbuster busted just a little mite too near;
I don't like the distant droning of the Yanks' new-fangled planes; It gives me the most annoying,

-mi-ka-do-is-tic pains.

Send them back toward Mandalay-Tell 'em we don't want to play! Something warns me that no good can come to Nippon if they stay; I don't crave to have them spre-ead

Two-ton bombs upon my head— On December 7, '41, we should have stood in bed!

however, was emphasized when Rogge depicting the conspiracy, said:

Here is Pretty Boy Joe "McNazi" McWilliams shown happily in he company of his dear friend and political boss Fritz Kuhn, form head of the German-American Bund, Hitler's promotion machine in the United States, which fought to hamstring all defense and preparation against Hitler's planned onslaught against the United States.

McWilliams, now on trial for sedition, promises his dupes that after the war they will start goose-stepping all over again.

"According to the conspirator Goebbels, his job was to arouse the masses to volcanic passion, to organize anger, to set the masses in motion, to organize hatred and despair with ice-cold calculation."

Rogge said Joe (McNazi) Mc-Williams had declared that Hitler had made hate work in Germany and that he, McWilliams, was go-ing to make it a powerful force this country.

in this country.

Hammering at the pseudopatriotism of the conspirators, Rogge indicated the Government's revidence will show that the Bund for years called its paper The Free American; that Elizabeth Dilling called her group "Patriotic Research Bureau"; that glamourboy McWilliams, who even during the trial is lightly comancing with certain personable young ladies, called his hate-mongers
'The Christian Mobilizers'; that ladies, called his hate-mongers "The Christian Mobilizers"; that Lois Washburn and Frank Clark called their group "National Liberty Party," and Pelley blasphemously titled his smear-sheat "The Galileon" lean.

lean."

The Prosecutor concluded his opening address with the assurance that the Government would prove that the defendants on trial were guilty of a part in the world-conspiracy to destroy democracy, and that they had made specific and individual efforts to destroy the confidence of potential armed forces of this country in the workshiltity of democracy and in workability of democracy and in the liberty which is inherent in the American way of life.

PROSECUTOR TO PROVE NAZI AGENTS BACKED DEFENDANTS

(Continued from page 3) that the propaganda campaign conducted by the defendants was lifted from the Nazi program of using anti-semitism, racism, the Bolshevik bogey, and assault on the political integrity of the gov-ernments and especially the poli-tical leaders of the United Na-tions. He said:

"The Nazi conspirators and defendants considered antithe defendants considered anti-Semitic propaganda in all coun-tries an almost indispensible part in the world-wide Nazi move-ment. By attacking the Jews these Nazis and the defendants hoped to destroy the feeling for law and order in the whole world."

How will the government link the defendants in this conspiracy? Rogge gave the jury an idea. He not only insisted that there was more than mere parallelism between the Nazi program and that engaged in by those now on trial, but he pointed out that Gerald Winrod, Elizabeth Dilling, Law-rence Dennis and Ernest F. Elmrence Dennis and Ernest r. Elm-hurst "went to Germany to learn at first hand how the Nazis came to power there." He pointed to George Sylvester Viereck's long years of service to the German Reich—under the Kaiser—later to the Prussian overlords who subtly maintained "German American" maintained "German American" societies, clubs, "vereins" and "turnhalles" in this country—and now to Hitler, whose cause Viereck had espoused even in 1932, before had espoused even in 1932, before Hitler came to power. He made mention of the manner in which the defendants entered into the ramifications of the German-Amer-ican Bund, the German ambas-sadorial and consular network, and the use of "World Service", the propaganda mill maintained by Germany for English-language publications and releases. David Baxter, Rogge said, was

David Baxter, Rogge said, was paid by Fritz Weidemann, German Consul in San Francisco—and worked in collaboration with Edward James Smythe, William Dudley Pelley, Eugene Sanctuary and Frank W. Clark. He asserted that Robert E. Edmondson sent his own propaganda to Germany on German ships and received Nazi propaganda for distribution here, free of charge, in return. He cited the rousing welcome given the

> Bought That EXTRA War Bond Yet?

