Mr. Harold Weisberg
7627 Old Receiver Road
Frederick, Maryland 21701

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Reference is made to the Administrative Appeal you filed pertaining to the processing of Dallas and New Orleans Field Office records on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Enclosed are 130 pages, 120 of which have not been previously released, which we have reprocessed in accordance with the guidelines enumerated in the letter dated December 16, 1980, from John H. Shenefield, Associate Attorney General to James H. Lesar, Esquire. A copy of this letter has been furnished to you. The enclosed material has been reviewed by the Office of Privacy and Information Appeals, United States Department of Justice, prior to this release. Additional releases of reprocessed material will be made in the near future.

Also enclosed is a copy of the relevant inventory worksheets, for the enclosed reprocessed documents, containing any necessary adjustments.

Sincerely yours,

James K. Hall, Chief
Freedom of Information-
Privacy Acts Section
Records Management Division
