Dear John,

That is a nice, neat presentations. Thanks for it.

And I wish I could sketch as you do. They are clean and neat.

But the problem is that there is no supporting evidence.

People will say, that's just one man's opinion.

and the problem with having supporting evidence is that the government never investigated the crime itself so there are no leads to follow.

But one thing is beyond question: nobody fired the three shots of the official story with that rifle in 5.4 seconds.

If you ever get up this way I'll show you some things I think may interest you.

Dr. Crenshaw's book, which is mostly from a man named Gary Shaw, adds nothing new about the assassination. He does say that LBJ phoned him while he was working on Oswald and told him to get a confession.

He makes cracks about the Secret Service throughout, his usual reference being "The men in suits."

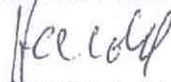

His is not the only such book.

I do hope that Hickey finds it possible to sue.

What Donahue and his publisher did is as rotten as anything I can recall.

And entirely baseless.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