SHELDON URGES UNITED STATES WAR ON FINNISH NAZI STATE

has already become," declared Prof. has aiready become," declared Prof. James H. Sheldon. Administrative Chairman of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, addressing the 1944 Conference of the League's Newark, New Jersey affiliates, nt the Essex House Hotel, in Newark.

Prof. Sheldon said in part:
"Almost three years ago George Gordon Batte, an outstanding American lawyer long prominent as an anti-Nazi leader, resigned from one of the several so-called Finnish 'relief' organizations, writing me:

ing me:
'The destruction of Hitler is the prerequisite of the survival of civilization. I am for anyone who fights Hitler and against anyone who helps him. There-fore, with reluctance, I have resigned from For Finland,

"America should make a formal declaration that a state of war exists between this country and Finland has been worth a great land, before the course of events makes our present fence-sitting her usefulness as a weapon for position more ridiculous than it ican people. Americans have been taught that Finiand pays her debts. Actually, Finland had no war debts to the United States, but only a small debt incurred considerably after the first World War was over, through the extension of commer-cial credits to her. Payment of these debts was no more an act of special virtue than my monthly rental payments to my landlord.

"All America applauds Secretary Hull's act in sending the Finnish Minister Procope home.

"America should now follow up her belated step of wisdom by serving notice on the Finnish government that allies of Hitler are not to be excused merely because they come to us with smiling voices or annual payments of gold. The sensi-ble step is, therefore, a formal declaration that a state of war excommendation, over-ruled the notion. This aspect of the case, Do Your Friends Get 'The Bulletin' with the other allies of Hitler."

Defendants' Lives Given Up To Nazi Causes

Frank W. Clark

blood - thirstiest of the defendants in this case is Frank W. Clark, alias W. F. Gibson, of Tacoma, Washington. It is true Tacoma, Washington. 10 10 10 that other defendants talked of pogroms and the like but with neither the relish nor frequency of was associated with General Mose-ley, Joseph P. Kamp, Carl H. Mote, Defendant Clark, co-organizer with Lois de LaFayette Washburn of basic propaganda-publications used by the Nazis in all countries. He ex-Congressman Thorkelson, and a host of other anti-democratic pro pagandists, both in this country and in England. Like many of th defendants he exploited a quasi-religious background, being Presi-dent of the 146th Street Mission, at 351 East 146th Street, New York City, (See article on "Religion as a Camouflage for Sedition" else-where in this issue.)

Garland L. Alderman Garland L. Alderman, of Pontiac

Mich., is Secretary of the National Workers' League. This organiza-

workers' League. This organiza-tion, founded on remnants of the old, disbanded Michigan terrorist organization, the "Black Legion," is headed by Parker Sage, former Nazi agent, who was expelled from the United Automobile Workers' Union as a labor spy. It had a close tha with the noticious, Mantle Club tie with the notorious Mantle Club and the Industrial Legion of America. Alderman was indicted in Detroit in 1940 in connection with the Sojourner Truth Housing Pro

tion undoubtedly was one of the factors to be blamed for the dis-factors to be blamed for the dis-graceful Detroit race riots of 1943, and his resonsibility in that con-nection was then publicly exposed by the Anti-Nazi League. He was indicted for sedition July 23, 1942 and on Jan. 4, 1943, and again on January 3, 1944. The National Workers' League published the Na-

George Deatherage, a co-defendant in the present trial. Alderman was an associate of Max Stephan, known Nazi and America Firster, who was sentenced to die for his part in aiding the escape of a Nazi flier from a Canadian prison camp.

Alderman was graduated from Ohio State University with a B. S.

degree in 1936, and was a student in Charles Coughlin's Social Justice in Charles Coughin's Social Justice courses. He was chairman of the Pontiac "America First" group. The N. W. L. sold the infamous forgery, The Protocols of Zion to swell its funds.

