

GARRISON SPURNS

WITNESS'S TERMS

NEW ORLEANS, April 7 (UPI)—District Attorney Jim Garrison's office refused today to accept conditions for the voluntary return of Gordon Novel for questioning in an alleged plot that led to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Through a lawyer, Jerry Weiner, in Columbus, Ohio, Mr. Novel offered to waive extradition to answer a Louisiana grand jury subpoena as a material witness if he were assured freedom from "harassment."

A spokesman said Mr. Garrison would agree to no conditions.

Mr. Novel, who has branded the Garrison investigation a "fraud," said his conditions included "immunity from further harassment and intimidation."

He demanded that all charges against him for an alleged 1961 burglary be dropped and said he would testify before the grand jury only if Mr. Garrison and his staff were absent.

Warrants have been issued for Mr. Novel's arrest as a material witness in the assassination investigation and on burglary charges.

Meanwhile, Dean Andrews Jr., a lawyer who once gave advice to Lee Harvey Oswald, asked a Criminal District Court judge to disclose grand jury testimony that resulted in the indictment of Mr. Andrews for perjury.

The request was made at a hearing in which Mr. Andrews asked the court to quash the perjury charges.
