Dear Mr. O'Connell:

My pace has intensified, not slackened, and I will answer you in full as soon as I can. I now have a copy of Marina's long taped interview that I got for someone else and can lend you if you will be able to read and return it rapidly. You can then copy what you want or get selected pages or the entire thing, which will cost you 20¢ per page.

I am anxious for the Long John tape. My wife is making this note as we drive to Washington to tape our section of the educational TV network's often postponed treatment that I believe I initiated in New York the day I was on Long John. The other part will be a Specter Epstein @confrontation@. I am supposed to be getting a tape of the entire thing and I have a neighbor who has a professional transcription business if any of you want copies.

I told Sylvia about the WNEW-TV show and I hope she tapes it.

In the morning (Friday) I leave for Philadelphia for a four hour radio show which Vincent Salandria is to share. Last week I thought I had gotten him an entire program of his own.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