In a letter to The American Mer

the National Liberty Party. Clark's idea of liberty is quoted by John Roy Carlson in Under Cover: "When the day comes to settle the score and I'm given a reward for my patriotism I want to be made chief executioner of those guys who are now sticking up for Democracy." This former Pelley lieutenant was also commander in-chief of the League of War Veterans Guardsmen composed of hopeful commandos like himself. He was publisher of the Yankee Freeman and of the Yankee Minuteman, both of which used World Service propaganda releas-es. He wrote Lois Washburn, a co-defendant, in 1937 that "guns, ultimately, must be our weapons," and at a Boise convention he spoke darkly of many of his henchmen arming themselves with knives "preferring the more s i lent methods." He worked with Edward James Smythe, Deatherage, David Baxter and other of the defendants ject race riots in which an armed mob prevented Negro tenants from moving in, and dozens of persons were injured. His anti-Negro agitafor the greater glory of the Ameri-

Eugene Sanctuary

Sanctuary is a retired Reserve Officer who became ineligible for active duty in 1940.

For many years a leader in Ku Klux Klan activity, in both its anti-Catholic, anti-Negro and anti-Jewish phases, Sanctuary collaborated with Col. Winfield Jones (who had January 3, 1944. The National Workers' League published the Nationalist Newsletter and was of great assistance to the America First Committee. Alderman was an associate of Gerald L. K. Smith. On the advisory Committee of the National Workers' League was George Destherang a co. defendant no right to the title, having been no right to the title, having been discharged from the Army in 1926 by reason of conviction of a felony) in writing and publishing the official Klan history, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a 295-page book issued by The Tocsin Publishers, 511 West 113th Street, New York (the address of Sunctionity a partnersh address of Sanctuary's apartment). The Fiery Cross, official Klan newspaper, gave considerable space to advertisements of this publication. A prolific writer of anti-semitic A prolific writer of anti-semitic and isolationist tracts (The Talmud Unmasked, The Holy See and the Jews, Tearing Away the Veils, War Guilt and War Mongers, etc.), Sanctuary's activities included promotion and dissemination of the propaganda of most of his co-defendants in this trial. He was the author of near-pornographic at-tacks on the President, and of a musical lampoon against Wendell willkie. He was a regular contribu-tor to Gerald Winrod's The De-fender, and was, with Harry K. Jurg (American Vigilant Intelli(Continued from page 12)

Ellis O. Jones

gence Federation, Chicago Tribune Building, Chicago), a co-distributor of the Protocols of Zion, one of the Ellis O. Jones, with Robert Noble, a co-defendant, was or-ganizer of the Friends of Progress, and, on his own, of The Loyal Copperheads of America, which took its name from its support of Charles A. Lindbergh, after President Roosevelt had stigmatized the flier's attitude as that of the "Copperheads" of the Civil War period He wrote for the Bund paper The Free American, and his groups turned out en masse to see the Nazi propaganda film "War in the West" in Los Angeles. Four days after Pearl Harbor he participated in Robert Nøble's mock impeachment of Roosevelt at a pro-Nazi rally and declared at that time:

"The Japanese have a right to Hawaii.... I would rather be in this war on the side of Ger-many than on the side of the British.'

In 1941, the Anti-Nazi League exposed him as the mailer of "Cop-perhead" Christmas greetings to many leaders and group workers of the America First Committee. Most of this Committee's principal mailing lists seemed still to be available to Jones despite the stensible dissolution of the America First Committee just after Pearl Harbor. He was convicted of reart Haroor. He was convicted of sedition in California, under a State indictment in 1942 and is serving a four year term for that offense. He was among those indicted by the Federal Government July 23, 1942, January 4, 1943 and January 3, 1944. January 3, 1944.

Lois de LaFavette Washburn

Lois de LaFayette Washburn— inordinately proud of the "de La-Fayette" and claiming descent from that worthy patriot — was an organizer, in 1938, of the an organizer, in 1938, of the National Liberty Party, and a co-organizer, with Donald Shea, of the National Gentile League, Viciously anti-Semitic, she published The Yankee Freeman, using "World Service" Nazi propaganda. (Another publication under the same title was later issued by one of her collaborators in New England.) The 4th of July after Pearl Harbor Mrs. Washburn was present at Boise Idaho at a meeting of sub-versives and anti-Semites masking versives and anti-Semites masking their activities by falsely claiming to meet under the auspices of the Disabled War Veterans. At that meeting she declared the New Deal had worked secretly with Japan to bring about the Pearl Harbor attack! She worked with Frank W. Clark, and wrote a letter to John Roy Carlson, author of

Under Cover, in October, 1941, advising him to dodge Army service. She was in touch with Governor Eugene (Red Suspenders) Tal-Eugene (Red Suspenders) Tal-madge, of Georgia, and was notified by him of his leadership of a new White Supremacy secret society in 1941. She has had a considerable correspondence with one of the Anti-Nazi League's inher communications "T.N.T."

