

Garrison's JFK Witness Freed in Deeper Mystery

Columbus, Ohio, April 4 (AP)—Gordon Novel walked out of jail today and cast fresh mystery on his role in the New Orleans investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Daley Winner By Big Spread In Chi Election

Chicago, April 4 (CTPS) — Mayor Daley was reelected by better than two to one over Republican John Waner today.

Mayor Daley

For the first time in Chicago history, a mayor won a fourth four-year term. Daley had spoken out strongly against civil rights leaders who threatened renewed demonstrations. With 101 precincts missing of a total of 3,640, Daley had 768,198 or 72.60% of the votes. Waner got 270,418 or 25.56%. Write-in votes were 18,941 for Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian and civil rights activist, and 563 for Lar Daly, whose unbroken string of defeats hit 28.

KO Veto on Maine Vote

Augusta, April 4 (AP)—The Maine Senate voted 25-9 today to override Gov. Kenneth M. Curtis' veto of a bill to end "straight ticket" voting in Maine elections.

After a professional bondsman put up $10,000 bond to free him on a fugitive charge, Novel repeated to newsmen his insistence that he once worked for District Attorney Jim Garrison, who wants Novel back in New Orleans in connection with his inquiry into the assassination.

(UPI Telefoto) Gordon Novel as he left jail yesterday.

But Novel declined to go into specific details about his work. He answered several questions with: "I think you better ask Garrison about that."

Missing from the 50 or 60 newsmen and spectators who watched Novel come out of jail was Abby Mulligan, a Columbus girl who has been identified as Novel's fiancée. She was once a bunny at Chicago's Playboy Club.

Novel and his Columbus lawyer, Jerry Weiner, said they would fight to prevent Novel's return to New Orleans, where he is charged with conspiring to commit burglary of a munitions plant. Garrison also issued a warrant for him as a witness in the assassination case.

Novel, arrested Saturday in suburban Gahanna, told newsmen he worked for Garrison as chief of the district attorney's security section. He would not say when or how long he was employed by Garrison.

"He knows . . . ask him," Novel said. "My code name was Alexander and electronics was my field."

Novel insisted Garrison "wants to make a name for himself" with the assassination case.

Another 'Plot' Figure Arraigned Today

New Orleans, April 4 (UPI) —Clay L. Shaw goes into court tomorrow morning to enter a plea on charges he conspired to kill President Kennedy in September of 1963.

Shaw will be arraigned before District Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. in the same building where a grand jury is hearing District Attorney Jim Garrison's continuing investigation of the assassination.