NEW ORLEANS, April 3 of Clay L. Shaw, not to dis-(UPI)—District Judge Edward cuss the guilt or innocence of A. Haggerty Jr. today banned the defendant, nor to make all persons officially connect any statements concerning ed with the assassination conspiracy trial of Clay L. Shaw against him." from talking about the case.

Shaw, director of the New Orleans pending the return of three fi-International Trade Mart, is gures mentioned in the probe: scheduled to be arraigned Wednesday on charges of con- New Orleans lounge operator suing the orders to assure tions in 1961. He has been ar-shaw of a fair trial and to rested in Columbus, Ohio, and Shaw of a rair trial and to rester in Columbus, Onio, and curb "the unchallenged chat-remained in jall in lieu of ter that hits the print and $10,000 bond. radio and television media be (Novel showed up before tween the time of arrest and Municipal Judge Wilbur Shull off tem of court procedure "is subverted when the press, radio and television media fills ("I used to jurors' heads and inadmissible evidence.

tors, witnesses and any public about him," Novel said. employe officially connected concerning

Garrison's investigation former managing seemed to marking time today

spiring to assassinate Pressought as a material witness in the assassination probe and Haggerty said he was is for conspiracy to steal muni-

Haggerty said the whole sys began arguing his own case without a lawyer today and bond, Associated

("I used to do work for Garrison, in fact, I did some of the investigating in this so-"I, therefore, am ordering called plot. I've got a lot of all attorneys, police investiga. charges of my own to make with the procedures of this Novel could say any more. It court in the forthcoming trial was the first indication Novel Tr might have been part of the ur Garrison investigation.

(Later, Novel said he had da heard it said he planned to st return to New Orleans volun-fi tarily but, "I did not intend to do that because of this Cuban . . ." This time his lawyer, Jerry Weiner, interrupted and silenced Novel. Weiner ap-S peared in the courtroom while Novel was talking.)

· Sergio Arcacha Smith, a former New Orleans Cuban exile leader who was arrested in Dallas today on a warrant by Garrison in connection with the munitions burglary. Garrison's warrant says Smith, Novel and the late David W. si Ferrie conspired to steal the 7. munitions.

• Mrs. Harold McMaines, a former New Orleanian who pr now lives in Omaha, Neb., who in is wanted for questioning in pa regard to a party in Ferrie's es rie, Shaw and Lee Harvey Os-wald allegedly plotted Mr. lat Kennedy's assassination. She pro is awaiting an extradition tee hearing in Nebraska.

Tuesday, April 4, 1967 THE WASHINGTON POST

Judge Forbids Discussion of JFK Plot Trial