Ernest F. Elmhurst

Co-author with Therese Holm of a violent anti-Semitic Book, The World Hoar published by W. D. Pelley, Ernest F. Elmhurst was the "handy man" for his co-defendant George Deatherage. When Deatherage was unable to attend the Erfurt conference of the attend the Erfurt conference of the American Quislings who went there to master and imbibe the Nazi propaganda technique in company with the Nazi gauliters from 22 countries, it was E l m hu r s t who went in his place, carrying Destheaved; a meak which were Deatherage's speech, which was later printed in Nazi papers amid general praise. Elmhurst was a frequent speaker at Christian Mobilizer meetings, sponsored by Joseph (McNazi) McWilliams. He was a close collaborator of Charles B. Hudson and Pete Stahrenberg, and lived on Staten Island with and lived on Staten Island with Thomas Quinlan, a friend of the defendant Broenstrupp. He was also the author of A protocol of 1935 an anti-Semitic "expose." Elmhurst was prolific of schemes to avoid the draft which he im-parted to men he thought were about to be inducted, and he told about to be inducted, and he told the author of Under Cover that he "never overlooked an opportunity to talk to soldiers and sailors."

Peter Stahrenberg

Stahrenberg, with Robert Ed-Stahrenberg, with Robert Ed-mondson, was a promoter of Nazi "divide and conquer" propaganda from the very beginning of Hitler's plan to break down confidence in the American government, and win active and militant support for fas-cism here. He published The Na-tional American and organized The American National Socialist Party, American National Socialist Party, which was a close American parallel of Hitler's own party, the National Socialist German Labor Party, Both Edmonson and Col. Eugene Sanctuary, his co-defendants in this trial, spoke at his meetings, and he was Sanctuary's printer, as well as the distributor, for Edmondants of the control of the contr well as the distributor, for Edmond-son, of imported propagands from Germany. His paper, The National American, displayed the swastika on its masthead, and used German "World Service" material in its col-umns. Viciously anti-racial, Stah-remberg was also ambitious to be the leader of armed militant groups and was cordial in his response to Joe "McNazi" McWilliams' dreams of sweeping New York streets with machine guns. He printed and dis-tributed posters identical w i t h those which appeared in Hitler's own newspaper, Der Stuermer. Urg own newspaper, Der Stuermer. Urg ing Americans to greater consci-ousness of their "Aryanism," Stah-renberg's paper pointed to Germa-ny as an example, declaring: "Germany has already risen in her might and thrown off the shackles which kept her people in slavery."
(National American, Nov., 1939.)

Charles B. Hudson

Charles B. Hudson's America Danger, a weekly news-lett published in Omaha, was on t recommended list of the Na propaganda agency, World Servic He lobbied against the lend-lease bill with Catherine Curtis, an executive of Women Investors in America, Inc., and with Elizabeth Dilling. As early as 1939 he visited other visited other propagandists in New York and attended the June 7 meeting of the American Nationalist party in Ne York. He was a backer of Ge Geo. Van Horn Mosely and at Dies Committee hearing he snate ed a glass of water from the Ge eral, dumped its contents and 1 marked:

"The water might have bee poisoned by the Hidden Hand! "The Hidden Hand" is the title a leaflet widely distributed by C Santuary, Winrod, and other defe-dants, based on the old Czarist-Na dants, based on the old Czarist-Ni propaganda forgery, The Protoco of Zion. He distributed the leaf-entitled Your Crucifixion, a vicio anti-Willkie lampoon. He mail hundreds of cards on "Diseas Africa" to relatives of men in t armed service under Rep. Cla Hoffman's frank, as did his c defendant P. F. Dennett. He was heavy backer of Cong. Thorkels of Montana, and used World Ser ice heavily in his publications.

Former Bund Head Held As Nazi Sp

The arrest July 20 by Feder Bureau of Investigation agents Knoxville, Tenn., of Walder Othmer 35-year-old naturaliz citizen, on an espionage charge l been announced by the Departme of Justice. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoov said that Othmer, a former lead of the German-American bund Trenton, N. J., went to Germa in 1938 and was trained as espionage agent.

Mr. Hoover said Othmer adm ted he was trained in writing a developing secret ink messag that he was furnished names a addresses of persons in four Eu pean countries to whom he was report, and that the Germans gr him $800 in cash when he left. The FBI said he was instruc particularly to report on les lease shipments.

The complaint charges tl with Hern Othmer conspired Bensmann and Johannes Disch to violate the espionage statut Bensmann and Bischoff are 1 in the United States and are conected with the German integence organization, the FBI

WE THE MOTHERS' AS FOR PEACE NOW

The national convention of the Mothers Mobilize for Amer Inc., isolationist women's organ: tion, whose activities have been tion, whose activities have been posed by the Anti Nazi Leag drew to a close June 13th in C cago with the passage of resctions demanding an immediate tions demanding an immediate gotiated peace with Germany. The convention opened with members meeting behind doors, but large numbers drif away when many prominent won unced as convention speak

> Bought That EXTRA War Bond Yet?

cury in 1942 Alderman declared:
"The peace will be negotiated by Hitler, Mussolini, the present Japanese government, and by Sir Oswald Mosley of England, Wm. Dudley Pelley, Father Coughlin, Col.
Lindbergh and Senator Nye." Ouebec Anti-Semites

Desecrate Synagogue

Police blamed vandals for a fire which seriously damaged Quebec's new Beth Israel Synagogue, prior to its dedication. Firemen said one wall of the new building was soaked with gasoline.

Bought That EXTRA War Bond?

EDITION:

Bedlam Marks Capital Sedition

(Continued from page 3)

"Moscow trials." He cited his long service with the State Department service with the State Department in a minor capacity when he reached sought to shift attention from the Nazi connections charged by conjuring up a civil liberties issue, declaring:

"Pearl Harbor did not suspend the Bill of Rights!"

He did not mention, of course, that it came very near to doing just that!

Jewish Plot Charged

Ellis O. Jones, already caught cribbing from the brief prepared by Laughlin, arose to whine that Rogge was a "conspirator" and to warn the jury against prosecutors in general.

On the basic theory propounded by the defense nearly en masse, that this is a "political" trial, At-torney Laughlin wrote to the Presi-dent demanding the ouster of Judge Eicher as presiding Justice on the ground that the President had appointed him especially to secure a conviction, in which charge he was joined by Ira Koehne (for Frank joined by Ira Koehne (for Frank W. Clark, Howard Broenstrupp and Lois Washburn) and by Henry H. Klein (for Eugene Sanctuary). The "Jewish plot" charge was made by Klein, and concurred in by Laughlin, and both demanded the trial be postponed until after the war to permit the calling up of the alleged "co-conspirators Hit-ler, Goebbels, Goering and others." Just before the trial George Deatherage, one of the defendants, Deatherage, one of the detendants, had written a 70 page booklet attacking the proceedings which he characterized as "an imitation of the Moscow trails," and it is therefore perhaps not strange that Ira Koehne, on the opening day referred to "this imitation of the referred to "this imitation of the Moscow trial," nor that Lois Washburn should hiss "Vishinsky!" (the name of the Soviet prosecutor) at Rogge every time he entered or left the courtroom. Some of the defense counsel, notably Lawrence Dennis, (for himself) and Ben Lindas (for George S. Viereck) dissociated George S. themselves from Laughlin's attack on Justice Eicher.

The anti-semitic matter was injected chiefly by the attorneys for defendants whose pre-trial ac-tivities had been particularly violent on this theme. Laughlin secured wide space in papers of the Chicago-Tribune group by at-tempting to subpoena the records of the Anti-Nazi League, the Anti-Defamation League, the Friends of Democracy and other organiza-tions, which, he said, were the genesis of the present prosecution. Koehne and Latimer filed challenges against a prospective juror, Sol Kadson, because of his Jewish ancestry. Not until after Rogge's opening speech on May 18 did these opening speech on May 18 did these well-worn propagandist arguments subside sufficiently to permit Lawrence Dennis, who had mean-while fired his attorney, Floyd Lanham, to stress his new defense theme of alleged interference with

Bundsters Called

By June 15 no less than a score of defense motions for mistrial had been made on one ground or an-other, and each had been overruled. E. Bateman Ennis unsuccessfully tried this tactic, citing the Supreme Court's short-lived reversal of the conviction of George S. Viereck as a Nazi agent. W. A. Gallagher, for Diebel and Schwinn, made a sim-

Jeepe and Schwini, made a similar motion, also overruled.

The government, after Dennis' opening statement, called Peter Gissibl, former Chicago Bund leader, Robert Stripling, and Lt. Harry Pfaltzgraff, former Dies committee investigators, to identify the 167 German-American Bund documents, including orders issued by Bundesfuehrer Fritz Kuhn, which it introduced in evidence. This move on the part of the Government was countered by a motion

Hartzel Case Cited

Considerable of a flurry was created, both in the minds of the general public and of the defense attorneys when, on June 12, the Supreme Court of the United States decided that Elmer Hartselfs dericted that Elmer Hart-zelf's conviction on charges of sedi-tion and subversion of the morale of the armed forces, should be reversed. For a few days predici-tions were freely made by propa-ganda partisans of the defendants that this was a blow to the Government's case. The Hartzel case however, differed widely from the however, differed widely from the sedition conspiracy case, particularly in the fact that Hartzel was never charged with any connection with Germany. Petitions for dismissal of the proceedings on this basis were denied by Justice Eicher, and the legal issues, discussed in another column of this invested in the second of the particular that the second of the sediment of the sedime issue of the Anti-Nazi Bulletin by the League's Counsel, Julius Gold-stein, were held not relevant.

Form 'Contempt' Club

The government's slow proces sion of witnesses former Bund members whose testimony has been introduced to show that there was a definite connection between the Bund in the United States and the Nazi party and regime in Germany went on. The defense counsel continued to perform obstructively and were fined repeatedly,—so much so that a few of them surrep-titiously organized a "club" which they called the Eicher Contempt Club, and wore little ribbons, lettered "ECC" under their coat lapels.

Laughlin, always a ring-leader in the spectacular moves designed to hamper the prosecution, filed a petition with the Speaker of the House for the impeachment of Judge Eicher, who thereupon dis-missed him as attorney for Edward James Smythe and Robert Noble. Ethelbert Frey, already represent-ing Robert Edmondson, was ap-pointed to represent Eugene Sanctuay, whose lawyer, Henry Klein, had refused to continue with the case. M. E. Buckley, already rep-resenting Ernst F. Elmhurst was appointed to represent Edward James Smythe, and J. Austin Latimer, representing James B. True and George Deatherage, briefly represented Robert Noble, whose trial, a few days later, was "severed," as were also the trials of True and David O. Baxter.

Long Trial Seen

Henry Klein, the anti-semitic attorney defending the anti-semitic Col. Eugene Sanctuary, was so disturbed at the events that prevented his turning the trial into a Nazi arena that he deserted his client on July 5, and on his refusal to return from New York, a contempt citation was issued against him, and, on July 21, Justice Eicher issued a bench warrant for his ar-rest. Klein had already been twice fined for contempt.

But it is now evident that this trial will be a long-drawn-out affair. Even after the death of Elmer J. Garner early in the trial, and the severance of the trial of the defendants Robert Noble, David O. Baxter and James B. True had reduced the total number of defendants to twenty-six, it was evident there would be no let-up in the delaying tactics of the defense, which democratic justice possibly makes inevitable in the trial of so extensive a conspiracy, involving in effect, trying twenty-to exclude these documents, which exit from the case Laughlin propaganda by the was finally overruled, and the taking of the evidence began. of Justice Eicher, failing which, which the sedition on July 17, he filed suit against the jurist for $109,220, "in behalf of the government," seeking this sum not for himself, but for the Government. The money represents Laughlin's idea of the jurist's salary "plus penalties" for sitting "illegally" in the case. It is logical to expect more such attempts from the defense, for these steps furnish excellent grist for the columns of propaganda by those One example of the M.Z.City. which the sedition conspiracy which the sedition conspiracy is having on several political figures who have withdrawn their names from candidacies of one sort and beat a hasty retreat tween the defendants and the connection between the defendants are the connection between the defendants and the connection between the defendants are connected to the connection between the defendants and the connection between the defendants and the connection between the defendants are connected to the connected the defendants and the connected th Ingures was not considered to reason the public gaze, is furnished bund. Rogge is now proceeding by Gerald P. Nye, who, more bold to augment that evidence and than some others, has nevertheless prove by documentation and testimony the conspiracy which is continued to run for office. On June 21 Ira Koehne, for Broenstrupp, alleged against the defendants. Clark and Washburn, filed a motion It is certain, hweever, that the defense, for these steps furnish excellent grist for the columns of propaganda sheets like X-Ray. After getting the e v id e n ce introduced regarding the collaboration between the defendants and the German American Bund, the Government has introduced the material which for a decade the Anti-Nazi League has insisted 1948, that "most of those involved There are in the defense of the most interest of the most introduced the senter on Jan. 14, and the defense of the most interest of the most of the most interest of the most of the most interest of the most of the most involved the material which for a decade the Anti-Nazi League has insisted 1948, that "most of those involved the research problem of the most of the most involved the most of the most interest in the defendants. It is easied against the defendants. It is case will presently, after the heat case will presently, after Anti-Nazi League has insisted 1943, that "most of those involved constituted a open conspiracy in this alleged conspiracy ... are tail defendants—other conspiracies against the United States—the no more guilty of conspiracy than propaganda of "World Service," (a sample of which appears on another page of this issue of the ments. The sample of which appears on another page of this issue of the ments. other page of this issue of the ments.

Bulletin) and evidence of the use It may seem to some that the and expose and against which and wide dissemination of this trial is proceeding more slowly, public action will also be demanded.

Legal Issues Vital to Nation

(Continued from page 11) that the purpose was to interfere with the successful prosecution of the war. It must be assumed, we think, that Hartzel expected those who read his pamphlets to accept their contents as the truth; otherwise, there have been no purpose in their circulation. Certainly it cannot be reasonably insisted that the defamatory and vicious attack made upon the President of the United States, the Commanderin-Chief of the Armed Forces of the nation, if believed would not seriously affect if not destroy, the morale of the nation, both civilian and military."

In substance, the same thing was said of Pelley by the United was said of reley by the United States Circuit Court and Pelley's decision of conviction was approved by the United States Supreme Court. Then came the decision in the Hartzel case. It should be remembered that a jury of 12 men a District Judge, and 3 Judges of the Circuit Court of Appeals gave the Circuit Court of Appeals gave full and careful study to the facts and the law and affirmed Hartzel's guilt before his case reached the United States Supreme Court where Justices Murphy, Roberts, Court Black, Rutledge and Douglas said, in effect, that Hartzel's war of words did not amount to sedition, because, among other reasons, there was no evidence that Hartzel was associated in any way with any foreign or subversive organization. Singularly, one of the first steps in the sedition case taken by Mr. Rogge was to show the direct connection between the defendants and the Deutsches Auslands In-stitute, and other Nazi foreign propaganda organizations. Those steps showed the pattern the pres-ent case will take: a pattern which the United States Supreme Court unanimously approves. Mr. Justice Reed wrote a dissenting opinion in the Hartzel case, in which Justices Frankfurter, Douglas and Jackson concurred. Thus we have 4 Supreme Court judges; 3 Circuit Court judges and one trial judge and a jury of twelve voting to convict Hartzel even though no connection was established be-tween him and a foreign Government.

Present Case Aided

It would seem as though the Supreme Court has very carefully given Mr. Rogge the green light involving in effect, trying twenty-in the current sedition case. The six cases at one time. Noble's Court is not composed of men as independent thoughts, in which saverance was ordered because of his "unruly conduct" on July 13, and Baxter's severance, ordered the same day, was because of a deafness that does not permit him to hear what is going on. Ture's preceded the decision in Hartzel's the toner what is going on. Ture's preceded the decision in Hartzel's burden on the Government but it severance was because of illness.

As a Parthian shot in his slow Court was asked to take jurisdic-

Germany was finished in the last war long before her arms and ammunition had run out. She was psychologically at low ebb, which is another way of saying that her morale had struck bottom. In keep-ing with her eternal pattern of militarism, she aimed for another way of conjust as come a pacible. var of conquest as soon as possible, but resolved not to make the same mistake again, and began, almost at once, in 1918, to prepare the psychological warfare of which the Pelley and other cases are minor

When Pelley's conviction was upheld in 1943, the Court said his words were dangerous because he created a nation-wide Silver Shirt organization; because he had an extensive library of German. extensive library of Ger. Italian and Japanese origin propaganda, and was one of Hit-ler's genuine admirers. These were some of the elements by which his intent was shown.

Germany leaned heavily on the chaos which Hitler's military psychology created — separating Frenchmen into economic and political classes, into groups for and against war; separating Englishmen from Englishmen, Americans from Americans, and so on down the line until internal chaos not only kept them very busy trying to put their own houses in order, but also kept them from paying much attention to German armament for world conquest.

Sedition, thus defined, requires not only the doing of certain things, but also the proof of an intent on the part of the doer, generally to the part of the doer, generally to bring about the evil results charged. This intent may be proven from his own acts or domestic associations, but if so, the proof must be very clear indeed. If proof of connection with a foreign country or its agents can be adduced as a way of showing this evil intent, then the crime of sedition may be much more easily established. And in any event, each ease is apt to be considered, on its own basis of facts.

in any event, each case is apt to be considered on its own basis of facts. One supposes that in the final analysis the real difference be-tween sedition and free speech, (including "vicious and unreasoning attacks on our military allies, frequent appeals to false and sinister racial theories and gross libels of the President") is found in whether these words are uttered as independent thoughts, in which in the current sedition case. The in whether these words are uttered Court is not composed of men as independent thoughts, in which unaware of what is going on about case they are not punishable, or tion of the Hartzel case, it granted certiorari on the ground that this difficult to show that a given person matter of great public importance." it is provable in hundreds of instances.

One hopes that the Hartzel decision has not established official sanction for more conduct like that of Hartzel. The rule which it announces may one day die among those who worship free speech—to paraphrase Mr. Justice Holmes paraphrase Mr. Justice Holmes— to the extent of permitting the shout of "Fire" in a crowded theatre. Perhaps recent military successes have emboldened the majority of Court to condons Har-tzel's action but on all hands are signs that we have not yet emerged from the woods and that for the recent it loset it would have heaven present at least it would have been well for the majority to have gone along with the decision in the Pelley case. The mischief of the Hartzel case, if any, is not so much in its value as a precedent, wh is small, because it is confined which a certain fact pattern but in the a certain fact pattern but in the degree of comfort which some incipient seditionists may find in the words of the majority opinion, particularly when fortified by con-clusions which certain elements of the press have drawn, possibly for their own purposes, from those words. words.

News Briefs

William Kullgren, publisher of America Speaks, and number 1 fund-raiser in the appeals for fin-ancing Colonel Sanctuary's trial, the showdown is now, and not in November."

The boys in Normandy, in Guam, in Saipan, in Sicily would certainly like to know that the "last chance" the folks back home have to serve their country is by financing the trial of Colonel Sanctuary and his attorney, Henry Klein.

Gerald Winrod addresses his appeal to "Dear Praying Friend." In it he states that "—in the present battle in Washington, we present battle in Washington, we (the seditionists) are defending American Civil Liberty." His ap-peal is not so much for financial aid as for the termination of "New Deal terrorism" which he thinks has brought him and his federates to trial. Mr. V forgets, for the nonce, that the decision of guilty or not guilty rests with the able jury which his own attorney helped to impanel in true American fashion.

BOUGHT THAT EXTRA